HOW FAT FOLKS MAY BECOME THIN

By Elizabeth Thomas

Perhaps you are suddenly becoming stout, or it may be that you have been putting on weight for years. In either case the cause is the same—lack of oxygen-carrying power of the blood.
This trouble occurs in adults of both sexes and all ages, but it may be overcome very easily and without any of the privations that most people imagine necessary to reduce their weights.

THE HOLY GRAIL

Story of the Green Crystal Vase of the Ruins of Caesarea.

Few places are more absolutely cities of the past than Caesarea. Some one has spoken of the ruins of its ancient glory as the "ruin of ruins."

The medieval towers which were twice rebuilt by the crusaders covered scarcely a tenth of the area occupied by the city as St. Paul knew it, and the ruins that we see today are chiefly the relics of the medieval city which was itself built out of the ruins of the ancient city.

What a rich quarry Caesarea has been for other city builders is shown by the fact that, though it has been drawn upon for all these centuries for marble and granite and sandstone, it is not yet absolutely exhausted, but still affords building material for the peasants of the vicinity.

The green crystal vase which was found here when Baldwin I, the great crusader, captured the city at the beginning of the twelfth century, says the Christian Herald, gave rise to the story of the Holy Grail, which has inspired so many legends and poems.
For Baldwin and his followers believed that it was the one that was used at the last supper by our Lord, when he gave his disciples the cup of wine and said: "Drink ye all of it. This do in remembrance of me."

SEX ATTRACTION.

It is the Controlling Force in About Every Human Effort.

We cannot escape from the fact that sex attraction is the great event in human life. Sex is the controlling force in nearly all of human efforts. War, for instance, is only an exaggerated form of the sex instinct. Neither literature nor art would exist in any appreciable degree without sex. Muswork, light, sing, paint, live and die for the love of woman.

In only one field of human activity is there no taint of sex feeling, and that is science. Science is cold and dispassionate. It has imagination, but the imagination of the explorer and not the lover. Science has only one aim and end—the discovery of truth.
Science is another world from the hot earth of economic and military competition, which have for their ends the attainment of love and marriage.

Through science mankind will gradually throw off some of the sex slavery and reach a new and possibly happier stage in its development.

The Old Time Surgeon.

Before anesthetics were known the surgeon's only expedient was to abridge his patient's sufferings by working rapidly. In this the old time surgeons did wonders. One day the celebrated surgeon Maisonneuve had to amputate the leg of a poor devil, who began to howl in advance. "I'll give you my watch," said the surgeon, "if the operation lasts more than a minute." The man accepted the offer, but was obliged to forego the handsome watch, as the operation took less time than it requires to describe. To amputate an arm at the shoulder is a most difficult operation. Dr. Langenbeck of Germany did it in two minutes. A young physician who came to see him performs the operation adjusted his spectacles to his nose so as not to lose a single movement, but when the spectacles were in place the operation was over.

Antiquity of the Hog.

The two most important and most intimately associated products of Indiana are corn and hogs. The Chinese claim to have had and domesticated the hog 4,000 years before the Christian era. The ancient Egyptians knew the hog, and their animals is depicted on their monuments. The use of the meat of the hog was prohibited by the Jews, and it was considered that in hot countries it produced skin diseases. The Moslems under Mohammedan law are also prohibited from using pork. The hog was unknown in America until introduced from Europe by the early invaders. In the South American forests are great droves of wild hogs, the descendants of hogs brought over by the Spaniards.

A Match For Him.

A cockney angler, thinking his highland boatman was not treating him with the respect due to his station, expostulated thus:

"Look here, my good man, you don't seem to grasp who I am. Do you know that my family has been entitled to bear arms for the last 200 years?"

"Hoors; that's nothing," was the reply. "My ancestors have been entitled to bare legs for the last 2,000 years."— London Mirror.

Had to Cater to All.

"I don't like the way this hotel is run" carped a peevish young traveling salesman.

"Neither do I," replied the landlord of Pruntytown tavern, "but I've got to entertain all the fools that come along as well as the sensible people."

Either Way.

Silicosis—I can't decide which one of those two girls I want to marry. Cynicus—Well, marry either one of them and you'll discover that you got the wrong one.

All a Risk.

"It's a case of love at first sight."
"Well, maybe it will work out all right. I took four years to select my husband, and look what I got."

really happy action of a man's life.

A Style Tip on Skirts.

Stylists certainly are giving the separate skirt all the prominence it deserves this season. Most of the latest models show pleats, but there is something individual about their arrangement in every new skirt. The accompanying model is a four-piece skirt with a pleated section between the goreds and patch pockets.

Using 54-inch material, 2 1/2 yards are required to make the skirt in medium size.

The material is first folded in half before cutting. Only one section in the skirt is laid on the fold, and that is the belt, which is placed in the position last. The first section of the pattern to be laid on the material, however, is the back gore. Then where it slopes away at the side, the pocket is laid into place, on a lengthwise section of the material. The pleated section is arranged next to the back gore, to the right, and its straight edge rests against the selvage of the cloth. Opposite the pleated section is placed the front gore, very near to the edge, yet on a lengthwise thread of the goods.

The measurements given are for material without nap. If the goods has nap, then 2 1/4 yards of cloth will be required to make the skirt.

If the design is to be used until late in the season it is well to omit trimmings of contrasting material. The effectiveness of the belt and pockets may be increased, however, by stitching along the edges with fine soutache braids.

Patch pockets and a smart belt are prominent features of this new skirt, which is cut in four goreds and trimmed with inserted side sections.

AN ANCIENT ROMANCE.

The Story of Ruth and Boaz and True
Human Kindness.

The book of Ruth is the greatest pastoral idyll in literature. It is founded, according to the Christian Herald, on loving kindness, the loving kindness of the Moabites revealed to her family and the loving kindness of Boaz, the wealthy Israelite, to Ruth, his kindness. It also contains the germ of that great heartedness which is the center of the gospel of the Christian love.

It is a book that opens with tears and famine and ends with the sound of wedding bells. The story turns upon the straightforwardness of Boaz, who showed kindness and manliness to Ruth, a member of a nation that was Israel's foe, and in that kindness founded a new house, the house of Jesse and David, the royal line that begat a greater than David.

Boaz is immortal among Bible heroes for his kindness, his plain, everyday generosity, his sense of protection and care for the lonely, unprotected Moab-itish girl, his dead kinsman's wife, who in her poverty gleaned in his harvest field after the reapers. Boaz gave orders to his reapers that they should leave the sheaves of barley even among the sheaves of his reapers and by his large heartedness gained a wife and, more than that, made a place for himself in that immortal company which is renowned for naught but for being kind.

Throw Away Your Eye-Glasses!

A Free Prescription

You Can Have Filled and Use at Home

Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye-strain or other eye-weakness?
If so, you will be glad to know that there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they had had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain awfully; now they feel like the time in the spring. It was a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read the print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time, and hundreds more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Ops. Fill a two-ounce bottle with warm water, drop in one Bon-Ops tablet and allow to dissolve.
With this liquid, bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start, and inflammation will quickly disappear.
If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now, before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time. The Valmas Drug Co., of Toronto, will fill the above prescription by mail, if your druggist cannot.
Geo. W. Mahood, the Kingston Druggist, will also be pleased to fill above prescription.
