Look for the Trade Mark.

The manufacturer that advertises an article does so in the belief that you will become a permanent customer.

It would not pay to advertise if you were to buy only one package of washing or baking powder, soap, lye, tea, coffee or cocoa. And to assure your future patronage, he must give you full value for your money. In other words, when an article, particularly one selling for a small price, is advertised, it is absolute evidence that it must be good value.

Examine the name and the Trade Mark. Get the genuine article as advertised. You are not safe with a substitute.

MR. AND MRS. T. F. HARRISON LEAVING FOR COBourg.

Sydenham Street Bible School Said Farewell on Tuesday Evening — Mr. Harrison Superintendent Seventeen Years.

On the occasion of T. F. Harrison severing his connection as superintendent of Sydenham Street Methodist Church Bible School, the teachers and officers of the school held a social event on Tuesday night to say farewell to him and Mrs. Harrison, who are leaving to take up their residence in Cobourg. During the evening, Elmer Davis read an address, in which great regret was expressed at their leaving. After the reading of the address, Frank Anglin presented Mr. Harrison with a handsome travelling bag.

Elmer Davis remarked that since coming to Kingston, about twenty years ago, Mr. Harrison had been a good Sunday School worker and a good citizen. He had been superintendent of Sydenham Street Bible

T. F. HARRISON.

School for seventeen years, and the loss sustained by his leaving the city would be keenly felt.

In reply, Mr. Harrison stated that it had always been a pleasure for him to work in the Sunday school, especially on account of the school having such an efficient staff. He expressed the hope that he would be able to pay many visits to the city, and to the Bible School he loved so well.

On behalf of the teachers of the primary department, Miss Ferrier presented Mrs. Harrison with an entree dish. Miss Ferrier said that since Mrs. Harrison took over the primary department, the attendance had increased gradually, and much good had been accomplished. It was now one of the best primary departments in the province of Ontario.

Miss Ferrier will take over the duties formerly held by Mrs. Harrison. The "social evening" commenced at 6.30 o'clock. Mrs. Frederick Pound was convener of the committee in charge of the refreshments.

After the presentations there was an election by ballot, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Harrison and it resulted in the selection of E. P. Jenkins. The selection of assistant and other officers was left over. Rev. Alfred Brown presided at the meeting.

Citizens in general will regret the leaving of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison. They both took a keen interest in all that had for its aim and object, the building up of the city and the helping of humanity. Mr. Harrison, as a member of the City Council, rendered able service. The best wishes of their host of Kingston friends will accompany them to their new home, and they will be gladly welcomed back to Kingston at any time they have the opportunity to come.

IN DIVISION COURT.

Two Automobile Cases Heard By Judge Lavell.

Though there were only twelve cases on the Division Court docket heard by Judge Lavell on Tuesday, the session was unusually long owing to the nature of the cases. There were two automobile cases. That of S. B. Anderson vs. V. Mullin resulted in judgment for the plaintiff for $40. The suit was for $60. The second case was that of J. Mozier vs. George Boyd. Judgment was reserved. The cases arose from auto accidents.

LOOKING FOR WORK

Everywhere men complain about work; even boys and girls in school or business find work tedious and irksome, but it isn't the work half so much as their own lack of physical strength that makes it hard.

Rich blood, strong lungs and healthful digestion make work pleasurable in business, in school or even household, and if those who are easily tired—who are not sick, but weak and nervous—would just take Scott's Emulsion for one month and let its pure concentrated food create richer blood to pulsate through every artery and vein—let it build a structure of healthy tissue and give you vigorous strength—you would find work easy and would look for more. Insist on Scott's.

OF THE PORTSMOUTH COUNCIL IN YEAR 1859.

Village Hall Was Erected in 1865—William Mudie Was Reeve of the Village for Many Years.

Portsmouth having come into the limelight through the Frontenac County Council choosing Reeve Halliday as Warden, Councillor Michael Kennedy, the village oracle, has been perusing the old minute book of the council, and permitted the Whig a glimpse into the glorious past of this suburb of Kingston, known to many as Hatter's Bay, but marked upon the map as Portsmouth, the home of the provincial penitentiary and the provincial asylum for the insane. A perusal of the old minute book, which covers the council meetings from the time Portsmouth was incorporated as a village in 1859 until 1875, makes very interesting reading.

