

Our Better Clothes!

Step in and take a look at our Suits; examine the fabrics; note the style worked into the garment; take special notice of the splendid tailoring. You'll certainly like our "Better Clothes"—you'll like our prices, too.

Remember, however, that clothes prices are the same everywhere, and that an advertised clothes price does not amount to a "hill of beans" until you see the sort of style and tailoring the price stands for. That's why you'll like our "Better Clothes."

News of Troops in the City

The four batteries in the city, including Queen's, and the Queen's Stationary Hospital unit will have a big parade on Thursday. They are in line form and will make a fine showing.

The ladies of Queen Street Church, on Tuesday evening, entertained over 100 of the men of the 33rd Battery to a tea and stereopticon views in the church. Lieut. Elliott and Macmillan were in charge of the men and paraded them to the church. The views were explained by Rev. G. I. Campbell.

The officers of the city who are bound to their positions until the close of the war, with practically no chance of them seeing the front, are doing everything in their power to help other men to go. Before the war broke out, in military offices there were a very few girl clerks, but every day more are being appointed. The officers state that they will not accept men for the positions if girls can be secured to do the work.

It is expected that the 8th Canadian Mounted Rifles, who, after a few months' training at the military camp, sailed on the SS. Missanauke, the early part of October, will be in France in about a week's time.

Lieut. Col. Douglas Young, who has been appointed to the command of the Canadian Cavalry Depot, was reported wounded on May 31st last. He is the only son of Lieut. Col. D. D. Young, late of Kingston, who has retired from the permanent force, but is serving in France as a disciplinary officer.

Col. Young is a dashing polo player and was a familiar figure at Toronto horse shows, and was also well known in New York at similar gatherings. He was official secretary to Sir Mortimer Clark when the latter was lieutenant-governor of the province.

Col. T. D. R. Hemming, D.O.C., has placed the sergeants' mess in the Armouries at the disposal of the School of Signalling and other educational units for quiet study in the evenings, and the privilege is very much appreciated.

Tuesday evening a very pleasant time was spent by the soldiers at the Military Y. M. C. A. hall at the corner of Brock and Montreal streets. The programme was given by the boys of the 146th Battalion and afterwards the ladies of the Brock Street Methodist Church served refreshments.

After a brief sing-song, during which Sergt. Court, Elliott of the O.T.C. presided most acceptably at the piano, the chair was taken by Lieut. Fred. James of the 146th Battalion. The opening number of the 146th Battalion band showed that the organization is continuing its rapid progress under the able leadership of Sergeant Grainger. Private G. Fisher gave two recitations, manifesting considerable dramatic power in his interpretations. Private Thomas Eardley sang and C. V. Farmer the Military Y. M. C. A. secretary, played a piano solo. Both the programme and the refreshments were enjoyed by all. The boys in uniform are looking for a good time during the balance of the winter at the Military Y. M. C. A. hall. They are very grateful for the courtesy and kindness shown them by the ladies last night.

Capt. Hope, 59th Battalion, was in the city on Tuesday.

T. J. Lowry, Highland Grove, president of the Conservative Association of North Victoria, has joined the 109th Battalion and enters training as an officer at once.

Pte. Francis, Lindsay, in Kingston taking a course with the 93rd signallers, has been transferred to the 33rd Battery as saddler.

S. McCullagh, Armouries, on Wednesday morning received a letter from his son, Transport Sergt. W. McCullagh, 21st Battalion, which states that all the men of the transport and quartermasters' stores are in good health and spirits.

Canon W. F. Fitzgerald distributed Testaments to the men of the 32nd and 33rd Batteries and No. 1, A.D.C., of the Drydock Barracks.

Canon W. F. Fitzgerald has received a letter from Lieut. T. Potter, formerly of the Central Registry, at the Armouries. The letter states that he is leaving the Record Office in London and going to the front with the 22nd Battalion.

Lieut. H. W. Bronnich is attached to the 146th Battalion for instruction and duty.

