

On left, Pte. Aberdeen McBroom; on right, Pte. George Angrve; two Kingston boys with No. 5 Stationary Hospital (Queen's), at Cairo, Egypt. Capt. J. A. Stewart, A.M.C., Medical Sanitary Inspector for the 3rd Military Division, with headquarters at Kingston. Pte. Victor Bushey, Kingston, of 21st Battalion, C.E.F., wounded in France, now in hospital in England.

Lieut. J. Worden Edwards, son of Dr. J. W. Edwards, M. P. for Frontenac, who is with the Army Service Corps at Halifax.

Right—Lieut. Clement King, Ottawa, with the 32nd Battery, Kingston.

Left—Corp. Harold Godwin, 79 Quebec St., Kingston, with 59th Battalion, C. E. F., at Brockville. He was formerly with the Bank of Toronto at Kingston.

Quartermaster Sergeant Wheeler A. C. Smith, a veteran of the South African War, and for 16 years a member of the R.C.H.A., Kingston.

Hospital Ship, Asturias, which carried No. 5 Stationary Hospital (Queen's) from England to Cairo, Egypt.

Lieut. J. Leckie, Kingston, attached to 59th Battalion, now in training at Brockville.