Strange But True Story of a Stanza

(By Rev. Canon Dyson Hague, in London Christian minister of Canada," as it has been a moment that it was a passing atcalled-I told the following story: well known English scholar, wrote a that it had in some way seized upon

"In peace, let me resign my breath, And Thy salvation see: My sins deserve eternal death, But Jesus died for me."

faith. This was it:

te write them out, and then fastened ed by it but it almost overcame me. the paper over the mantlepiece in his study; and there, yellow with Saved Through Verse On Tombstone. age, they hung for many years, a With tears streaming from his traced them. Sometime after this an ago when he was a young man, careold friend-General Taylor, one of less and indifferent in matters of rethe heroes of Waterloo -came to ligion, he sauntered one day in his ! visit him at Tollymore Park, Lord walk into an old churchyard near Roden noticed that the eyes of the Wolfville, Nova Scotia, in the land old veteran were always fixed for a of "Evangeline," and seeing a fallen few moments on the motto over the gravestone, he overturned it out of mantlepiece, "Why, General," said pure curiosity. And there he read at Lord Roden, "you will soon know the the foot, engraved in the stone, is to be truly ours .- David Starr verse by heart." "I know it now by those very four lines, and they took heart," replied the general, with such hold upon him, and so clearly feeling," and the simple words were explained to him the way of salvathe means of bringing him to know tion, that they were the means of his the true way of Salvation. Some two conversion. And from that day, years afterwards the physician, who nearly 50 years before, he had, by had been with the old general while God's grace, as a result of those four he lay a dying, wrose to Lord Roden lines, led a consecrated life for to say that his friend had departed Christ, "You can imagine," said he, in peace, and that the last words which fell from the old general's lips | light, when I heard you tell the story were the words he had learned to about the lines. You brought back neighbor, Lord Roden happened to tell the story of the old general and these lines. Among those who heard of was a young, officer in the British army, who had recently returned from the Crimea. He listened carelessly enough, and no impression welcome him, repeating the lines:

quiver with some unwonted excite- last memorial to all present, might afraid of thieves.

Paul's church, Halifax-the "West- with a strange light. I thought for tack of some kind. But as I went on Many years ago, Doctor Valpy, a telling the story, there was no doubt verse of four lines as the lenging of the very soul of the listener his heart and the confession of his touched his feelings with some strange and indescribable suggestion. And when at last I came to the part about the Crimean officer, I thought that the old gentleman would have almost cried out in the church. deeply was he affected. The sto ended the sermon. After the sir Sometime afterwards he gave this ing of the hymn I went into the ves stanza to his friend, Doctor Marsh, try. I had scarcely got there when a notable Church of England clergy- a knock was heard at the door, and man, and the father of Miss Marsh, the old gentleman, with emotion still the author of the "Life of Captain evident, came and said, "Where did Hedley Vicars," and the verse be- you get that story?" I told him came a great blessing to him. Doctor | read it in the work of a modern au Marsh gave the lines to his friend, thor whose works are widely-read Lord Roden, who was so impressed He said, "I do not know whether with them that he got Doctor Marsh | you saw that I was very much touch memorial of the beloved hand that eyes, he told me this story. Years "my amazement, as well as my deto me the wonderful way in which Years afterward, at the house of a God saved me!"

It was not long after that I was sent for to visit this old gentleman in a sickness which gradually grew more serious. One of the last things he did before he died was to take my hand affectionately, and ask me, as his clergyman, to do him a favor, and that was, that at his funeral earl entered the sick room, the dying and over his coffin I would tell the officer extended both his hands to story of the lines in the hope that the prayer of a dying man might be ansand then he added, "These simple wered and that they might be a blesswords have been God's message of ing to many more souls more. Soon peace and comfort to my heart in afterwards he died. And at his fun- As partners all Thy love and care. this illness, and they have been eral, which was attended by a large brought to my memory by the Holy and representative body of promin-Ghost, the Comforter, after days of ent men, I told over the coffin, amid of our spiritual dynamics, where di- American markets. the most profound and interested sil- vine energies lie hid for any enter-As I was telling this story in old ence, the story of the stanza that had prise and the hero is strengthened | R. state that arrangements have been St. Paul's Halifax, I noticed that an been the means of transforming so for his field. J. Martineau. old gentleman, who was sitting in a many lives. I ended by saying that pew just in front of me, was being it was the wish of the dear old man overcome with an extraordinary on his dying bed that the words, emotion. His whole frame seemed to which would be distributed as his

Hardening of the Arteries

An Interesting Explanation of How This Dreaded

You take out the garden hose in the spring, turn on the water, and if the rubber has

The arteries of the human body may be, likened to small rubber pipes, which go if this blood is burdened with the poisons left over when the liver and kidneys are not properly performing their filtering work, these poisons form a deposit on the inside hardens the walls of the arteries. The tiny blood vessels of the liver are affected, and thence comes that fatal disease-cirrhosis of the liver. The cells of the kidneys

Bright's disease gets its start.

brain causes apoplexy.