Great arrangements are being made for the carnival of the 146th Battalion in the Armouries from February 7th to 12th. The bonths for the event are being planned by the officers of the different branches of the service, and this part of the programme should prove very attractive. Monday's programme from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., reads: "Military Sports in Artillery Park," and in the evening a military street parade and fireworks will be an added feature to the attractions at the Armouries. As the attractions will be instructive, entertaining and free, large crowds should be present.

Sergt. Frederick Haffner, 146th Battalion, was operated on for appendicitis on Wednesday morning and is doing as well as can be expected.

THE LATEST ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Utilities Commission, through its representatives, has a new line of communication from the Hydro Electric Commission. There was no response when it was asked for any proposition it had to offer with regard to power.

Instead of answering direct it seems to have got busy, issued a hurry-up invitation for a conference, and, before certain municipal representatives made its latest announcement.

This is to the effect that the Federal and Provincial Governments have agreed with regard to the use of the Trent water power, and legislation will be passed to give this agreement effect. Moreover the work will be begun and completed within a year. The City and the Commission would be deeply impressed with this statement but for another and remarkable experience.

One recalls the assurance of Sir Adam Beck not so long ago, at a meeting in the council chamber, and to the effect that there would be a merger of the Seymour Company's and Hydro Electric Commission's interest and an immediate development of the Trent River's resources. It is realized that in Kingston there are a good many men with the Missoulli spirit. They want to be shown what is to be done, or can be done, or they will not be satisfied.

The Hydro-Electric Commission cannot hand out any more dope and have it received unquestionably by the people.

THEATRICAL NEWS

To-night "Twin Beds."
Three acts of what can happen when six people live two by two in three apartments in the crowded confines of a fashionable apartment house, when the over-sociability of one of them entangles them all in an unwelcome neighborliness, constitute the laugh festival, "Twin Beds," at the Grand Opera House to-night, with an admirably balanced cast of comedians. "Twin Beds," the wholesomest of farces and the most continuously amusing, earned its unprecedented popularity as much by virtue of its deft characterization—a rare quality in farces—as by that of its witty lines, surprising slang and cumulatively thrilling situations.

To-morrow At the Grand.
The attraction secured for the last three days of this week at the Grand Opera, surpasses anything in the picture line booked here yet. The programme includes the supreme triumph of the screen, a mammoth, elaborate photo-production of Hall Caine's immortal novel and play "The Eternal City" with Pauline Frederick, produced amid the grandeur and beauty of modern Rome, of Edwin S. Porter and Hugh Ford. This amazing photo-spectacle marks a new era in dramatic picturization. Other photo plays will also be shown together with the usual good vaudeville every afternoon and evening.

At The Strand.
To say that the large audiences which again greeted "Mme. Petrova" in her presentation of "My Madonna" at the Strand last evening were well pleased would be putting it mildly. The exclamations of satisfaction as the people left the theatre were certainly very gratifying to the management who are to be congratulated upon the excellent productions they are showing. "My Madonna" will be shown again to-night for the last time. The feature photo-play for the last three days of the week is "Landon's Legacy" in 5 parts from the book by Meredith Nicholson, featuring that popular star J. Warren Kerrigan.

Frontenac Club Meeting.
The annual meeting of the Frontenac Club was held on Tuesday evening. The board of directors chosen was: (New members) S. Colvin, W. B. Dalton, senior; Capt. R. Fraser, W. J. Fair, W. C. Kent, John McKay, J. F. McMillan, George Robertson, J. F. Sowards, J. Taylor, (old members) N. R. Creighton, J. M. Farrell, F. King, F. S. Kirkpatrick, D. A. Black.

Harry Lauder.
Harry Lauder now makes records exclusively for the Victrola, he having lately made a contract to that effect with the Victor Talking Machine Co. We carry a large stock of all Lauder Records, including his latest great successes, "The British Bulldog's Watching," "Rosie," and "Doughie the Baker." C. W. Lindsay, Limited, 121 Princess street.

Miss Ethel Ward, 407 King street, has received a beautiful silk table centre and a satin cushion top from Pte. Thomas Angrove, Cairo, Egypt. Capt. Chester Massey, Superior, Wis., formerly of Ogdensburg, has purchased the wooden steamer Ferdinand Schesinger.

Miss Marie Clark, Columbus, Ohio, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. James A. Hendry, King street.
