

CZERNOWITZ EVACUATED

By The Austrians After Hard Fighting. THE RUSSIAN DRIVE

THE ENEMY OUT OF THEIR TRENCHES THERE: Russian Advance Progresses Favorably in Volhynia and Eastern Galicia—Heavy Enemy Losses in Plerce Fighting.

On Two-Hundred-Mile Front. Pressing their attacks all along the two-hundred-mile front in Eastern Galicia, the Russians are fighting in some places hand-to-hand encounters with the enemy in the trenches.

SAYS WILSON LIED. New York, Jan. 5.—Under the caption of "The Lie," the Tribune editorially says: "When Woodrow Wilson, on February 12th, told the German Government that the United States would hold it to strict account, it was a lie."

BULGARIAN PILLAGE. Some Villages on the Frontier of Greece. (Special to the Whig.) Paris, Jan. 5.—The following official statement was given on last night: Certain Bulgarian detachments have pillaged villages on the Greek frontier.

LORD NORTHCLEAVE WARNS The United States of Its Perilous Position. (Special to the Whig.) London, Jan. 5.—In a long interview, Lord Northcliffe calls attention of the United States to its perilous position and says a hostile army of Hun or Orientals could be brought across the ocean and landed on United States shores rapidly.

CASUALTIES AT LOOS NEARLY 60,000. Official Figures Are Announced in the British House. (Special to the Whig.) London, Jan. 5.—British casualties in the battle of Loos alone during the Allied offensive in September totaled nearly 60,000, Under Secretary Tennant announced this afternoon. They are divided as follows: Officers, 2,378; men, 57,288.

THE WHIG'S CONTENTS. 1.—British Conscription Bill: Russian Advance. 2.—Clark W. White's Death. 3.—Divers Ships for Grain: Twilight. 4.—Editorial: Random Reels: Walt Mason's Rhymes. 5.—Military News: Kingston Troops: Daily Treated in Hamilton. 6.—Eastern Ontario News: Hockey: Military: Timely Announcements: The Forum. 7.—Theatrical: Military: Army of Hun. 8.—Hun Conscription of U. S.: Sport. 9.—Night: Raids of Women. 11.—Country: News: Markets. 12.—Story of a Stanza.

TOTAL ENROLMENT OF CANADIANS

In 1915 Was 223,070—Kingston Division Shows Up Well. Ottawa, Jan. 5.—The decision to increase the Canadian forces to half a million men gives peculiar interest to the recruiting up to date for the various contingents and the enlistment of the different divisional areas. Including 12,500 men doing guard duty on public works and the permanent forces of 2,460, the total enrollment up to the end of the year was 223,070.