The deposit thus formed gradually thickens and become starved for want of blood, and of rubber, and expand, contract or elongate, as required by the demands of the blood pressure. Hardened, the arteries are like so much brittle rubber tubing. The blood pressure comes on, the tubing bursts, and the resulting blood clot on the

It will be plainly seen that the cause of trouble is in the inefficient condition of the liver and kidneys.

When these filtering organs are kept healthy and active, and the bowels regular in the removal of waste matter, there is no chance for such dreadful conditions as hardening of the arteries bring ease, prevention is the only wise course to follow. You can positively depend on Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to awaken the action of liver and kidneys, and also ensure the regularity of movement of the bowels. It is only by the activity of these organs that the blood can be kept pure and free from urie acid and other substances which form deposits in the arteries and at other points in the human system, causing ills, such as colds, indigestion, biliousness, headaches, backaches, etc., which arise from a torpid condition of these organs, you will better understand the reason why Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the favorite family medicine in many thousands of homes. By keeping the liver, kidneys and bowels active they cure the common ills of life, and prevent serious disease. One pill

a dose. 25 cents a hox, all dealers, or Edman-

When you think of the scores of common pain, suffering and serious disease.

son, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Recipe Book, 1,008 selected recipes, sent free, if you mention this paper.

As in all forms of serious dis-

In health the arteries have the elasticity everywhere through the body and carry blood to the hands and feet, as well as to the nerves, muscles and vital organs. They carry all the blood in the human system, and walls of the arteries.

Condition is Brought About.

got hard and brittle the tubing bursts and water spurts out in all directions.

become a blessing to their souls. And as each one passed from the house of mourning he received a beautiful card, elegently printed in purple with the name and age and burial date of that old saint of God, and on the other side the never-to-be-forgot ten words that had led to his salva-

"Oh, Dear Rector, I'm a Saved Man." When I told this story in a vacation service in one of the charming oters in the White Mountains, New Hampshire, an American gentleman. prominent New Yorker, was so deeply impressed that he said, after with tears in his eyes, said: dear rector, I am a saved man! was those wonderful lines. Henceforth I am going to live for my Saviour." "And", added the clergyman, "he is still walking faithfully." 'In peace, let me resign my brea And Thy salvation see, My sins deserve eternal death,

But Jesus died for me.' Seven Sentence Sermons.

Something each day,-a deed Of kindness and of good. To link in closer bonds

All human brotherhood Oh, thus the heavenly will e all may do while here; For a good deed every day Nakes blessed all the year. -George Coope

Merit and good-breeding w make their way everywhere.-Lord

And the Spirit of Jehovah sha rest upon him, the spirit of wisdor understanding, the spirit counsel and might, the spirit knowledge and of the fear of Jeh vah.—Isa. xi., 2.

