CAPT. RICHARDSON MOST DARING OFFICER.
Would Never Take Married Man With Him On Adventures, Says Writer.

Mrs. Edwards, 234 Victoria street, has received a letter from her husband, Sergt. Frederick Edwards, of the 2nd Battalion, First Infantry Brigade, First Canadian Contingent. In this letter the writer pays a warm tribute to the late Capt. George T. Richardson. In his reference he says:

"Capt. Richardson was one of the whitest of men that ever lived. When I first heard the news of his death I felt as though I had lost someone belonging to me, but at the same time I was not surprised as he was a most daring fellow. In fact I think he always took too many chances. He would never ask anybody to go with him if they did not want to. He would never take a married man with him on his adventures. Men of his stamp do not last very long in this war. His death is a great loss to the contingent and you know that he was about the best friend I had out here. I guess that Kingston will be sorry to hear of his death as he was popular and well liked."

SUNDAY AFTERNOON CONCERT
 In Strand Theatre For Benefit of Ammunition Column.
 For the benefit of the Divisional Ammunition Column another very pleasant musical concert was given in the Strand Theatre on Sunday afternoon. Capt. G. G. Mills, commanding No. 1 Section, presided. The musical numbers were given by Mrs. Arthur Craig, Miss Ada Rosevear, D. Couper, Lieut. R. Smith, R. S. A., George Wood, and a quartette, consisting of Harvey Angrove, Harold Angrove, W. Mack and N. Armstrong rendering selections. The Kingston Mandolin and Guitar Club also gave several numbers.

The steamer Rochester, well known along the river, has been purchased by the Northern Navigation company to replace the steamer Majestic burned last fall.
OVER-WORKED MAN.
 Bank Cashier Almost a Wreck—How He Regained Strength.
 Kingston people will realize that this is one more link in the wonderful chain of evidence proving that Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic has no equal to create strength.
 Charles A. Ogle, Monrovia, Md., says:

"For many years I was a school teacher, then for three years was Deputy Clerk in Frederick County, Md., and for the last three years I have been Cashier of the First National Bank. My nerves got in such a bad condition, and with poor assimilation of food, I was fast becoming a physical and mental wreck. Seeing an advertisement for Vinol I purchased a bottle, and found it to be exactly what I needed. It has not only benefited my nerves, but built me up both mentally and physically, and I want to recommend it to anyone suffering as I did."
 Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Geo. W. Mahood, Druggist, Kingston, Ont.

SERVING THE ONLY KEY IN HOCKEY CIRCLES
TO HEAVEN, DECLARES REV. B. H. STAUFFER.

Who Preached in Queen's Grant Hall on Sunday Morning—Principal Gordon Bade Queen's Corps Good-bye.
 "Serving is the only key to heaven," declared Rev. Byron H. Stauffer, of Good Street Congregational Church, Toronto, preaching at the university service in Grant Hall on Sunday morning.
 The services were well attended, the reinforcements going overseas to Queen's Stationary Hospital, and also the Queen's Battery, being present at the service. At the close of the service Principal Gordon gave a short address bidding the former farewell.
 "There is a new yard stick for measuring greatness," said Rev. Mr. Stauffer. Jesus was the pioneer of democracy. God's love is not being served, but to serve. The story of Jesus washing the feet of his disciples was told. In these days the one question was this: "Who would be the greatest?" Even the question, "Who would go first to dinner?" had brought about quarrels in diplomatic circles.
 "The world of to-day refuses to recognize brains that do not get something. The man who knows must also know how."
 The speaker referred to the new kind of actor, in the modern drama. Preachers, he said, were not supposed to know anything about the theatres. In Toronto some of the ministers criticize them, but I don't know what you do here. If you don't tell any person I want to tell you that I certainly like old Uncle Josh in "The Old Homestead." This play preaches to me.

"The question with the Church of to-morrow is: 'How many people in the church are willing to take their turn in serving like Jesus?' How many have the spirit of service? There must be the spirit of service in social work. Team work is necessary. If you cannot work on a committee without getting mad, leaving the room and slamming the door, there is something wrong.
 "Service has become the one test of goodness. Jesus had no use for any other test. The Good Samaritan was Christ's ideal of a good man. There are men and women who believe that they are doing much good because they are doing no wrong, and sing, 'When the Roll is Called Up Yonder, I'll Be There.' I would like to ask these people where they are in the roll of service. I once heard an evangelist tell some young men that to be a Christian would be the hardest job they ever had. To this I would say, why? Christ said, 'My yoke is easy, and my burden is light.' Serving is the one key and the only key to heaven."

In bidding farewell to the hospital reinforcements Principal Gordon referred to the different units which had gone overseas from Queen's University. "It was not known when the war would end, but he believed that Queen's would strive to do all in her power to send forth units as they were required until the end.
 "The service is one for righteousness, service for liberty, for community and the nation," added Dr. Gordon.