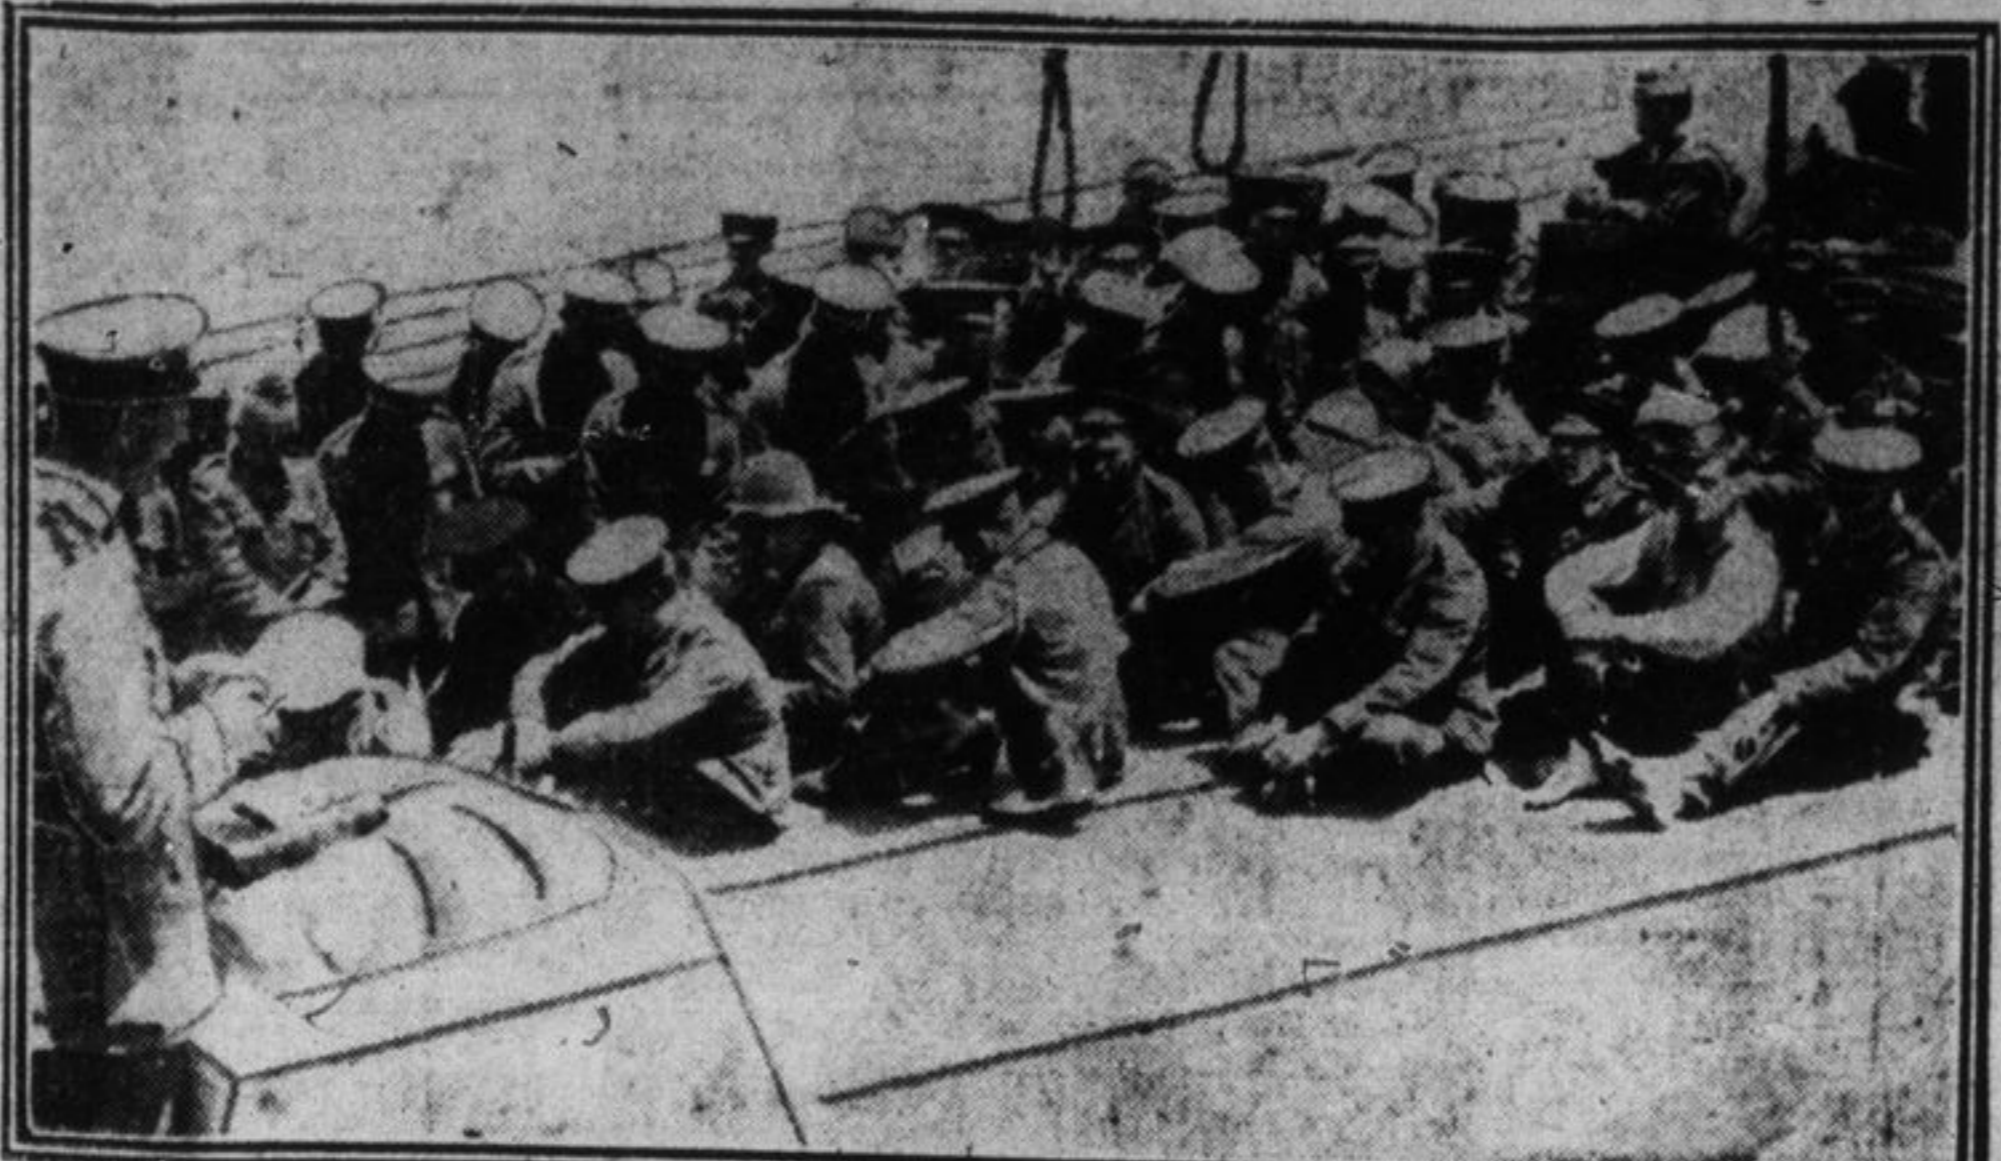

FORD PUTS FOOT DOWN. On Paying For Gowns For the Peace Ladies. Copenhagen, Jan. 5.—Henry Ford will not pay for new gowns for certain of the women peace delegates who desired to make a brilliant showing at next week's conference at The Hague.

ALLIES PERFECT THEIR MACHINE. Military Power Being Reorganized For An Irresistible Spring Campaign. Paris, Jan. 5.—Vast changes in the Allies' military establishment will have a marked effect on the spring campaign that will open in the spring.

FRANCE TO ESTABLISH GREAT FAIR AT LYONS. Institution Will Rival That of Leipzig, Where Merchants Will Meet. Ottawa, Jan. 5.—The trade and commerce department has been notified that the French are planning to establish at Lyons a great fair similar to that which has been held at Leipzig, Germany.

BRITISH CONSCRIPTION BILL INTRODUCED (Special to the Whig.) London, Jan. 5.—Premier Asquith this afternoon introduced in the Commons the Government bill for conscription. In offering the bill, the Prime Minister declared that the Government does not plan to draft into the service at this time all men of military age.

SUNDAY SERVICE ON BRITISH TRANSPORT.

A Sunday service on board a transport bound for Salonika. The Bible rests on a cushion covered with the Union Jack, behind which stands the "padre."

SERBS READY TO COME BACK TO GREEK FRONTIER.