Tis sweet to feel that we may be In partnership, dear Lord, with

Is known to Thee, and that we share

Meditation is the great storehous

B. C. AND THE WAR.

Hard Times Have Driven the People Stephen Leacock is a Humorist of

ings in disguise to the people of the economy. You might imagine a West, says a writer in Toronto Satur- dried-up, stooped, dusty little, man, day Night. One has induced saner through whose spectacles the joy of views in the direction of both per- economics still shines, and sonal and municipal economy, and holiday reading consists of "The the latter has removed most of the Statesman's Year Book" and the arget-rich-quick spirit which was a ricultural reports. The real Stephen mill stone around the neck of true Leacock is a humorist with twinkling you finish your day's work you sit down 490 Princess St. Phone 530 progress. What the extreme western eyes and a merry laugh, who lectures province has needed for a long time in political economy when he is not hearing the words: "I have rarely and less living on borrowed capital. Prof. Leacock's craftsmanship has has been more natural production otherwise engaged. The war has cut off the inflow of cap- improved with each book that he has impression upon me. Never before in ital very decidedly, and the hard published. There is a marked differmy life have I so clearly grasped the times are driving many people back ence between the quality of "Literary" merely crutches; they never cure. This way of salvation through faith in the to the land. It may be said at once Lapses" and that of "Arcadian Ad-Crucified." And to-day there lies on that British Columbia will never be a ventures with the Idle Rich." A few my table a letter from a clergyman great agricultural province in the of the sketches in "Literary Lapses" in England, telling me that this sense that Ontario and Alberta are, he has scarcely surpassed. "My Finstory few months later, however, because it abounds in mountain ancial Career" is an excellent ex-Lord Roden received a message from ranges, water courses and vast tracts ample, but as a whole "Literary the officer that he wanted to see him, which will never be anything else Lapses" is his poorest book. as he was in a rapid decline. As the than mining areas, not to speak of Prof. Leacock is a master of deliwas used to the awakening of a man the many enbroken stretches of cate satire. He pokes fun at everywho happened to hear the lines in standing timber. But there are many thing and everyone. No class of sochurch one night, and the next day, fertile valleys and districts which are ciety is proof against his genial "Oh, suitable for mixed farming and fruit thrusts. Clergymen, financiers, and It growing. The more they are culti- professors are equally favored. Prof. vated the less the province will have Leacock finds a sort of unboly joy in ment, but marvellously effective in multito import. There is the fertile shattering our prejudices and illu-Fraser Valley stretching from Chilli- sions. These who have been thrilled wack to Boundary Bay, a distance of by Captain Marryat and inspired by about ninety miles, most of which is Horatio Alger must experience extremely rich and capable of pro- shock in reading "Nonsense Novels." ducing a vast amount of produce. Has the day come when the adven-There are some splendid farming tures of the poor, but honest Heze areas on Vancouver Island, while kigh Hayloft in New York arouse vast areas in the Peace River district | emotions, not of sympathetic admirare suitable for raising wheat and ation, but of uncontrollable mirth? Apologies only account for what other grains. The Okanagan is fam- O tempora! O mores! they do not alter. - Earl of Beacons- ous as a fruit-growing centre and its output is steadily increasing Okanagan growers are this considerably extending their kets, according to information tained from C. P. R. sources. years past apples have been shipped from this province to the Old Country and prairie markets and also to Australia. This year the field has been widened and B. C. Jonathans and Wealthies have found their way to South Africa and the Argentine. Shipments to these latter countries are more or less of an experiment, but it is hoped to secure a market and gradually develop it with increased production in the Okanagan. The carload which was shipped to Table Bay last year was followed this season by three carloads. The initial shipment was made quite in the nature of an adventure, and it , was gratifying for the shippers to learn that the fruit seet had been much appreciated and that more was de-

The first shipment to the Argentine, made this season, consisted of three carloads of Jonathans and To make our lives sincere and true Wealthies apples which better stand climatic changes. It is hoped that this will be but the thin edge of the wedge in securing for British Columbia apples a place in South > made for the shipment of six car loads of apples to England from Brit ish Columbia, and there is a possibility of another six cars being sent. The last boat to Australia, it is interesting to note, carried 2,500 boxes of the King of Fruits. This Australian business is, of course, a trade of some years' standing, but it is re ported to be developing steadily.

B. C. Timber Output. According to the timber returns the British Columbia Minister sealing figures, amounted to 92,080.-493 feet board measure, while 261,-914 lineal feet of poles, piles, and props, together with 29,312 cords of altogether irresistible. bolts, etc., were also scaled for roy- began in Ottawa, where she studied culty in avoiding it. alty during the month under review. the violin at the Conservatory of Bladder weakness, most folks call The figures for the Vancouver dis- Music. Later she studied at McGill it, because they can't control urinatributing 5,307,218 feet sawlegs, in Budapest, Hungary, where she was jounces of Jad Salts from your pharaddition to 2,520 lineal feet piles. accepted as a pupil of Jeno Aubay macist and take a tablespoonful in a In the Prince Rupert district there and also admitted to the Royal Con- glass of water before breakfast, conwhile the totals under the same head- high honor as she was the only Can- will neutralize the acids in the urine ing for the Cranbrook, Nelson, and adian ever admitted. After three so it no longer is a source of irrita-Vernon districts were respectively years' study she passed examinations tion to the bladder and urinary or21,595,575 feet, 7,135,290 feet, and for both singing and violin and under gans which then act normally again. 3,349,603 feet. Poles, piles, and the advice of Jeno Aubay and David Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmprops to the total of 328,304 lineal Popper, the world renowned 'cellist, less, and is made from the acid of feet were scaled in the Nelson dis-trict, and in the Cranbrook division to Italy to take up singing. She re-with lithia, and is used by thoutember cover an estimated total of brated teacher in Europe.

