AT THE POLICE COURT

HARRY SWAN IS WANTED BY OGDENSBURG POLICE.

Alleged That He Violated His Parole—Will be Taken and Deported as Undesirable—Man On the List Was Fined.

All last week the police of Kingston were on the look out for one, Harry Swan. The Ogdensburg police wanted him for violating his parole. Saturday he was gathered in Constable Samuel Arniei located him and when found the stranger was under the influence of liquor. He was charged with being drunk and when he came before Magistrate Farrell in the Police Court on Monday-morning the Magistrate remanded him so as he could be deported as an undesirable. He told the Magistrate that he came into Canada by way of Prescott.

Edward Radwell, who was before the Court on Saturday, charged with being under the influence of liquor, when a member of the "prohibited list," was fined $15 and costs, with the option of twenty days.

On Saturday, Radwell told a story about getting his supply of liquor from a friend who came here from Montreal. When he came up again on Monday morning, the Magistrate did not ask him further about where he secured his liquor, but simply imposed a fine.

LETTER FROM DAYTONA, FLA.

Hiram Walker, of Wilton, speaks about the conditions there. Hiram Walker, of Wilton, Ont., who is spending the winter with his wife at Daytona Beach in the southern part of Florida, writes to say he finds the climate very nice and warm. Right on the Atlantic, where hurricanes are to be seen any time of the day. There has been no rain to speak of since December, and there is beautiful sunshine. The gardens are all aglow with beautiful flowers, and with trees full of foliage. He states that everything seems like the summers in the north. It is a popular place among people who desire to escape the cold climate. The hotels are crowded to the limit. Daytona is divided by the Halifax River which is a mile wide. Electric cars and busses run continually, and a very nice ferry goes every thirty minutes. Last week J. D. Rockefeller arrived with his party and took fourteen rooms at the Armand Hotel for five or six weeks. Many people, the writer adds, go farther south to Miami and Palm Beach, for a short stay, and they are crowded down there. The people at Daytona were advised not to go there until after Feb. 22nd, as there was no accommodation.

BOY PLAYED "HOOKEY"

Was Out With Hockey Stick Having Gay Old Time. "Boys who play 'hockey' from school had better be careful. W. W. Wyllie, inspector for the Children's Aid Society, is taking action in every case which is reported to him. Monday afternoon he rounded up a lad who should have been at his studies. The youngster when asked why he was not at school replied: "I slept in this morning, and this afternoon I went to the hospital to see my sister who is very ill." The lad had his hockey stick with him. His story will be investigated.

"Locomotive" At Capacity.

The Canadian Locomotive Company here is one of the plants in Canada which is fortunate, or unfortunate, enough to be in the position of not being able to accept any new business. Orders now on hand, according to information from a reliable source, are sufficient to keep the company running at utmost capacity for more than a year ahead. Those interested in the concern have no comment to make upon the new taxation measures except in so far as to express confidence upon whatever action is taken by the Government.

Goldmark-Ingersoll Wedding.

The marriage is announced at Wellesley Mass., on February 12th, of Miss Ingersoll, Cleveland, Ohio, to Charles J. Goldmark, consulting engineer of the Canadian Locomotive Company, Kingston. Mr. and Mrs. Goldmark will arrive in Kingston this week and will take up residence for the present at 223 King street.

Letters To The Editor

Awake, People, Awake!

Kingston, Feb. 21.—(To the Editor):—Wake up, wake up, and gird your armour on, men of Kingston! If you have never thought of this before, think and act at once. Can you not hear the call to arms? Your sons, your brothers, your companions at the front are calling you. Will you stand idly by and refuse to answer their calls? They say, come now and come without delay, or we will be lost. Have you not got enough courage to go and help save those calling for you, or are you waiting for some one else to go? Then you might go. I say away with such an idea; away with any such thought, and be men. Be brave, be strong; go forward to fight and to conquer for freedom and liberty. Oh, how I wish I was a man, and had good health, the same as some of you. Would I stand by now? God forbid! I would have been at the front long ago. What a pity the women cannot go. I am sure they would soon get a few thousand recruits if they would not. I have some belonging to me at the front, and will pray for them and for all the dear, noble lads who have already gone. Our boys are falling. Will you men of Kingston try and fill up this gap, if you are too old to go? Oh, how I wish you were two you can give, or is there any one you can help to enlist at once? God help us every one, men and women, to do our duty and our best. If we cannot go ourselves, cannot we do something to help in any way? I am a woman and not able to do what I would like. I say are there not men in Kingston who are able to fly the aeroplanes. If so, come out of your quiet corners. Now will you enlist? There are vacancies for you as well as those on horses or on foot. Is it possible you can sit in your quiet corners while your brother comrades with their wives and families, the aged father and mothers are being wiped out? I will help mine. He is too old for the front but he can make the aeroplanes if some one else will come forward to help. We have given all we have to become warriors in the fight. I say to the men of Kingston and whatever country reads this paper, I say men be men, be brave, be in earnest and if you love your country your King, your parents, your wives, your dear little children, for God's sake stand by them whatever it costs you if it costs you your life. Is it not better to die a hero than a shirker. Hold fast to the dear old flag and don't let it fall. Don't be faint-hearted. Ask God to help you and put your trust in Him. Arise men from your slumber. This great call is for all who are able. Will you still hold back when your dear comrades are relying on your strength to come out and help to fight. Do you think you will be able to meet them face to face if you stand back afraid to go while your comrades return heroes. Come along boys and help to do the men's work. If any one wants to know who I am apply to the Whig—A SOLDIER'S MOTHER.

Run for Firemen.

Steam pouring out of the upper windows at the office of James Richardson & Sons, Ltd., on Monday morning was taken for smoke, and an alarm was sent in. When Chief Armstrong's squad arrived they were given a pleasant surprise. Soldiers quartered in the upper flat were enjoying their breakfast.

A RED CROSS CONCERT
 Held in The Strand Theatre On Sunday Afternoon.
 At the Strand Theatre on Sunday afternoon a very enjoyable concert under the auspices of the Red Cross Society was held in the front. At the opening of the concert, Mayor A. W. Richardson spoke a few words appealing for money to help the cause. Dr. Richardson mentioned the part that Canadians were taking in the titanic war. The Red Cross Society was doing everything possible to assist in the work and he appealed to his audience as Canadians to give liberally. Solos were rendered by Harold Angrove, Miss K. Hart, J. D. Bankier, Miss Norma Telgmann and Goldie Bartels gave violin selections all of which were very much enjoyed. Mrs. Telgmann recited a poem, entitled, "In Freedom's Name," which was written by Miss Machar.
