HOW TO GET STRONG.

A Simple Remedy.

Whatever the cause, we want to say to every person who needs strength, you need Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, as it is the most efficient strength creator we have in our store. Here is proof from Dorchester, Mass. — "I don't know what we would do without Vinol in our family. I was weak, nervous and run-down as the result of an operation, and Vinol restored my strength. Then Grandmother had a nervous breakdown, and Vinol built her up and restored her health and strength after everything else had failed. We have used Vinol for 13 years in our family, and would not be without it in the house." Myrtle L. Healy, Dorchester, Mass.

We believe in Vinol because we know it is a great strength creator,—due to the extractive medicinal elements of fresh cod livers, without oil, combined with peptone of iron and beef peptone, all dissolved in a pure medicinal wine, so we always return the purchase money if Vinol fails to benefit those who buy it. Geo. W. Mahood, Druggist, Kingston, Ont.

A. Bunt performed the ceremony. The bride was attired in a white corduroy suit with white fur trimmings and hat to match. The couple were unattended. Mrs. Bunt and Mrs. Joseph Wise acted as witnesses. A unique feature of the event was that the witnesses wore their wedding gowns, the former having been married last year, while the latter was married in 1912. Mr. and Mrs. Wise left amid showers of rice for Madoc. Upon their return they will take up residence at the groom's home. A number of the old neighbors are leaving us and going to the "golden west." LOOKING FOR WORK

Everywhere men complain about work; even boys and girls in school or business find work tedious and irksome, but it isn't the work half so much as their own lack of physical strength that makes it hard. Rich blood, strong lungs and healthy digestion make work pleasurable in business, in school or even housework, and if those who are easily tired—who are not sick, but weak and nervous—would just take Scott's Emulsion for one month and let its pure concentrated food create richer blood to pulsate through every artery and vein—let it build a structure of healthy tissue and give you vigorous strength—you would find work easy and would look for more. Insist on Scott's. Scott & Bowne, Toronto, Ont. IP-35

FUNERAL ON THURSDAY

REMAINS OF MISS EDITH WALLIS LAID AWAY.

She Was a Splendid Woman Whose Loss Will Be Keenly Felt—Devoted to Her Master's Cause.

Although the weather was inclement on Thursday afternoon friends gathered from far and near at Lansdowne to pay their last respects to the remains of Miss Edith Wallis, killed in the wreck at Kingston on Feb. 25th.

The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian Church, of which the deceased was a devoted and life long member. Only part of those who attended could obtain entry to the church. The services were conducted by Rev. I. N. Beckstedt, assisted by Rev. Dr. Cooper. It is only now, when many personal things are being told that we realize what a loss to the community the death of Miss Wallis will be. Possessed of a quiet, earnest and unselfish disposition, she was ever on the lookout for opportunities to help those who needed it always doing so in an unobtrusive way, saying little but doing much by example, to guide all she could in the right way, as a Sabbath school and public school teacher for many years her influence on the children will undoubtedly bear fruit in the years to come. To her parents and sisters she was more than devoted and their loss is very hard to bear. Her father, W. H. Wallis, who was the G.T.R. agent there for nearly forty years, is highly esteemed and is not in the best of health.

Since coming to Kingston last September to teach, Miss Wallis, usually spent home once a month, and as an illustration of her steadfastness of faith, she always returned on Saturday night, as she would not countenance by her presence, the loss of the train Sunday, by travelling on that day. Moreover, ever since she possessed money one tenth of it was always set aside to the service of her Master. Her parents and three sisters survive. Mrs. Robert Keating, Cascade, Montana; Mrs. James A. Peek, Lansdowne, and Mrs. J. W. Keating, Winnipeg, who came home for the funeral.

Her funeral services were held in the Presbyterian Church on Thursday. Her remains have been received by the family and the floral offerings were exceptionally beautiful, being sent by these: Pillow, Board of Education; Women's Teachers' Institute; Women's Teachers' Association; cross, Robert Meek; sprays, Young Women's Bible class, Cooke's Church, Victoria Guild, Frontenac School, Mr. and Mrs. Lennon, Mr. and Mrs. J. Boaphrey, all of Kingston; cross, Miss Stella Hunt, Rockland, Que.; wreath, Eden Grove School, Moretown, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. D. Kidney, Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. W. Darling, Lansdowne; Endora Sunday School class, Lansdowne; agents and telegraphers, 6 and 7th districts, G. T. R.; Order of Railroad Conductors, G. T. R.; Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen G.T.R., Brockville; sprays, Mrs. E. Pennock, Brockville; Mr. and Mrs. F. Spence, G. L. Booth and family, Brockville; Dr. and Mrs. Hanna Brantford; crescent, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor, Chicago, Ill. Funeral on Thursday.

Hitting the Farmers.

The farmers, whose margin of profit has been greatly reduced by tariff taxation, will not wholly escape the incidence of the proposed income tax which, with the aid of a high tariff, will be shifted largely to their shoulders. They will, however, be compensated to some extent by influential support in resisting, hereafter, parasitism and waste in the public administration. They will probably not escape the attention of the Provincial Ministers of Finance, who also have large bills to meet.

A Serious Question.

In a parish in Wales, where very little English was spoken, a general meeting was held to consider the desirability of putting a chandelier into the schoolroom. Everyone seemed in favor of the idea. "Do you think we ought to have one, Mr. Davis?" said the schoolmaster to a venerable parishioner. "I agree to it," was the reply, "but there is one thing I wish to know. If we have a—"

"Chandelier," said the schoolmaster, helping him out.

"If we have a chandelier," the old man continued, "who's going to play it?"
