CLARK W. WRIGHT DEAD

LICENSE INSPECTOR PASSED AWAY ON WEDNESDAY.

Served as Mayor of City for One Year, and Represented Frontenac Ward as Alderman for Many Years.—City Loses Another Good Citizen.

Kingston has lost another good citizen, in the person of Clark William Wright, License Inspector, who passed away about nine o'clock on Wednesday morning at his home, 25 Colborne street. He was fifty-six years of age. Mr. Wright had been in failing health for some time, but had only been laid up for a few weeks. He was unwell at the time the Provincial Board of License Commissioners visited this city, and at that time was forced to take to his bed. He underwent treatment at the General Hospital for a time.

Born and raised in Kingston, Mr. Wright was one of the best-known of her citizens. His friends were legion, and he was beloved by all. He was possessed of a kindly heart and spirit, and was a man who made many friends. The announcement of his death was received throughout the city and district with sincere regret and many were the tributes paid him.

Mr. Wright was a son of the late Clark Wright, Kingston, and was born on March 12th, 1859. His father was a furrier, carrying on business on Wellington street, the store being one of the best-known in Eastern Ontario. Deceased was educated here and in Montreal, and afterwards went into the business with his father, under the firm name of Clark Wright & Son. He continued in the business for many years, after which he went into the insurance business, representing various companies. He was appointed to the position of license inspector in the fall of 1906, succeeding the late William Glidden.

For some years Mr. Wright took a very active part in municipal affairs, and in 1895, had the honor of being elected Mayor of the city, which position he ably filled. He first entered the City Council in 1881, as a representative of Frontenac Ward and also represented his ward in the Council in 1892, 1893, 1894, serving as Mayor the following year, and then representing the ward as Alderman again in 1897, 1898, and 1900. He took much interest in the welfare of the city, and during his time in the Council did much to promote the interests of the city he loved so well.

In fraternal societies, deceased was also very prominent. He was a member of Kingston Lodge of Perfection, and Rose of Sharon Chapter, Rose Croix, Scottish Rite, and also secretary-treasurer of these lodges. He was also a member of Mipden Lodge, A. F. & A. M., an Oddfellow and a member of the Canadian Order of Foresters.

In religion, he was an Anglican, and attended St. George's Cathedral, St. James Church, and St. Paul's Church, during different periods of his life.

He is survived by his wife, three sons and four daughters. The sons are: Ald. George Clark, Kingston; John B. Bank of Toronto, Kingston; and William E. at home. The daughters are Miss Guskie, Nursing Sister at the Richardson Convalescent Home, Kingston; Mrs. Thomas E. Peterson, Calgary; Frances and Catherine, at home. Mrs. James MacArthur of London, Ont., is a sister.

Help Queen's Hospital. The members of Queen's Alumnae Association resident in Kingston have been asked by the Red Cross to give a "Sheet Show" in Grant Hall on Friday, Jan. 7th, from 2.30 to 6 p.m. The admission fee will be one or more sheets of 700 yards long by 60 inches wide, hemmed and laundered. Tea will be served and the College orchestra will be in attendance.

Privates Maddox and Eggleton were removed from the Artillery Barracks to the General Hospital in James Reid's ambulance.

Wedded at Audley, Alberta. A quiet wedding took place Thursday, Dec. 29th, 1915, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hampton Audley, Alberta, when their daughter, Agnes Sitter, was united in marriage to Rev. Samuel C. Ratcliffe, Gaetz Valley, Alta. Rev. K. C. McLeod, Stettin, an old friend of the family, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father, and entered the room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Hubert Hampton. She wore her travelling suit of heavy gabardine, trimmed with seal skin and muff to match, a hat of purple velvet with ostrich mount, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Ratcliffe left on the afternoon train for Edmonton en route to their home in Donalda, followed by the best wishes of their many friends.

WATERTOWN NEWSBOY JOINS CANADIANS. George Lamoreaux, 16 Years Old, Enlisted in Artillery At Kingston.

The Times of Watertown, N.Y., says: Francis W. Lamoreaux, of 176 Stone street, has just received word from a sister in Kingston that his brother, George sixteen years of age, well known in this city, has enlisted in the Canadian heavy artillery, and gone to England preparatory to serving at the front. This news came as a great surprise to Mr. Lamoreaux, although he knew that his brother had gone to Canada to visit.

Mr. Lamoreaux is chief for George C. Sherman on his pleasure yacht during the summer and only recently returned to his home here. He learned when his sister came here that George had enlisted at Kingston and had been sent overseas. In a letter to his sister George asked for a pair of fur-lined gloves and Mr. Lamoreaux intended to send them to him as soon as he learns his address. He has written his sister for it, and expects to hear within a few days.

George Lamoreaux is well known here, where he sold papers for a number of years. He had always had visited Canada several times, and his brother thinks he enlisted just for the experience. Although but sixteen years of age, he has charge of a team of horses in the heavy artillery division.

The Song that Appeals to Everybody—Guthbertson's Enormously Successful and Splendid Song, God Keep You Safe

The words of which are reproduced herewith: Music by EDWARD GUTHBERTSON

Words by KATH HITT, SAULTER, Key G. Waugh & Co. E.

God keep you safe, dear heart o' mine, Wherever you may be, In distant lands, the battlefield, Or on the broad high sea.

God keep you safe, dear heart o' mine, The hours apart from thee, Draw by on laden, lifeless wings, All fraught with rosemary.

God keep you safe, dear heart o' mine, Till you again I see; Tho' thousand dangers press around, God bring you home to me.

This song echoes the thoughts and feelings of everybody in this country to-day, for who amongst us has not at least one dear friend absent in distant lands, The battlefield, or on the broad high sea?

By virtue of its merit alone it has jumped right into the front rank of popularity, and is now being sung by many of our best Contraltos and others as their special item.

ALL OF MILITARY AGE COULD BE FORCED TO SERVE BY ORDER-IN-COUNCIL.

A Conscription Law Is Not Necessary—The Militia Act Has a Provision For Calling Out Four Classes.

While the citizens of Kingston are reading of the Lord Derby bill in England, and guessing at the possibilities of conscription in Canada, they, perhaps, realize that it would not be necessary to pass conscription law to force all the men of military age in this city to enlist. A statement to this effect was made by a prominent military man, who quoted the Militia Act as his authority. He stated that if the present units were not recruited within the time desired by the military authorities that all that would be needed to make every man eligible to enlist, come out, would be an order in council. After this was passed, it would simply be a case of balloting for the men, and they would be drafted. There are four classes for the draft, according to the Canadian Militia Act, first single men or widowers without children, between the ages of 18 and 30; second, single men or widowers without children, between the ages of 30 and 45; third, married men, with children, between the
