TRAINS ARE RUNNING
PAST THE G. T. R. WRECK BE-LOW RIDEAU STATION.
 The Wrecking Crew Experience a Difficult Task—The Injured Passengers Are All Recovering.
 Although all of the wreckage at the scene of the G. T. R. passenger train run-off Friday morning, below Rideau station, has not been cleared away, trains are running on schedule time. To go past the scene of the wreck, both east and west, trains go for a short distance on the east track. A little time is lost in transferring the trains on to the one track, but the service does not suffer much as a result.
 The men employed by the Grand Trunk Railroad to go from place to place cleaning up wrecks, stated that the mix-up on Friday morning is one of the worst they have had to work at in some time. Although only three cars were thrown into the ditch, the sleepers which left the rails require a lot of work to get them back into place. When the cars left the track they tore holes in the track for a considerable distance, which means that it will be necessary to lay a large number of new ties before the track is in first class condition.

The railroad company has experienced some difficulty in the past at this particular point with the rails spreading. It will be remembered that a freight train left the rails at this particular point on June 3rd, 1915.
 The railroad repair gang worked all day Friday, but up until Saturday morning all the cars were not back on the rails.
 Enquiries at the Hotel Dieu hospital on Saturday, showed that the eight passengers who were injured were improving rapidly.

ADDED MILLIONS TO SCHOOLS Man Who Accomplished This Is Coming to Kingston.
 W. C. Pearce, Chicago, Ill., Adult Division Superintendent of the International Sunday School Association reported in February last time during the past ten years, since the organization of Adult Bible Classes has become popular, two million men and one and a half million women have been added to the Sunday Schools of North America. The result is largely due to the influence of class activity among the organized classes. Mr. Pearce is the first and only international Secretary of the Adult Class movement. He accompanied by Rev. E. W. Halpeny, General Secretary of the Ontario Sunday School Association, expect to attend the annual meeting of the Kingston Sunday School Association, on Friday, March 17th.

THE OFFICERS ELECTED
 At the Annual Meeting of the Conservative Association.
 The annual meeting of the Kingston Conservative Association was held on Friday night in Milo's Hall, and the following officers were elected:
 Honorary presidents, Hon. R. L.
 Borden, Hon. W. H. Hearst, H. W.
 Richardson, John McIntyre, K. C., and Canon Loucks; president, ex-Mayor R. N. F. Macfarlane; first vice-president, Major R. J. Gardiner; second vice-president, John Sowards; third vice-president, George Payne; fourth vice-president, Ald. J. M.
 Hughes; secretary, ex-Mayor F. B.
 Sutherland; treasurer, W. C. Crozier.
 W. F. Nickle, M. P., addressed the members, and the retiring president, Harry Angrove, also gave an address.
 A resolution of appreciation was passed on the work of Col. A. E.
 Ross, M. P. P., now at the front, several of the members paying a warm tribute to Kingston's member in the Legislature. The meeting was well attended.

A resolution similar to the one passed by Ward Six, Toronto, on Thursday night, was moved by John L. Sowards. The resolution was:
 "That if the Government of the Province of Ontario finds it advisable to submit a referendum for the prohibition of the liquor traffic, that the vote on the said referendum be not taken until the war is over and the soldiers return from the front, and that the secretary be instructed to send a copy of this resolution to the Government."
 Mr. Sowards contended that if Dr.
 Ross were home he would oppose any such legislation, but Mr. Nickle, M. P., took the position that the passing of such a resolution would only embarrass the Government, as a referendum was already decided upon.
 Mr. Sowards then withdrew the resolution.

The prohibition programme of Mr.
 Hearst has certainly caused a lot of trouble in the Conservative party.
 Regarding the motion last night, a prominent liquor man stated: "If we had known Mr. Sowards was going to introduce such a resolution we would have been out in force with our friends, and despite Mr. Nickle's efforts to keep peace in the ranks, would have forced a vote, and if we did we would certainly have been prepared to carry it. As the liquor people have very little interest now in the affairs of the Conservative party, there were only two of its members there last night."

SPECIAL PRAYER.
 Was Offered At W. C. T. U. For Specific Purposes
 The monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union this week was one of special prayer for those who are considering the question of prohibition; also for the soldiers on the battlefield in the terrible conflict now raging. Special appeals for their comfort having come to the Union, it was decided to ask each member to contribute fifty cents before April towards the support of the two Y. M. C. A. workers at the front whose salaries are guaranteed by the Provincial W. C. T. U.
 It was suggested that the different missionary and other societies among the women of Kingston churches might be asked to help in providing tea, coffee and hot soup to be given by these workers to the soldiers in the trenches. The president having received a letter from Col.
 Lew inviting our Union to attend the meeting for women in the Grand Opera House on Sunday afternoon.
 She desired as many as could be present. It was also suggested that articles being made for soldiers by our members should have a card attached bearing the good wishes of the W. C. T. U.; that the brave boys at the front would know that we are remembering them and are interested in their comfort.—Com.
