ECHO LAKE.
Feb. 25.—Lieut. H. W. Brown, Mountain Grove, visited this place on Thursday with his nine recruits. In the afternoon they had drill at the school house, and a recruiting meeting at night, which was largely attended. A collection was taken up for the Red Cross Fund. Joseph Jeffrey, Oak Flats, was chairman.

A lady fainting in the crowd when she thought her brother was going to enlist.
There was no service on Sunday on account of the heavy snow storm. Charles Cox has rented John Switzer's place for the year.

HOWE ISLAND.

Feb. 25.—Captain M. VanDresser filled the ice houses of Dr. W. H. Nichols last Thursday. The ice is of poor quality and not over ten inches thick. The sad death of Mrs. W. M. Fenimore was received with deep sorrow. Many farmers have cut their ice. Perhaps some of the men and their relatives do not know their ice is a gross misdemeanor to use the rural mail boxes for anything but mail. The Government imposes a heavy fine if the culprits are discovered. There is snow galore and the council has decided to impose a fine of five dollars upon those who do not break the roads when necessary.

WAGARVILLE.

Feb. 25.—The recent snowstorm has left the roads in very bad condition. A number of teams here attended a recruiting meeting at Echo Lake last week. Henry Smith has returned home after spending some time with relatives at Westbrook. Franklin Sluder has purchased a sawing outfit from Roy Wagar. Miss Trezza Wagar was here on Thursday for a few days. The men are hauling ice to their ice-houses. Mrs. Charles Goodberry is ill. Visitors: E. Brown and family at Clinton Wagar's; Mr. and Mrs. Mevius Cronk and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kirkham at E. M. Story's; Mr. and Mrs. William Cousins at Ard Wagar's.

CROW LAKE.

Feb. 25.—The recent snowstorm has left the roads in bad condition. Teaming has come to a standstill until the roads are broken up. Mr. Sterness is going to load thirty tons of spar here at the station soon. The saw mill is running full blast. Mr. and Mrs. Y. Mahon made a trip to Perth last week. Miss Grace Knapp has returned from Molongbrook. John Patton of Saskatchewan called on his sister-in-law, Mrs. H. Patton, last week. D. Badour is running a lumber business on his land north of Crow Lake and hauling logs to the mill here. W. B. Tharretts is nearly ready to go west. There is talk of rural mail here. A telephone line would be very welcome.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

Feb. 25.—The party at T. Eilerbeck's on Wednesday night was an enjoyable affair, a jolly load of young people journeyed to Holford on Thursday night and were entertained at James Walker's. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitty and son Roger, Sr. Catharines, are guests at Edward Whitty's. Miss A. E. Barr spent the week-end with friends in Harrowsmith. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman, York, were recent callers at Edward Whitty's. Miss M. Lesslie, Godfrey, has returned on a few days' sojourn with her cousin, Miss Barr. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Digworth and son are at Verona. D. Lesslie called at G. Barr's recently. Roy Freeman, Yorker, called on friends here. Mr. Barr has purchased a fine team of colts.

SANGSTER.

Feb. 25.—A number from here attended the horse races in Westport on Feb. 24th and 25th. Joseph Smith and Mr. Harte Elginburg, are calling on friends here. Mrs. P. Walsh, Oates, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Cochrane. Nicholas Murphy is at Thomas Fitzgerald's. Sydenham, is at John Murphy's. Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzgerald, Glendower, at Thomas Young's; Misses Lena and Maggie O'Connor at Mrs. John O'Connor's; Mr. and Mrs. T. Babcock and daughter Gertrude spent Sunday at N. Murphy's; Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy and little son John; P. Egan's; Joseph Barrett was a visitor in Westport, Friday. John W. Conway at D. Robinson's; Permy; M. J. Cochrane, at P. Cochrane's; Glendower; Miss M. McCann at Westport; Charles Murphy at Godfrey. Whittaker Bros. Westport, passed through here this week buying cattle. Messrs. Timothy and James Babcock made a flying trip through this section last week.

HOLFORD.

Feb. 25.—There is much teaming to be done. H. Smith, Wilmer, made a busines trip through here last week. A Vanliven is cutting ice to supply the surrounding ice houses. There were no services on Sunday school yesterday. Messrs. Cochrane and -oyner, Sydenham, were out a few days ago looking over the lumber at the saw mill with a view of buying. The cheese meeting on Thursday night was well attended. Within the last two weeks there have been quite a number of parties and a couple of marriages. James Walker is ill. Foster Babcock and Frederick Reid, training at Sydenham, spent Sunday with relatives here. Mrs. Medcof has returned from visiting her daughter in Kingston. Miss Oryla Babcock has also returned from visiting relatives at Murvale. Mr. Joyner visited his sister, Mrs. W. Troutsdale. Ray Babcock is at J. Deline's; M. Shagan at W. Troutsdale's; Elmer Smith and wife with friends at Verona; Mr. and Mrs. S. Martin at Stanley Babcock's; Miss Mabel Redmond at her grandfather's; Medcof H. Martin has recovered from his recent illness. G. Babcock is suffering from a very sore eye.

PARHAM.

