News of Troops in the City

Officers of the 80th Battalion on Saturday evening went to Nananee in response to voiced suspicions of Nananee residents, and investigated into the nationalities of four foreigners. It was found that the four were of Russian birth and sympathies but were not able to speak English and express their views.

Major W. Alan Stroud, O.C. "C" Squadron, 13th C.M.R., was in the city on Saturday.

Pte. George Timms, 13th C. M. R. Hamilton, was in the city on Sunday.

The Canada Gazette contains the following items of interest to Kingstonsians:

Colonel S. J. A. Denison, C.M.G., A. D.C., is retired to pension, and is granted the rank of Brigadier-General on retirement. 14th January, 1916.

Brigade, 5th (Kingston) Battery—Provisional Lieutenantcy (senior) B. W. Franklin is transferred to the 47th Frontenac Regiment. 23rd December, 1915.

To be provisional lieutenants (Senior) Thomas Tomkin, McCabe, gentleman. 23rd December, 1915; Cecil LeRoy Boyd, gentleman. 29th December, 1915.

4th Hussars.—To be provisional lieutenants (senior) John Herald Serson, gentleman. 2nd December, 1915.

Information from Hamilton states that the men of "C" Squadron, 13th C. M. R., are now being much better used due to the energies of Kingstonsians on their behalf. A second stove, a second blanket and better medical attendance are now being given. There is much less sickness. As the stables are about completed it is expected that horses will be secured in the near future.

The programme for to-day's carnival reads: 2 p. m. to 4 p. m., military sports in Artillery Park; military street parade with fireworks; 8 p. m. to 10.30 p. m., military band and band concert in the Armouries.

Extensive plans have been made and there will undoubtedly be a very large attendance. Soldiers from all parts of the garrison are in the city for the event and great interest is being taken.

Lieut. G. Coward, 80th Battalion, was in the city on Monday on military business.

Lieut. H. S. Wilson brought in thirty-one recruits from Plymna on Saturday for the 146th Battalion carnival. Lieut. Wilson is very optimistic of the prospects in this part of the country and states that a platoon will undoubtedly be secured.

Word has been received at Havellock, from Lance-Corpl. Charles Southgate, who was seriously wounded on the 8th of December last, to the effect that he is to be moved to England and is out of danger, but will be confined to the hospital for some time yet. He was shot through the left lung at a point just two inches above the heart, and had a very narrow escape from death.

The boys of the "Prince Edward Company" are getting very proficient in their drill and under the command of Capt. Noble are rapidly developing into the battalion's crack company.

Lieut. Garnet Hughes, Picton, is at Dover, Eng. He has been put in charge of "D" Flight here, consisting of five machines and thirteen men, and that makes some work every day.

Lieut. Arnold Adams, Picton, is living at the Married Officers' Quarters, Rishorby Barracks, Eng., while taking his signalling course at the military school.

"The Final Judgment" was written by George Scarborough, the author of "The Lure," "At Bay" and other Broadway successes, and contains an absorbing and gripping story ideally adapted to the forceful gifts of Miss Barrymore.
