WHIG'S TOBACCO FUND BRINGING MUCH CHEER

GATHERING IN THE ICE

A BUSY SCENE ON THE HARBOR
THESE DAYS.

Rather Hard to Get Men to Help Get In the Harvest—Ice Cutting in Zero Weather is No Snap.

Kingston's harbor presents a very busy scene these days where the men getting in the ice harvest are engaged.
In addition to the men employed in cutting ice for the Kingston Ice Company, there is also quite a large number of men engaged in getting in a supply for merchants.

The weather was so unfavorable for so long that it was thought that the ice crop would be a total failure, but now there is every reason to believe that all concerned will be able to get all the ice that is required.

During all the cold weather a large number of sleighs were kept busy hauling in the ice to the big ice houses. The only difficulty that has been experienced is in getting men to do the work. As can well be imagined, cutting ice in zero weather is not a most inviting job. It is not every man who can do this kind of work. Many a man works on the job for a day or so, and is then compelled to give up. It takes the old timers at the business to stay on the job. All this week the ice company has been looking for men. Good wages have been paid.

THE GARBAGE COMMITTEE

To Recommend Installation of Blower To Save Wood.

At a meeting of the Civic Garbage and Refuse Committee on Wednesday evening, at which Alda. Wright and Newman were present, it was decided to recommend to the City Council that a blower be installed in connection with the incinerator in order to save wood, which is at present being burned in large quantities owing to the unsatisfactory condition of a large portion of the garbage. The cost of this blower will be about $220.

Inspector Timmerman reported that he was well pleased with the way the majority of the citizens were co-operating in trying to make the collection system a success. The garbage was being better drained and wrapped, and citizens were getting better cans.

Your Choice Only 50c.

lar price 75c to 90c each, will be sold

Should Erect Memorial.

At a meeting of the Arts Society of Queen's University on Wednesday afternoon, Major P. G. C. Campbell in the course of an address stated that he believed a memorial should be erected in honor of the Queen's men who have given up their lives during the present war.

On Wednesday night Mrs. J. H.

Misses Vernal and Clarice with Mrs.
Pickley and Miss A. Eva visited the old people with songs, readings, etc.

thoroughly and hope to see them again soon.

The British Whig's Tobacco Fund has been the means of bringing cheer and comfort to a good many Canadian soldiers at the front, especially those who hail from Kingston and district. The sum was generously contributed by our readers to be distributed among the various units raised in Kingston and Frontenac county, with instructions that when these were supplied with tobacco and cigarettes that the balance be used to send similar supplies to any Canadian soldiers in need. Splendid cooperation was lent to this fund by the employees of the Canadian Locomotive Company, who appointed a Committee and organized the collection at the Works. There has been considerable delay in forwarding this money to England, due to the failure of the banks to act promptly. However, the goods eventually reached the firing line, and from now on a steady stream of cards may be expected.

In every case the Whig supplied the name and address of the giver, and why the cards should have come in the care of the Bank of Toronto, in place of the proper street address, we are at a loss to understand. However, Manager G. E. McKay, of the local Branch of the Bank of Toronto, who has received these cards, has kindly turned them over to the Whig. The owners may secure them at any time by calling at this office.

Below we publish some of the soldiers' words of appreciation for the supplies received from Kingston people.

R. Meek: "Received smoke. Many thanks—Lance Corpl. William H.
Mackney, No. 1 Company, 21st Battalion."

Miss I. Goodearle: "I have received cigarettes and tobacco quite safe.
I thank you very much for sending them.—Pte. Ernest M. Maldes, No. 2 Company, 21st Battalion."

Miss J. Polson: "I was glad to receive those cigarettes you sent me, and thank you much. Good-bye—Pte. Eddie Duncan, 21st Battalion." H. Singleton: "I have much pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of your parcel of tobacco sent through the Overseas Club. It is indeed a welcome gift, and much appreciated by us poor devils out here. I might also mention that when I read your address it gave me pleasant memories of the good old days we spent in the Limestone City last winter. Hoping to return again ere long.—Henry J. Puchas, No. 1 Company, 21st Battalion."

Miss G. Henderson: "I received your tobacco O.K. Thanking you for it.—Pte. Charles Roberts, No. 1 Company, 21st Battalion."

Brian Root: "This life is not a cinch for ye office man, and a smoke helps to steady the nerves and pass a weary hour. Thank you very much.—D. H. McLean."

Master J. and Miss A. Scott: "Just a line thanking you for the tobacco which I have received quite safe. It is the cigarettes and tobacco which we most look for out here, for it helps to while away the many hours we put in here. We are having lovely weather here just at present after much rain. Again thanking you.—A. Phillen, No. 3 Company, 21st Battalion."

Letters To The Editor

Public Meeting of Humane Society.

Kingston, Feb. 24.—(To the Editor):
The committee of the Kingston Humane Society hope that there will be a fair attendance of their friends at the public meeting on Monday morning, evening in St. George's Hall, when they will hear some interesting details of the work done during the past year. In common with several other societies has been doing its "bit" of warwork. At the suggestion of Col. Arthur Ross it succeeded during the year in raising funds to sent out to our troops a Horse Ambulance, to "promote the merciful care and recovery of wounded horsemen, many of which are in this way sold to the army. It is expected that there will be a considerable contingent of public school pupils to represent the Bands of Mercy by appropriate recitations and songs, and to enjoy a series of lantern views of animals provided for the occasion.
At a time when tales of cruelty and brutality are a rifle with much dangerous a moral contagion, the work of such societies fosters humane feeling and action is of no small importance.—LIVE AND LET LIVE.

DONATION OF $20.

From Swatiska 500 Club for Prisoners-of-War Fund.

J. Litton and H. Breathwaite, respective president and secretary of the "Swatiska 500 Club," called at the American Consulate on Thursday morning and on behalf of the club presented Mr. Johnson with $20 as the club's donation to the prisoners-of-war fund. The money, with other donations, has been put into a fund for the purchase of goods for the Kingstonsians who at the battle of Langemarck and other places were taken prisoners and are remaining until the close of the war. in German Camps.

All day Thursday Mr. Johnson, his staff and friends were busy packing up articles for the prisoners. The office was temporarily surced into a grocery store and with scales on the tables every person was hard at work preparing the packages.

Through the efforts of himself and friends and also the Whig, there is now all but $50 of sufficient money to purchase all of the goods necessary. This will, it is hoped, be donated in the next two days.

"Buy Tooth Brushes" at Gibson's. very much. It is a pleasure to will find you in the best of health, as it leaves me. I am.—Pte. C. Hay-

A middle-aged man employed by the city was at the Police Station Thursday forenoon to lodge an unusual complaint. He stated that he had been working for the city doing some excavation work on William street. An aged lady living on that street he says picked up a big piece of earth and fired it at him. He stated that there was no cause whatever for the attack. His coat was covered with dirt, and he asked that he be given protection against future attacks. The woman in the case was warned by the police that she must not molest the man any more.
If she does, a Police Court case will follow.
