SLAVS BRING UP GUNS

On the Galician Front For Another Offensive, MOVEMENTS OF ENEMY

IN THE DVINSK REGION ARE HAMPERED By the Insufficiency of Men and the Bad State of the Roads—Force Russians and French to Work in Gun Works.

London, Feb. 7.—On the Galician front the Russian are bringing up large numbers of guns and huge quantities of munitions for another offensive against the Strips, which is expected to take in the line as far as the Bessarabian frontier.

On one section of Gen. Ironoff's front Russian scouts discovered a system of enemy mines, connected it with their own trenches, and exploded it in forty minutes.

The Germans have established a branch of the Krupp gunworks at Shaviv, in Kovno, at which a large part of the male population, as well as a number of French prisoners, are set to work.

The movements of the German military forces in the Dvinsk region seemed to be disorganized and to lack all method, says the Ruskyy Invalid, and this is ascribed by the newspaper to an insufficiency of German forces and to the bad state of the roads.

"Mentholatum" at Gibson's. The class is growing every drill night; more are joining. Makes no difference when you come in, you receive the same instruction as the men who joined at the start.

Once a foreign foe sets foot on Canadian soil every man automatically becomes a soldier. If you are unable to do your part then, who's fault will it be?

Any person receiving a letter from the front, referring to the death of Edward J. Ryder, gunner, R.C.H.A., will confer a favor by communicating with Nicky Carrall on Day.

U. S. WITH ALLIES OF MORAL VALUE. But Would Cut Off One Source of Ammunition Supply. London, Feb. 7.—The consensus of English newspaper opinion is that the United States physical participation in the war is not desirable from the standpoint of the Allies, because it would cut off a source of ammunition supply.
