IT TOOK SEVEN WEEKS
FOR KINGSTON PARCELS TO REACH BERLIN.
Ambassador Gerard Writes U. S. Consul Johnson—Other Parcels To Be Sent Where Most Needed.
The following word on Thursday morning reached American Consul Johnson from Ambassador Gerard at Berlin regarding the packages forwarded to Germany from Kingston in December last for the Kingston boys:

"I have to inform you that the parcels in question, about one hundred in number, have already reached the Embassy. These parcels, together with ten others which forwarded by you as coming from Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Richardson, will now be sent to the Prisoner-of-War Camp at Gleesen for distribution through the senior non-commissioned officers belonging to the First Canadian Contingent among the Canadian prisoners in that camp who have received little or nothing from home. Should any more parcels be received from Kingston they will be sent to some other camp in which there are Canadian prisoners."

The date of Ambassador Gerard's letter is January 15th, thus it will be observed that the first instalment of one hundred packages from the 223 on Dec. 8th arrived safely. The other 113 missed the steamer the first lot went on. The parcels were seven weeks in transit. It was the cherished wish of not only the Consul but the donors at the time that these parcels would reach the boys in time for Christmas.

TWO MONTHS IN JAIL

POOR OLD BAPTISTE AGAIN IN POLICE TOLLS.
Told Magistrate Farrell That Roads Were Too Bad For Him To Get To Gananoque On Wednesday — German Under Arrest Given His Liberty.

Poor Old Baptiste came back. He simply could not stay away from the police station. He got a chance to go to Gananoque, on Wednesday but fell by the wayside. He was very drunk when Police Constable McCarey arrested him early on Wednesday night, and he and his head were taken to the Police Station. He was trying his best to hold up the big telegraph pole in front of L. W. Murphy's store, but the task was too much for him. He would have perished in the cold had Constable McCarey not looked after him. Magistrate Farrell feared that he would be frozen to death when he appeared in the Police Court on Wednesday, and it was for this reason that he wanted to send him to jail, but finally consented to give the old offender just one more chance.

Baptiste is pretty good when it comes to finances. When he left the "lock-up" Wednesday morning he did not have one cent to rub against another. When he was locked up in the evening he had a big jag, a flask of Old Scotch, and seventy cents in his jeans. "Well, here you are again," was the greeting he received from the Magistrate. "Yes, I made a mistake all right," said Baptiste. "I started to go to Gananoque yesterday, but the roads were so bad I could not get out. I don't blame Your Worship for being hard on me."

Magistrate Farrell sent the accused up for two months. He will come out the same time as the May flowers. The case of Henry Polex showed clearly what strong drink will do with a man. Polex is the German who treated quite a scene at his boarding house one night last week by getting out of his bed and running out on the street scantily attired, declaring that two men had a plot to murder him. He had been drinking, and was all imagination. Although of German birth, no person had anything against Polex, who is a hard-working man and has been working steadily at the locomotive works.

Polex told the Magistrate that he did not remember being in the Court a week ago. He admitted having a few drinks of beer, (Canadian not German), but he did not think this was sufficient to put him off his base. He had been working very hard. He had a steady job, and he was afraid that he would lose it. "I hope not," remarked the Magistrate and he gave Polex a pass.

Revival meetings at this church are increasing in attendance and interest last night. Mrs. (Rev.) Lyall gave an able address on "The New Life." To-night the meetings will be addressed by Pastor Stephens, Bethel Church and to-morrow Rev. LeRoy Rice will be the speaker.

FORT HENRY PRISONERS
Have Comfortable Quarters—Improvements Have Been Made.
Despite the fact that threats have been made against his life by prisoners-of-war in Fort Henry, American Consul F. S. S. Johnson went to the Fort on Wednesday afternoon and investigated a special case. The prisoners now seem well satisfied with what the authorities are doing. A new roof has been put on, better lights have been put into the rooms, and many improvements brought about which should greatly increase the standard of living for the Germans under Major P. G. C. Campbell's guardianship.
