TIDINGS FROM TWEED.

The Hub Factory Is Busy—A Wedding At Stoco.

Tweed, Feb. 24.—The people are pleased to see the large quantity of hub timber that is being hauled to the factory here. It was feared that the hub business in this locality was about to be suspended for this season at least, owing to the meagreness of orders from the manufacturing houses, but business has again brightened up, and the genial millowner, A. J. Fitzgerald, is once more engaged preparing for a good season's output. Mrs. John Comer, who has for some weeks past been ailing, is slowly recovering. Rev. Father Murta of Marmora, was the guest of Rev. Father Quinn a couple of days this week.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at St. Edmond's church, Stoco, on Tuesday morning the 22nd, by Rev. Father Quinn, pastor, when John Bennetts, Hungerford, was united in matrimony with John M. Cassidy, Stoco. The church was decorated for the occasion, and the choir sang some appropriate hymns during the nuptial mass. A large number of invited relatives and friends joined the party in an elaborate dejeuner at the home of the bride, after which dancing and games were indulged in until early morning. The bride was the recipient of many useful and costly presents as a token of the esteem in which she is held.

Mrs. M. McCaraw is recovering from a very serious illness of many weeks duration. Mrs. W. B. Huycke entertained a number of friends on Thursday evening of last week.

The many friends of James McAvoy, formerly of Stoco, are pleased to have him once more in their midst after a twenty years sojourn in the west, where he has accumulated great wealth. Mr. McAvoy is a brother of Michael McAvoy. On his return to the west he purposes taking with him a car load of horses.

Finn Melvar, Deloro for several years has left for Chili.

A GRUESOME FIND.

Angus McLeod's Dead Body Discovered By Rats.

Colborne, Feb. 28.—Angus McLeod, who was about seventy years of age, had lived alone in his shanty in the Township of Haldimand, west of Shelter Valley Road, for over twenty years. A neighbor, M. W. Gillespie, failed to see him about as usual, and on Sunday went to investigate. He found the frozen body on the floor with the face and nose badly disfigured by rats.

Another neighbor, W. Taylor, noticed him going towards home on the previous Wednesday with a small bag of provisions, which was found in the house unopened. The supposition is that he died that evening. He owned the property on which he resided. There was fifteen dollars on his person. He had no relatives in that section.

MOUNTAIN GROVE EVENTS.

Welcome To Recruits—Presentations To Crozier Family.

Mountain Grove, Feb. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Chester McKnight of Godfrey were over Sunday visitors at Alexander Parkers. Pte. D. McCrimmon is the guest of his parents here. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hill, a son. Mrs. G. Somers and George Mills, Sr., are better. Harry Card has returned from the Kingston General Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Clare and children. Tweed, were recent guests at the parsonage. Mrs. J. French has gone to attend the funeral of her sister, the late Mrs. Gill. Miss Bertha Ewens, Napanee, is with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Thompson is at J. D. Claffey's. Dead Creek is the guest of George Mills Jr., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sprague, Dunganon. Miss Pearl Crozier spent the week-end at her home here. Miss E. Crozier was the guest of Miss E. Stinchcomb on Sunday. Jas. Dawson is at home after an absence of some time. Stewart Mills, confined to his home with mumps, is better.

The welcome for the recruits on Friday evening passed off pleasantly in spite of the storm a large number gathered at the town hall, which was tastefully decorated. The early part of the evening was spent with games and music and then a short program was put on, consisting of solos, duets, songs by the soldiers. An address of welcome by Rev. A. Webster and reply by Lieut. Bromwich in which he made a strong appeal for recruits was given by Rev. R. Flynn Sr. The ladies then served refreshments. Three cheers were given for the soldiers by civilians. Three cheers for the people of Mountain Grove by the soldiers, and three cheers for the ladies of Mountain National Anthem.

Mrs. R. Flynn visited Smith's Falls last week. Mrs. W. A. Spaulderson is at Norwood caring for her friend, Mrs. Thompson, who is ill.

On Monday evening a large number of friends of the Crozier family met at their home to bid them farewell before leaving for their new home at Switzerville. After a pleasantly spent evening, Mr. and Mrs. Crozier and Miss Emma were invited to the front and Mrs. J. D. Clark read an address to them, expressing her esteem in which they are held and the regret of their friends at their removal, and wishing them a happy and prosperous life in their new home. Mrs. W. E. Barr presented them with a purse from the older people, the contents to be used in purchasing some suitable gift as a reminder of their olden friends. Mr. Crozier made a brief reply thanking the friends for their kindness and hoping for a continuance of the friendship though parted. Mr. Crozier has lived on the farm he is now leaving since he was a small boy, his father being one of the early settlers of Olden. Then Miss Marion Coulter read a short address to Miss Emma who acted as organizer for the church services for a number of years, also as teacher of the young ladies class for sometime. She referred to her willingness to help in every way she could. Miss Mabel Price presented her with a purse from the young people, also to be used in purchasing some gift as a reminder of the happy time they had spent together. Miss Crozier thanked her friends in a few well chosen words. The ladies then served a buffet lunch and adieus were said, while the people departed regretting that all would never meet in this home again.

The ladies of the W. I., met at the home of Mrs. J. D. Cronk on the 15th inst. and being one of a quilt donated by Miss Drew and Jeffrey to the Red Cross work. The soldiers left Wednesday morning on a recruiting campaign and will not return till Saturday night. George McCallum, Tweed, made business trip through here this week. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Thompson are attending the reception for Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Flynn at her home, Godfrey.

MISCONSTRUED STATEMENTS

Judge Lavelle Talks About The Personal Liberty League.

The Personal Liberty League can rest assured that it has no friend in Judge H. A. Lavelle. In the absence of Elmer Davis, Judge Lavelle took charge of the meeting of the Wesleyan Club on Sunday afternoon in Sydenham Street Methodist Church. He spoke for some time on the manifesto of the Personal Liberty League. Judge Lavelle is one of the many people of Ontario who believes that the liquor traffic should go and is not afraid to say what he thinks.

Referring to some of the statements made in advertisements he stated that the Personal Liberty League says about one-third of what they should say and quits and leaves the rest to be supposed the rest. He went so far as to say that it misconstrues many statements.

Charge Was Withdrawn.

The doye of peace prevailed at the Police Court on Monday morning, when the case of a young Russian, charged with the theft of a purse from a lady friend, was called for the second time, it have been adjourned from Saturday. The young woman in the case withdrew the charge and the accused was accordingly discharged.