Exports to Britain Jump.

An increase in imports from Canada of $34,697,000 and a decrease in exports to Canada of $20,498,000 during the first nine months of the present fiscal year is shown by figures for that period received by the Trade and Commerce Department from Commissioner Ray, of Birmingham. The total imports from Canada were erica. $138,917,000, and exports to the Dominion $49,407,000.

Details are also furnished of the ing of all ships of British register, Gillivray Knowles, the well-known which regulations closely affect Can- Toronto artists, in a few weeks when ada. These show that rumors that they will say farewell to studio life the Government contemplates the re- on dry land and embark on a floating quisitioning of the. entire British studio on the inland waters of Canmercantile marine are without foun- ada and the United States. Mr. dation, but that power has been tak- Knowles has purchased a commodien to deal, by the requisitioning of a ous yacht, the "Ariel,' and will make sufficient number of vessels, with it the future home and studio of cases where an emergency of national himself and wife. importance exists at any particular market owing to the absence of ton- will be fitted up as homelike be posnage, and, further, to regulate the sible. Mr. and Mrs. Knowles will employment of British shipping in leave Toronto in February for New the carriage of cargoes between for- York, their headquarters, and will eign ports by means of licenses.

Toronto's Debenture Toronto last year sold $15,000,000 worth of municipal debentures.

Your supposed reserved seat in Heaven may be occupied by some the fool, he acts natural, not affected, body you would not speak to .

imes and dollars.

A MASTER OF SATIRE.

Subtlety and Vitality.

The war and the collapse of real In "Who's Who" Stephen Leacock estate speculation are proving bless- is described as a professor of political

Prof. Leacock's methods tirely different from those of some American humorists. The latter ge certain effects by the use of what i known on the stage as "slap-stick." Leacock is an artist, not a clown Only a master can tell a common place story in such a comical way that the recollection of it, even in church, makes us clutch our nose in a desperate effort to avoid public dis-political economist makes quite as much fun of the respectable. unimaginative middle class as Bernard Shaw, but with what a difference! The Shavian method is that of a surgeon who thoroughly enjoys a gruesome operation. Prof. Leacock loves his characters, even when he is laughing most heartily at them. His wit is never caustic: hands of a less "human" writer, Mr. Spillikins, in "Arcadian Adventures, would be nothing more than a shallow fop. Prof. Leacock makes him a pathetic little object, ridiculous as he is. Do you remember him when he was telling how Dulphemia had received his proposal, when his 30inch chest was shaken with a sudden storm of sighs? "But at any rate she was awfully nice, let me say-everything I wanted, and when I explained what a fool I was, she said she didn't think I was half such a fool as people thought me. But it's all right. urns out that she isn't thinking getting married. I asked her if I might go on thinking of her and she said I might." Poor little Mr. Spilfikins!-J. D. Bush in Toronto Star Weekly.

Canadian Singer Returns.

Miss Juliette Gauthier, a Frenchfor the month of September issued by apest, Rome, and Paris, and who has mains to irritate and inflame, caus of studied under the world's greatest ing a burning, scalding sensation, or Lands, the total output of sawlogs masters, has returned to Ottawa, her setting up an irritation at the neck for the war, which interrupted everything of that kind in this coun-

Miss Juliette Gauthier is daughter of Louis Gauthier, of Ottawa, and a sister of Miss Eva Gauthier who also is well known in musical circles in Europe and Am-

A Floating Studio.

An experiment probably without a recent steps taken by the British au- parallel on the continent will be thorities in respect to the requisition- undertaken by Mr. and Mrs. F. Me-

The yacht is 80 feet in length, and then move north and south with the sun, as it were. In cold weather they will be far down to Florida, and come north with the warming winds, spending the summer months probably in Canadian waters. The experience will be unusual, but Mr. To succeed you must be unanimous | Knowles believes it will be healthful and inspiring to his work,

> One thing can be said in favor of on like some folks I have in mind. Some of us are willing to hold out the right hand to vice and strike morality and virtue with the left.

