

WITH NO. 2 CANADIAN STATIONARY HOSPITAL.
A passing train converted into an ambulance. Canadians in the act of unloading the wounded—"somewhere in France."

WITH NO. 2 CANADIAN STATIONARY HOSPITAL.
Bringing in a 19-year-old officer of a British regiment, whose shoulder was smashed by shrapnel.

WITH NO. 2 CANADIAN STATIONARY HOSPITAL.
Canadians loading an ambulance. The wounded soldier is unconscious.

UPPER RIGHT—WITH NO. 2 CANADIAN STATIONARY HOSPITAL.
The physician performing the operation on a wounded soldier is Dr. Fred. McKelvey Bell, a native of Kingston.
Pte. Harry Sutherland, 2nd Battalion, Signaling Section, son of John H. Sutherland, Gore Street, Kingston.

WITH NO. 2 CANADIAN STATIONARY HOSPITAL.
Nova Scotia Ward—Lt.-Col. Shillington, Ottawa, on an inspection tour.

UPPER LEFT—WITH NO. 2 CANADIAN STATIONARY HOSPITAL.
The Eye, Ear, Throat and Nose Department. The patient receiving treatment is a German prisoner.

On left—Pte. John Metcalfe, 2nd Battalion, bomber. On right—Pte. Alvin Metcalfe, No. 1 Field Ambulance. Sons of ex Warden James Metcalfe, ex-M.P., Kingston.