No man is such a pessimist as to refuse to believe the good things he hears about himself.
Most women are curious, but the most curious thing in the world is a woman who isn't.

Many Military Matters

Why they call them privates? Since the war broke out it has been emphasized over and over again that privacy is the one thing denied to a private. He is a public institution. He is open for examination by almost any citizen who may be curious as to those little details that a modest and retiring nature usually hides from the eye of his fellows. He is open for investigation as any vaudeville magician would like the audience to believe that his act is, and his every move is watched and noted down with all the enthusiasm and accuracy that Henri Fabre showed in his study of the Lady Bug.

All the salient features of a man's life are carefully gathered on the occasion of his enlistment. But the recruit does not mind that so much. He does not realize that this is but the preliminary shedding of the garments of reserve in which he has clothed his private self. After a few weeks he sees that he has become as public as Gaby Deslys or the latest popular New York murderer.

With some of his fellows he is put in a barracks. Here he must eat, live and sleep, what time he is not on the parade ground. He rises in the morning and begins to dress in full view of all the other occupants. He washes at one of a row of taps, from which cold water alone flows, before the sun is up.

He must make his bed before breakfast, which is served half an hour after the rises. He has some two feet six inches of narrow shelf on which he must keep his knapsack, or in his kit-bag behind his bed as he possesses. Nothing must show on the shelf but the knapsack or a pair of cooking boots. His other pair of boots is not clean; he shoves them under the bed and goes on parade, praying that the orderly officer who will inspect the but has not one of those disagreeable prying natures that make army life a burden.

There were 1,521 men recruited for units in the 3rd Divisional Area in the last two weeks making a total of over 3,300 for the month of February. Throughout the last two weeks there has been a decrease of 267. One reason assigned for the decrease is the fact that carnivals and other enterprises were held to stimulate recruiting, and the result are not yet apparent.

There were 153 men secured for Kingston units. This number is made up as follows: 14th Battalion 19 recruits; 50th Battery (Queen's) 18 recruits; 51st 19 recruits; 52nd 38 recruits; R.C.H.A. "C" Battery, 43 recruits; No. 1 D. A. C. 2 recruits.

There are 12,471 officers, N.C.O.'s and men now in the 3rd Divisional Area. This number is made up as follows: 1,521 recruits; 391 appointed and 261 attached officers and 11,864 on the roll.

The strength of the Kingston artillery units is as follows:
50th Battery, officers, 7; men, 67.
51st Battery, officers, 11; men, 88.
52nd Battery, officers, 8; men, 91.

"C" R.C.H.A. officers, 8; men, 258.
No. 1 D.A.C., officers, 5; men, 168.

Vigorous steps are being taken against the "man" who deserts from units of the Canadian Expeditionary force. The following appears in Divisional Orders:

"It is published for general information that in many cases men who have been apprehended for desertion appeared to have had no idea of the seriousness of the offence nor of the penalties for same.
"Notices setting forth the seriousness of desertion and the punishments to which deserters are liable should be posted in every company room and every means should be employed to ensure that the matter is thoroughly understood by all ranks. It should be pointed out to all men that all separation allowance and assistance from the Patriotic funds are automatically cancelled from date of desertion also that a deserter offering himself for enlistment in any other unit of the C. E. F. will be severely dealt with.
"It has been noticed by militia headquarters that commanding officers occasionally make unauthorized purchases with regard to supplies clothing and equipment, etc. In this connection it is published that no authority will be subsequently granted to cover such purchases and the expense involved will have to be borne by the commanding officer who incurred same.

Lieut. Ferrier, 146th Battalion is on the sick list.
Battersea has been opened as recruiting depot for the 146th Battalion.
Major Gray, 146th Battalion is on sick leave.

Great interest is being taken by the women population of the city in the meeting advertised to be held on Sunday afternoon next in the Opera House. Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, the well known Toronto speaker, will give an address.

Major J. Hamilton, A. D. of S. and T., who is recruiting master bakers for the front, is receiving large numbers of applications.

The following have been taken on the list of the 146th Battalion: T. Ciroux, Thomas Fellows, R. H. Johnson, F. H. H. Moss, F. H. Austin, A. H. Butlin, George A. Marshall, C. N. Bolton, S. D. King, J. J. Garrison, F. Hughes, Ray Woods, Fred. Knight.

The dodger system has been adopted by Lieut. Col. C. A. Low, O.C., 146th Battalion, to stimulate interest in recruiting. Arrangements are being made so that people returning the full set of twenty-one appeals which will appear every day for that number of days will receive with the compliments of the 146th Battalion a copy of the last picture taken of Capt. George T. Richardson. In an interview Col. Low said that the content proportionately had done their share and something had to be done to arouse interest in the work in Kingston.

Major H. R. Wilson, D.A.A., and Q.M.G., is in Ottawa.