The first council meeting that year was on the 17th of January on which day George Sexton was elected reeve. The council meetings were held in the house of Major Craig, and $17 rental was paid for that year.

On the 31st January the council considered a petition from the guards and keepers of the penitentiary asking to be exempted from being taxed for their salaries. The petition was not granted.

The tavern keepers, at the same meeting, asked that owing to the hard times the council reduce their license fee to $20. No action was taken on this request. In 1859 there were six taverns, or public places of entertainment as they were called. The license fee for 1859 was fixed at $35, exclusive of the Government fee. In 1862, the fee was raised to $45.

The minutes of 23rd Feb. 1859, contain the thanks of the council to Hon. Henry Smith, father of Col. H. R. Smith and C. F. Smith, for his gift of the corporate seal of office for Portsmouth, and also for advice and assistance in preparing the by-laws of incorporation whereby the privileges of self-government were conferred upon the village.

On Feb. 25th, 1859, the council decided to pay Treasurer McLeod two per cent. on all moneys paid into his hands. At this meeting the council decided that all evening sessions should adjourn at ten o'clock, a practice, it is understood, that is still carried out by the village body.

The council at a later meeting in the year resolved to pass a by-law prohibiting any person bathing or swimming within the corporation between 6 a. m. and 8 p. m.

The minutes of Oct. 3rd, 1859, show that the council decided to levy five cents on the dollar for village and county purposes.

On Jan. 16th, William Mudie, the grandfather of W. Balfour Mudie, Gananogue, formerly of Kingston, was elected reeve and held that position for nearly twenty years. Twenty dollars was paid for the use of Major Craig's house for council meetings that year. The number of tavern licenses issued for 1860 was five, a decrease of one.

On the 3rd of May, 1860, the Council thanked Hon. Alexander Campbell for procuring the patent of the breakwater site, containing two and a half acres in all.

It is to be noted that in 1863, Portsmouth had a fire engine, (more than it has today), and that the engine was rented for one dollar a day.

On 16th Sept., 1863, the council thanked the lookout party of H. M. 47th Regiment stationed in the village for its vigil and praiseworthy conduct in giving an alarm of fire to Mr. Saunders early that morning and saving the lives of the family.

A by-law was passed on the 17th June, 1864, authorizing the reeve to borrow $1,000 to erect a village hall. The vote of the people resulted: for, 61; against, 27. The by-law was finally passed on the 20th July and plans for the hall, drawn by Mr. Goodale, were laid on the table by the reeve.

On the 31st August, 1864, Robert Fisher was given the contract to erect the hall for $1,495. The council held its first meeting in the new hall on the 15th January, 1866.

NEW YORK GIRL SOLD AS A WHITE SLAVE

At a Ball for $55—Rescued, and Kidnapper Captured.

New York, Feb. 2.—How she was kidnapped, robbed of her clothes and auctioned on the block in a New York "white slave" market for $55, was told by pretty 18-year-old Marie Klein, daughter of the Rev. Charles Klein, of Bethany Reformed Church, here, yesterday, following her rescue and the capture of "Jimmy Naples," her alleged kidnapper. She had been missing since December 16th.

Naples once befriended Miss Klein when hoodlums attacked her on her way home from organ practice at the church, according to Mr. Klein, and introduced in the Klein home, and visited there often, frequently saying he would "always defend Miss Klein."

The girl's story is that Naples dragged her into a doorway the afternoon of December 16th, showed her a revolver in his coat pocket, and threatened to kill her if she tried to get away, then forced her to take $100 in jewels and $35 cash from her parents and driving her to an Italian colony house in Williamsbridge, locked her in a room and took her clothes.

"It was at a Christmas ball of the colonists in Williamsbridge that I was sold," said Miss Klein.

After their daughter disappeared, the Kleins say, Naples terrorized them with threats to "cut their hearts out" if they connected him with her disappearance. The detectives had to beat Naples almost into unconsciousness with clubs before he was captured.

Never Jail Surgeon.

The Ottawa Journal, in a reference to Dr. J. W. Edwards, M.P., and his attacks on the Frontenac penitentiary, states that Dr. Edwards should know what he is talking about for he had been jail surgeon for Frontenac County since 1907. This is an error. Dr. Edwards served as county clerk not as jail surgeon.
