AN ASSAULT-AT-ARMS CASES TO BE HEARD

BY FRONTENAC HOCKEY CLUB IN THE CITY HALL.

Recruiting Addresses by Col. Low and Capt. Sutherland—J. H. Cameron, Toronto Entertainer, Took Part in Programme.
 On Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Frontenac Hockey Club a most successful assault-at-arms and smoking concert was given in the Ontario Hall. The programme from first to last was of the highest order. One host followed another, with J. H. Cameron, the well-known entertainer of Toronto, keeping the crowd amused between times. There was a very large crowd present and every person enjoyed the event to the utmost, and also showed by their applause whenever he went on the stage their appreciation of the work of Capt. Sutherland.

Capt. Sutherland, as former manager of the Frontenacs, and now president of the O.H.A. and C.A.H.A., gave a short address of welcome at the opening of the programme. He spoke of the associations of the past between the public and the club and feeling that there was a debt of gratitude on the club's part it was decided to discharge that debt by having an entertainment. He sincerely hoped that all would enjoy the programme.

An event that proved even more interesting than any on the programme was an address by Lieut. Col. Charles A. Low, O. C., 146th Battalion, who near the close was called by the crowd to speak. In opening his address, Col. Low extended his congratulations to the Frontenac club on the evening's entertainment. He was not only a soldier but had got into uniform for another game. He explained that he was trying to get together here a regiment and he was satisfied that if the proposition was laid on the table he could rely on the sportsmen of the city for help. He had figured on a sportsmen's platoon. Before being appointed to his present position Col. Low said that he had felt it a foregone conclusion that he would secure a platoon of sportsmen in the city. The platoon could accommodate fifty-five men from the sporting fraternity.

Capt. Sutherland was called on for an address, following the Colonel, and he gave one of the most intensely interesting and gripping addresses on the subject that has been heard for some time. "No man," he said, "is a squarer or better officer commanding a battalion ever lived than Col. Low," said the captain in opening. He spoke feelingly of the way that "Scotty" Davidson and George Richardson had met their end. He gave the story of "Scotty" being killed in the capture of a machine-gun that was causing great loss among his men. Both deeds were heroic and worthy of official recognition. The athletic events staged were all well contested and though no decision was announced they proved to be good examples from men who knew the game. The events were as follows:

Fencing—Macintosh was defeated by Bews by 5 to 2; McKay was defeated by Bews by 5 to 2.

Boxing—Pete, J. J. and H. Jarvis, 14th Regiment; Pte. Scott, 156th Brockville Battalion and Lieut. Fitzpatrick, P.S.I.; Robinson and White (135 lbs., who won last year's Ontario championship); Lavery and Corpl. Blakey, 146th Battalion; Young and Roach.

J. Bews was timekeeper and J. P. Fleming referee of the boxing bouts. Wrestling—Clark and McClelland, Queen's University; Wrong and Fraser. Matheson refereed the wrestling matches.

The band of the 146th Battalion gave several patriotic selections throughout the evening and added to the programme of what proved to be an excellent programme.

BETTER SYSTEM ASKED FOR SNOW REMOVAL.

There Are Many Citizens Who Refuse to Clean Off Their Walks.

That there should be a proper system in Kingston for the removal of snow from the sidewalks, and that the necessary cost should come out of the general taxes, is the contention of a number of citizens. While the snowfall has not been very heavy, still there has been some, and many citizens have been compelled to walk in snow knee deep on some of the streets. Citizens are called upon to clean off their walk, but there are quite a number who do not put a shovel to their walk from one end of the year to the other. And it is a shame, too. With every citizen doing his "bit" there would be no need of a snow plow. It is interesting to walk down some of the streets in the city and see how some citizens clean off their walks, and how others are satisfied to allow "the beautiful" to pile up. All this week police constables have been engaged in notifying citizens to get busy. Some have complied on the first request. Others have ignored the request. The by-law fixes a police court penalty.

A Pittsburger Married
 A quiet wedding was solemnized at the manse on Wednesday when Lottie May, second daughter of John Gray, Leeds, and John James Milton, only son of Mrs. Annie Milton, Pittsburg, were united in marriage by the Rev. Henry Gracy. The bride wore her travelling suit of navy blue gabardine with smart black hat and black Persian lamb furs, the gift of the groom. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Milton drove to the station for Hamilton and Toronto. On their return they will reside in Pittsburg where the good wishes of a host of friends will follow them.

Kingston People Involved in Action For Fraud—Hinchinbrooke Young Man Faces a Serious Charge.
 The following is the docket of cases entered for trial at the Spring Assizes which commence on Tuesday, 7th of March, with Justice Clute presiding:
 Jury list—Sperry Pradett, plaintiff, and Jean Patterson, defendant. An action for damages for injuries received while in the employment of the defendant.
 Non-jury list—Thomas Hayden, plaintiff, and Richard Thompson, defendant. The plaintiff's claim is for damages for illegal and excessive distress at Gananoque.
 Margaret Richardson, plaintiff, and Annie McAuley and Berr McAuley, defendants. The plaintiff's claim is for $5,000, money obtained from the plaintiff by fraud.
 Criminal calendar—The King vs. Goldie Clark, Hinchinbrooke, indictment for rape.

GIVING POSITIONS

On Street Railway To Soldiers Returned From the War.
 H. C. Nickle, superintendent of the Street Railway Company, believes that men who have gone to the front and have done their "bit," and are sent home to recover from their injuries, should be given the preference when any positions are vacant.

Showing that he means to live up to his belief, he is placing many soldiers in positions on the street railway. During the past few months Mr. Nickle has been somewhat up against it for lack of men on account of so many enlisting for overseas service. When he saw that he could not get enough men he decided to go out to the convalescent homes and ask returned soldiers who wanted positions to come forward. Since he made the announcement quite a number have secured work. In nearly every case the men are making good.

On Thursday a Whig reporter was speaking to a street car conductor who had recently returned from the front. He was a member of the 5th Battalion of the First Canadian Division, and received bullet wounds in the shoulder which forced him to retire from the war game.

CANADA'S CALL.

By Mrs. J. W. Parks.
 Over the snow-covered valleys,
 Under the clear blue sky,
 Travel our brave young soldiers
 Far from their homes to die.
 Though pain and suffering be their lot
 Those boys do not complain.
 And many a dear old mother's boy
 Will never come home again.
 The Finton boys are brave and good,
 Also the Arden band
 Are training for the same good cause,
 To fight for King and Land.

And though your heart is sad some time,
 And bullets round you whirl,
 Just think of crushing down the foe
 And end your country's peril.

Mothers and fathers, you may never
 Press those dear boys' hands again
 For upon the field of battle
 Those brave boys may be slain.

In London and Paris.
 Sidelines on conditions in London and Paris in war time are given in two articles appearing in the March Canadian Magazine—"London Poor in War Time," by Margaret Bell, and "Refugees in Paris," by Mona Clearer. The one describes three phases of life among the poorer classes in London; the other, some of the things that one being done by private persons in to assist refugees arriving at Paris.