Serbs Reach Salonika in Small Regiments—Only 150,000 Bulgarians and Tzontons on Greek Frontier. Paris, Jan. 5.—According to a Havas despatch from Athens, under date of January 3rd, the officers of King Peter's suite at Salonika declare that the Serbians are concentrated in Albania, not including the Serbian detachments co-operating with the Montenegrin army, number 100,000.

RECRUITING MEN IN NEW YORK STATE. For Canadian Army, In Violation of United States Laws.

Watertown, N.Y., Jan. 5.—An international controversy may arise from the activities in this city for the past few days of "Jack" Leamon, formerly of Watertown, but now a sergeant in the Canadian army. Leamon came to this city from Prescott, where he is stationed, a few days ago, making his headquarters at the Crowners House, started recruiting Americans for the Canadian forces.

THE NEGLECT OF SCIENCE OF ENGLAND. TOO MANY LAWYERS IN GOVERNMENT FOR GOOD OF COUNTRY.

Is the Opinion of Prof. E. B. Poulton of Oxford—"Germany Puts Science To Every Possible Use." London, Jan. 4.—Neglect of science is responsible for England's mistakes, according to Prof. E. B. Poulton of Oxford University. In speaking of "science and the great war," he said: "Nearly all our failures in the present conflict have been due to the national neglect of science and the excessive pre-eminence in parliament and especially in the Government of the spirit that is the most antagonistic to science—the spirit of the advocate."