How to Save Your Eyes

Try This Free Prescription

dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes we to four times daily. Just note how tudes of cases. Now that you have been lishing this prescription. The Valmas Drug Co. of Toronto will fill the above prescription by mail, if your druggist

Geo. W. Mahood, the Kingston Drug-

DADKEN CDAY HAID DANNEN GRAT HAIK.

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally That Nobody Can Tell.

Almost everyone knows that Sage ea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff tching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home. which is mussy and troublesome Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large botle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears; and after another application or two, your hair vecomes beautifully dark, thick and

OR BLADDER BOTHER Hockey Boots!

Harmless to flush Kidneys neutralize irritating

Kidney and Bladder weakness re-Canadian girl whose musical educa- sult from uric acid, says a noted tion was conducted under the patron- authority. The kidneys filter this age of Lord and Lady Strathcona and acid from the blood and pass it or Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier in Bud- to the bladder, where it often rehome town, to remain until after the of the bladder, obliging you to seek war. Miss Gauthier has a charming relief two or three times during the personality, is artistic in appearance night. The sufferer is in constant and is gifted with a quaint humor, dread, the water passes sometimes railway ties, fence posts, shingle Miss Gauthier's musical education very profuse; again; there is diffitrict were 53,001,924 feet board Conservatory of Music under Alfred tion. While it is extremely annoymeasure sawlogs, 14,394 lineal feet De Seve and attended the Royal Vic- ing and sometimes very painful, this piles, etc., and 16,264 cords ties, toria College for Women for two is really one of the most simple ailbolts, etc., the Island district con- years. In 1907 she left Canada for ments to overcome. Get about four were scaled 954,135 feet: sawlogs, servatorium of Music, which is a tinue this for two or three days. This mained there for four years under sands of folks who are subject to Timber sales recorded during Sep- Vincenzo Lombardi, the most cele- urinary disorders caused by uric > several concerts in Canada, and vescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

Sewing Machines, Umbrellas, Suit Cases, Trunks, repaired and re-fitted, Saws filed, Knives and Scissors sharpened, Razors honed. All makes of Fire-Locks repaired; Keys fitted. All makes of Lawn Mowers sharpened and repaired. 149 Sydenham St.

New Fruits of all kinds Package for Overseas Our Meat Department is stocked with the best.

Give us a trial order.

H. PICKERING, Prop.

Farm for Sale

100 acres, 12 miles from city; good buildings, plenty of water, some wood, $4,750 easy terms. Farm 300 acres, log house and barn, on shore of a beautiful lake; good fishing and hunting, $450.

W. H. GODWIN & SON Phone 424. 39 Brock St

Coal!

The kind you are looking for is

Scranton Coal Is good Coal and we guarantee prompt delivery,

BOOTH & CO. Foot of West St.

Holiday Season

Boys' Hockey Boots Girls' Hockey Boots Ladies' Hockey Boots Gents' Hockey Boots Invictus Hockey Boots Lightning Hitch Hockey

Boots Hitch Hockey Boots

Ja Wygi

Local Branch Time Table.

IN EFFECT MAY SOTH 1918. Trains will leave and arrive at City

7,338,000 feet sawlogs, and 3,030

After a successful debut in Italy cords of shingle bolts, estimated to she signed a contract with the Bosproduce a total revenue of $12,876.

Drated teacher in Europe.

After a successful debut in Italy for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

She has sung in the Bosproduce a total revenue of $12,876.

The successful debut in Italy for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pléasant, effer
No. 19—Mail12.20 a.m. 12.57 a.m. whatever.

Here you have a pléasant, effer
No. 1—Intl. Ltd. . 1.41 p.m. 2.12 p.m. 7—Mail 3.04 p.m. 3.40 p.m. 31—Local to Believille 6.58 p.m. 7.37 p.m.

> No. 16—Fast Exp. . . 2.58 a.m. 3.35 a.m. No. 32—Local to No. 14—Intl. Ltd. 1.08 p.m. 1.28 p.m. No. 28—Local to

No. 28—Local to

Brockville 6.58 p.m. 7.37 p.m.

Nos. 1, 6, 7, 13, 14, 16, 18, 19 run daily, other trains daily except Sunday.
Direct route to Toronto, Peterboro,
Hamilton, Buffalo, London, Detrott,
Chicago, Bay City, Saginaw, Montreal,
Ottawa, Quebec, Portland, St. John,
Hallfax, Boston and New York.
For full particulars apply J. P. HANLEY, Railroad and Steamship Agent, cor. Johnson and Ontario streets

