

ONE OF KINGSTON'S BEAUTY SPOTS.
A charming driveway, showing portion of Court House and the Lieut.-Gov. Kirkpatrick Memorial Fountain.

Capt. Karl Kane, adjutant 146th Frontenac Battalion, Kingston.

Lieut.-Col. Chas. A. Low, commanding the new 146th Frontenac Battalion, being raised in Kingston and district.

NO. 2 STATIONARY HOSPITAL, LE TOQUET, FRANCE, LIEUT.-COL. SHILLINGTON, OTTAWA, IN CHARGE.

Capt. David C. Dick, formerly of Cobourg, adjutant of the 9th Kingston Artillery Brigade.

"GOVERNMENT HOUSE," KINGSTON, ONT.
Where Col. John Graves Simcoe met his Executive Council, July 17th, 1792, and took the necessary preliminary steps to the opening of the first Parliament of Upper Canada.

Latest photograph from the Canal, showing the huge dredge at work removing the earth that has closed the slide for so long a time.

Ullowaitte, secretary to the vice-president. the left of the picture.