FRANCE TO ESTABLISH GREAT FAIR AT LYONS. Institution Will Rival That of Leipzig, Where Merchants Will Meet. Ottawa, Jan. 5.—The trade and commerce department has been notified that the French are planning to establish at Lyons a great fair similar to that which has been held at Leipzig, Germany.

WRECKED IN STORM. American Steamer Saw Its Finish in Magellan Straits. (Special to the Whig.) Santiago, Chile, Jan. 5.—American steamer Santa Clara, from New York for Valparaiso, has been wrecked in a severe storm in the Magellan Straits. No other details have been received here.

KING OF SAXONY MAY QUIT. Because of Growing Discontent of The Population. Paris, Jan. 5.—A report is current that King Frederick August of Saxony is considering the idea of abdicating in favor of his eldest son, Prince George, says the Journal, in a despatch from Basel, "owing to the growing discontent of the population, which on several occasions has taken the form of hostile demonstrations against the King."

BRITAIN ANXIOUS TO PLEASE NEUTRALS. Prospective Unionist M.P. Considers Sea Power is Not Fully Exerted. London, Jan. 5.—Thomas Gibson Bowles, who changed his political coat and subsequently reverted to his original faith, will be the Unionist candidate for the parliamentary seat of St. George's, made vacant by the recent elevation of Sir Alexander Henderson to the peerage.

RAILWAYS WAR FOR BUSINESS.

C. N. R. and C. P. R. in Keen Fight Over Freight Rates To Coast. Vancouver, Jan. 5.—A bitter battle between the Canadian Northern and C. P. R. for business between the Prairies and the Pacific coast appears to have been precipitated by the recent entry of the new transcontinental into the field of freight traffic.

KAISER SERIOUSLY ILL. Report Reaches Amsterdam That He Has Blood Poisoning. Amsterdam, Jan. 5.—Emperor William is suffering from blood poisoning and his condition is daily becoming worse, according to reports that have reached here from Germany. These state that the Kaiser has been operated upon twice without any improvement being noted.

HOCKEY IS PLACED UNDER WOMEN'S BAN. Big Salaries Paid Professionals Could Be Used to Better Advantage. Ottawa, Jan. 5.—Laurentian chapter, Daughters of the Empire, at a meeting presided over by Lady Egan, discussed the subject of the huge attendance at hockey matches and the large sums paid to able-bodied men who, it was felt, might be at the front.

CANADA BETTER OFF. Over 38 Millions to the Good, as Compared With Year Ago. Ottawa, Jan. 5.—The revenue of Canada for the nine months ended December 31st was $122,000,000, as against $99,600,000 in the period corresponding, an increase of $22,400,000. Expenditure for the nine months was 74 millions as against 85 millions during the same nine months a year ago, a decrease of eleven millions. Capital expenditure was 28 millions, as compared with 33 millions a year ago, a decrease of five millions. Apart from the war outlays, there is a betterment of $38,400,000 in the financial situation now and a year ago, due to increased revenues and decreased expenditures.

AN OFFENSIVE BY ALLIES ON ALL FRONTS EXPECTED BY HUNGARIAN OFFICIALS. EXPECT ITS DEFEAT AS CENTRAL POWERS ARE ABLE TO CONCENTRATE. Hungarian Leaders Do Not Expect An Early Peace, Contrary to the General Opinion in Berlin. (Special to the Whig.) Budapest, Jan. 5. (delayed).—A great offensive movement by the Allies on all fronts is expected by Hungarian officials in the spring. They are certain it will meet with defeat. "The Allies fail to take into account our military positions," Count Julius Andrássy, Hungarian Parliamentary leader, declared to-day. "We are so situated now that we can help each other. We can send men and resources to any front at any time. We can concentrate something the enemy cannot do. This, I believe, makes our victory certain and it overbalances the resources of our opponents. The situation cannot be changed by an Entente offensive this spring."

LOOK INTO LUMBER TRADE. Ottawa Government, However, Does Not Believe Famine Likely. Ottawa, Jan. 5.—The Government does not expect a lumber famine with soaring prices. At the present moment stocks are large and prices low. In official circles stories to the effect that the demands from Great Britain are likely to inflate Canadian prices are believed to be exaggerated, but the Government is taking steps to inform itself as to the present condition of the British market.

CANADA'S GREAT FEAT. Yorkshire Observer Regards Raising of Big Army as Wonderful. London, Jan. 5.—The Yorkshire Observer (Liberal), discussing Borden's New Year message regarding the increase in Canada's gift of men, says: "None could have believed it possible a little over a year ago that Canada would undertake to provide an army of 500,000. Such an unflinching resolve on the part of the Dominion is not only an inspiration to us in dark days, but a pledge that the Empire is one and indivisible in the exertions prepared and put forth to achieve final victory."

