National Liberal Member of Reichstag Welcomes Breath of Criticism.

Amsterdam, Jan. 20.—The debate the closing session of the German Reichstag yesterday was notable for extreme outspoken criticism of the censorship, especially as it is applied to the Socialist newspapers, as well as to general news concerning the war situation.

According to the report of the Cologne Gazette, the Socialist member, Wilhelm Dittmann, bitterly complained that this censorship was political and not military, and charged that the Prussian Government was making careful preparations that the elections should turn in their favor.

"We must," said Herr Dittmann, destroy this pernicious mania which only regards voices claiming conquest as the expression of the will NOTICE TO CREDITORS of the people. The people are against In the Estate of Heller Noel Coutlee- | a will which cries for conquest."