Princess Street Methodist
 Anniversary services were held in Princess Street Methodist Church on Sunday. Prof. W. G. Jordan and Prof. L. A. Muttit of Queen's University were the special preachers. The choir under the leadership of Miss Wilder furnished special music at both services. At the morning service Miss Annie Finnerman sang a solo. William Mack was the evening soloist. A couple of anthems were rendered at both services. Rev. Mr. Curry, pastor of the church stated that it was the wish of the officials that the special offering of $250 be given.
 Prof. Muttit, at the morning service spoke about the vision of Isaiah.
 Prof. Jordan at the evening service took for his theme "Order and Liberty," taking his text from 1st Corinthians xii, 4: "Now there is diversity of gifts but the same spirit." One thing which Paul stood for was liberty. Paul believed also in variety. It is possible to have a big variety of life. Prof. Jordan referred to the difference in conditions to-day. We are a free people but we must remember that our freedom is due to the fact that our fathers or grandfathers had to fight for our freedom. We must also remember that nothing is accomplished without hard work and the price.
 There are some church members said Prof. Jordan, who think of nothing more than going to church and singing hymns and when they die they think a chariot comes and rushes them off to Heaven. The rest of the world can go to Hell as far as they care.

Dr. Gray in Chalmers.
 Rev. Dr. S. Harper Gray, of Old St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, who is giving a course of lectures in Queen's Theological College, preached in Chalmers Church on Sunday morning, taking as his subject, "Life's True Movement," which said was one of progress and growth. Mere change did not denote growth, and it is only too true of the most of our lives that we do not grow as the years pass, but merely change. This, Dr. Gray said, was the cause of so much discontent and pain. If we would try and shape our lives by the pattern of Christ and grow in knowledge and spirituality we would be happier.

FRONTENAC AND THE TORONTO GROUP WINNERS.
 To Clash for Supremacy Wednesday and Friday—Juvenile Hockey Game Called Off Saturday.
 The first of the home and home games to declare the winner of the semi-finals of the senior O. H. A. will be staged at the covered rink on Wednesday evening when the winners of the Riverdale-Argonaut round will meet the Frontenacs. At the present time the two Toronto teams are tied, and will play off this evening in Toronto.
 Frontenacs will have their complete line-up for Wednesday evening. Although Good has been laid up with a sore foot, he will be in good shape for Wednesday. The return game will be played on Friday evening in Toronto. It is expected that Frontenacs will run an excursion for it.
 Game Was Called Off.
 On account of a mix-up in the dates the game in the juvenile hockey league which was staged for Saturday afternoon at the covered rink, had to be called off. The Victorias and Eagles will play on Tuesday evening and the St. Mary's and Dry Bones will play Thursday. The winners of these games will then play for the championship.

New Managing Director.
 Frank G. Wallace, Pittsburg, Pa., for many years a director of the Canadian Locomotive Company, has accepted the position of managing director of the company. William Casey, who has held the position of assistant general manager, has been promoted to be manager. Mr. Wallace was a former resident of Kingston. He will return to Kingston. The promotion of William Casey to the management will meet with general approval. He has proven himself a capable man in the sphere he occupied.
City Council Meeting Postponed
 Owing to the big Liberal meeting to-night, the meeting of the City Council has been postponed until Tuesday evening. A round-robin was signed by the aldermen to-day asking Mayor Richardson to postpone the meeting. Conservative aldermen recognized that the Liberals should be given right-of-way and willingly signed the request to the mayor.
Expected Home Soon.
 Richard Clarke, who went overseas with Queen's Engineers under Major Alexander Macphail, is expected back in the city in a couple of days. While in England preparing to leave for the front he suffered a bad attack of poisoning. Four other men who were taken down with the same disease died as a result. Sapper Clarke is at the present time in a convalescent home at Quebec.

ANTI-GERMAN LEAGUE WRITES BOARD OF TRADE
 Seeks Its Aid in Conservation of Canadian and British Trade.
 The Anti-German League of Toronto has written to the Kingston Board of Trade to seek its aid in their campaign for the conservation of Canadian and British trade to the exclusion of the German.
 The League states that this country has heretofore been importing too much from the enemy countries, and it is endeavoring to encourage imperial industries.
 The communication will come before the Board at its next session.
 Who Else Will Contribute
 American Consul F. S. S. Johnson has written a letter to Consul-General Harris at Frankfurt-on-Main, Germany, asking as a personal favor that Mr. Harris look after the parcels that are being sent from Kingston to the Kingston boys in the Gleason camp. About forty people of the city have guaranteed their word that they will contribute $1 a month to the prisoners-of-war fund. If another 150 people would come forward and agree to do the same the Consul would rejoice. There were 106 parcels sent away on Friday to the American, Ambassador at Berlin.