AN OFFENSIVE BY ALLIES ON ALL FRONTS EXPECTED BY HUNGARIAN OFFICIALS. EXPECT ITS DEFEAT AS CENTRAL POWERS ARE ABLE TO CONCENTRATE. Hungarian Leaders Do Not Expect An Early Peace, Contrary to the General Opinion in Berlin. (Special to the Whig.) Budapest, Jan. 5. (delayed).—A great offensive movement by the Allies on all fronts is expected by Hungarian officials in the spring. They are certain it will meet with defeat. "The Allies fail to take into account our military positions," Count Julius Andrássy, Hungarian Parliamentary leader, declared to-day. "We are so situated now that we can help each other. We can send men and resources to any front at any time. We can concentrate something the enemy cannot do. This, I believe, makes our victory certain and it overbalances the resources of our opponents. The situation cannot be changed by an Entente offensive this spring."

LOOK INTO LUMBER TRADE. Ottawa Government, However, Does Not Believe Famine Likely. Ottawa, Jan. 5.—The Government does not expect a lumber famine with soaring prices. At the present moment stocks are large and prices low. In official circles stories to the effect that the demands from Great Britain are likely to inflate Canadian prices are believed to be exaggerated, but the Government is taking steps to inform itself as to the present condition of the British market.

CANADA'S GREAT FEAT. Yorkshire Observer Regards Raising of Big Army as Wonderful. London, Jan. 5.—The Yorkshire Observer (Liberal), discussing Borden's New Year message regarding the increase in Canada's gift of men, says: "None could have believed it possible a little over a year ago that Canada would undertake to provide an army of 500,000. Such an unflinching resolve on the part of the Dominion is not only an inspiration to us in dark days, but a pledge that the Empire is one and indivisible in the exertions prepared and put forth to achieve final victory."

DAILY MEMORANDUM. See top of page 8, right hand corner, for probabilities. Installation of officers Court Cataraugus to-night, 8 p.m. K.C.L. Frontenac Hockey game postponed until Tuesday night.

THE DAILY BRITISH WHIG IS ON SALE AT THE FOLLOWING CITY STORES: Bucknell's News Depot, 225 King St. Clark, W. & Co., 25 Prince Street. Culler's Grocery, 150 Princess Street. Culler's Grocery, 309 Princess Street. Frontenac Hotel, 202 Ontario St. Gibson's Drug Store, Market Square. G.V. Southcott's Grocery, Port Arthur. McAuley's Book Store, 33 Princess Street. McLaughlin's Clear Store, 212 Prince St. McLeod's Grocery, 51 Union St. Medley's Drug Store, 250 University Ave. Paul's Clear Store, 212 Princess Street. Vallet's Grocery, 309 Montreal St.

MADDERN—At Brewers Mills on Jan 5th, 1916, Patrick Madden, aged eighty-eight years, of Princess Street, died on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Barnaby's Church. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend. FUNERAL—in Kingston on Jan 6th, 1916, at 11 a.m., eldest daughter of Frederick Madden, aged seven years and five months. FUNERAL—on her late residence, 91 Elm Street, Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, at Caturagui cemetery.

RANDALL—In Kingston on Jan 5th, 1916, Marguerite Ann Parley, relict of the late Benjamin Randall, died at her residence of her long illness on Friday morning at 10 o'clock, at Caturagui cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM. In loving memory of William Hastings, who died at 211 Queen Street, Kingston, Ontario, Jan. 4th, 1915. All is dark within our dwelling, Lonely is our home to-day. For the one who smiled to cheer us, Has for ever passed away. His cheery smile and kindly ways, Are pleasant to recall. He had a friendly word for each, And died beloved by all. —Wide and Family.

ROBERT J. REID The Leading Undertaker. Phone 577. 230 Princess Street. JAMES REID The Old Firm of Undertakers. 34 and 35-57 PRINCESS STREET. Phone 147 for Ambulance.

FAMILIAR QUOTATIONS. CHOSEN BY FAMOUS MEN AND WOMEN OF THE DAY. Whom neither shape of danger can dismay, Nor thought of tender happiness betray. —Wordsworth. DUKE OF NEWCASTLE.