Feb. 25.—The snow storm on Friday left the roads in bad condition. Mr. Compton has returned and is working at his mill again. Mrs. L. Howes went to Kingston to-day to be with her daughter, Mrs. Peter Ritchie, who is ill. The many friends of P. N. Smith will be sorry to learn of his serious illness in the General Hospital, Kingston, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. Lieut.-Col. Ferguson has been in the village for a few days. Roy Wagar of the 146th Battalion moved his family into A. McCleod's house last week. David Goodfellow is suffering from a severe attack of grippe. Miss Pearl Charlton has returned from Kingston. Mr. and Mrs. Levi Storms, Verona, visited at G. A. Smith's on Thursday last. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bell, Cole Lake, spent a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wagar last week. Mr. and Mrs. Grant visited her daughter, recently. Miss Murial Howes and Archibald Howes of Sydenham high school spent the week-end at their homes. Miss Joyce Lansbury has returned home after spending some time with friends in Toronto and Marmora. Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Sulder, Oak Flats, also Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bell, Cole Lake, visited at W. E. Clow's recently.

VERONA.

Feb. 25.—The abundant fall of the beautiful tends to impede locomotion considerably. The postmen made their rounds Saturday, despite the storm and bad roads. Elmer Seales, is moving into the village and Charles Hamilton is taking Mr. Charles Mackenzie's farm. Mr. P. A. Brown has moved back to his farm at Fourteen Island Lake. The ladies here have a society called The Helping Hand, in connection with Red Cross work. One of Oscar Veley's horses broke his leg and had to be shot. Mrs. Norman Ball is now occupying her new house on the outskirts of the village. Mrs. John Green and children have returned from an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Archie Curran, at Corbyville. Miss Ethel McMullen is visiting Mrs. Dr. Sherrill, Ottawa. Mrs. Charles Gonee, Murvale, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Reynolds, Main Street. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lakins, have gone to Kingston, where he has a position at the Royal Military College. Miss Hazel Percy, slightly indisposed, is able to be out again. Miss Cornelia Yorks, Bellefleur, is visiting at Alfred Troutsdale's, Wellington Township, acting as night porter at the British American Hotel, Kingston is here for a while. Miss Bella Burnett, Richardson Mine, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hermio Freeman.

LEADS.

Feb. 25.—Lyndhurst hockey team played Delta at Delta. The result was 3 to 2 in favor of Lyndhurst. The young people of Lyndhurst and vicinity held a shower and dance at George P. Toddridge's on Thursday evening for Miss Bertha White, Delta whose approaching marriage to Edward Andrews a prosperous cheese maker at Keelerville, calls for her removal to that place. Lyndhurst is honored with a number of young recruits who are in training here. Mr. Kincaid is the recruiting officer. Mrs. A. Landon has rented her farm to F. Preston, and Mrs. Landon has moved to Athens. The people here got their ice stored.

LYNDHURST.

Feb. 25.—The Saw and grist mills are running full speed these days. School is progressing favorably under the management of Miss Nellie Leeder. Mrs. William Patience returned home after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. J. Leeder, Saskatoon, Sask., is a guest at M. Anglin's. A number of the young people spent a pleasant time at F. Flood's, Sheatoun, on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Donovan and daughter, Elizabeth, visited Mrs. Donovan's mother, Thursday. Flood and John Flood spent Sunday evening at Joseph Leeder's, Ford Hockey, who has been in the west for the past three years, has enlisted for overseas service. He is expected to be in the ranks, Mr. Earl Armstrong on his way to St. John, N. B.

NEWBORO.

Feb. 25.—Farmers are hauling wood to the village. There will be a ball at Hotel Rideau Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Celas Davidson of Syracuse, N. Y., are visiting friends here. Mr. Davidson is an old Newboro boy.
"Sandy" Wright is moving to the R. Leech farm where he has purchased. Frederick Leech is a doctor from Belgium where he has been for several months as surgeon assistant. He will return to Toronto and finish his college course. A patriotic meeting was well attended in the Court House here last Thursday night. Among the speakers were Mr. Frederick Leech and Thomas McCrement, who gave a vivid description of the doings at the front as witnessed by them. Irvin Lyons, R. C. H. A., Kingston, spent the week-end here with his parents, returning Tuesday. The Newboro team has disbanded rather than play the game over with Westport after the usage they received there. The team was not thrown out of the league as claimed by Mr. Bennett in his letter to the Whig. The report given by the writer at the time of that game was correct. The Newboro team has always been in the game for the sport that was in it and has been very successful for a number of years and always paid their way. Mrs. John Tett is in Kingston with friends.

WASHBURN'S CORNERS.

Feb. 25.—A number from here attended the funeral of the late Norman Brown. The funeral services were conducted with Masonic honors. Mrs. James Scotland entertained about twenty young people on Friday evening. Friends here received word of the death at Phillipsville of Mrs. George Kernan. The residents

WHOOPING COUGH

No cough sufferer old or young can take Veno's Lightning Cough Cure without benefit. In whooping cough its quick, sure relief is truly startling. Mothers who do not know Veno's often think that whooping cough must go on until the season changes. They are wrong. Veno's cures whatever the season, cures at once and cures thoroughly.

Won Grand Prix and Gold Medal, International Health Exhibition, Paris, 1910.

There is nothing in Veno's Lightning Cough Cure that the most delicate child may not take freely. It contains no opium, morphine, or poisonous. The curative power of Veno's comes from strengthening principles which enable the breathing organs to throw off attack and not from narcotic drugs. It may be used with full confidence for old or young. Only real and speedy benefit can result. Veno's is the remedy for—

- Coughs and Colds
- Difficult Breathing
- Bronchial Troubles
- Whooping Cough
- Nasal Catarrh
- Blood Spitting
- Hoarseness
- Asthma.