In the World of Sport

Already New York is doing it out that Willard has amassed close to a quarter of a million dollars in a year of championship.

The Hamilton Baseball League Club is $6,000 in the hole, but at a meeting last night the club decided to go ahead the coming season.

Flight's Fancy, the filly purchased by Sir John Hendrie for $1,500 at New Orleans Saturday, died Sunday of acute colic.

The Philadelphia Nationals' chances for the 1916 pennant were immeasurably improved when they signed Josh Devore. Devore is one player who has developed the world's series into a habit.

The baseball fraternity sent hearty congratulations to Honus Wagner on his 42nd birthday. The pitcher's only regret is that it is not his 32nd birthday.

Boxing Commission has decided that a displacement of 175 pounds constitutes a heavyweight craft, which ruling makes Jess Willard a titilla, says the Toronto Star.

According to President Lester Patrick of the Pacific Coast League, there will be no professional hockey in Victoria next year.

The Monarch players of Winnipeg will ask for no motorcycles this year, now that they have lost the Allan Cup to the 61st Battalion.

George Davis, the Harvard strong man, will be with the Boston Braves again this season in the capacity of pitcher. Davis has a wicked splitter and with experience is going to make one of the best hurlers in the league.

The presence of a dozen or more women at Jess Willard's training quarters at the Pioneer A. C. New York, has caused Willard to set aside every Friday afternoon as "ladies' day" at this camp.

The attendance at the Aura Lee-Bellefleur junior semi-final game at Belleville on Monday night was the largest for three years in that city at either intermediate or junior games. Here is a good place for recruiting officers.

The inquiry into racing at New Orleans with a view to securing an indictment has been completed. D. O'Malley, a publisher of a New Orleans paper, is the leading spirit against racing.

King George's horse, Anmer, a contestant in the 1913 Derby, when a suffragette fanatic ran out on the track in an effort to throw the horse, is reported sold to a Canadian owner.

Honors were almost even in the twelve-round bout between Matt Wells, lightweight champion of England, and Johnny Griffiths of Akron, Ohio; at Columbus. Neither had a decided advantage, but newspaper men gave Griffiths a shade.

In order to guard against violations of the $3,500 monthly salary limit adopted for the coming season by the International League, the contracts of all the players will be sent out by President Barrow.

A manifest of the tickets for the Willard-Moran match shows that 13,000 have been printed. Twelve thousand are for seats showing in price from $3 to $25, while the remainder are for standing room.

Captain C. S. (Con) Riley, the well-known Winnipeg carman, will command the 59th Field Artillery, which has just been authorized, and which is to be raised in Winnipeg.

The Wisconsin State Boxing Commission has ruled that Batting Nelson was "too far gone" to box Ad Wolgast to whom he lost the lightweight championship. They had been matched to box here April 12th.

Manager Joe Birmingham is building up a ball team fast for Toronto. He confirmed the securing of Becker from the New York Giants, and also of Secondbaseman Truesdale from the New York Americans. Taylor, an outfielder of the New York Americans, is the latest recruit. He was with Columbia, S. C., and Jersey City last year and hit .339. He is a left hand batter. Pitcher Fred Herbert arrived yesterday to discuss the outlook. Layden of Jersey City, an outfielder who hit .380 last season, has also been added to the roster.

The team will report at Jersey City for spring training April 3rd.

and have already secured dates as follows:
Boston Americans, April 9th.
New York Americans, April 16th.
New York Giants, April 23rd.

The N.H.A. standing is as follows:

Ottawa Citizen: Montreal papers are still swinging the hammer on Canada's own national winter pastime. Every little mix-up is elaborated as a "free for all," every unexpected incident is "helping to disgust spectators and kill the game." Help! That's the greatest advertising the N. H. A. could receive. Records show that people like the rough and tumble variety—at least once in a while.

There have been four overtime games in the N. H. A. this year, and Quebec have figured in every one of them. They played both Canadians and Toronto twenty minutes overtime to a tie score at Quebec, while they won at Quebec from Toronto in seventeen minutes overtime, and lost to Canadiens at Montreal Saturday night in a game which only went fifteen seconds overtime.

Attention was again called at the recent show of the Westminster Kennel Club in New York to the absence of the noble Newfoundland. There's a reason for everything, but that the Newfoundland should be threatened with extinction and certain sniveling, yapping breeds and fawn in provocations of considerable doubt on that point.

The Vancouver News-Advertiser says: "It is very uncertain that any Stanley Cup series will take place, and the cup is likely to be returned to the trustees. The expenses of a trip to the east amount to some $2,500, and Portland will be required to finance such a trip itself. Manager Edward Savage wants to see where the expenditure is going to come back to him, and has not yet been able to figure it out. The coast directors are likely to get together in Seattle soon and will then definitely decide whether or not the cup will be defended by Portland."
