PROVIDED FINE TREAT

Cantata, "Bethlehem" Given At St. James' Monday Evening.

It was a most delightful treat that was given the large audience that assembled in St. James' Church on Monday evening when Maunder's Christmas Epiphany cantata, "Bethlehem" was given by a chorus of forty voices, with four soloists. Everyone was highly pleased with the entertainment and the praise showered upon all who took part was well deserved. The cantata was given under the able direction of Mrs. A. R. B. Williamson, Mus. Bac., who is deserving of much credit for the splendid success. Mrs. Williamson was untiring in her efforts.

The chorus showed excellent training, the different numbers being given with fine effect. The soloists were Miss Carrie Bajus, soprano; John Tomkins, tenor; Keith Light, bass; Harold Angrove, baritone. The sweet soprano voice of Miss Bajus was never heard to better advantage, while the work of John Tomkins was exceedingly good. Mr. Tomkins is certainly a promising young tenor who is bound to make his mark. Keith Light and Harold Angrove sang in excellent voice. The entire work of the soloists and the chorus was splendid.

While the chorus was composed of forty people, thirty are members of St. James'.

Pleasant features were the selections of the quartette composed of Misses Esford and Bureau and Misses Turnham and Light; a flute obligato by Prof. Cuthbert Gummer and violin selections by John MacKie.

An offering was taken up in aid of the Belgian Fund, and the amount realized is expected to reach $50.
