GAVE A FINE CONCERT
ST. JAMES' JUNIOR AUXILIARY RAISED FUNDS

For Missionary Pledges at Entertainment Held on Tuesday Evening—A List of Those Who Took Part.

St. James' Junior Auxiliary gave a missionary and patriotic concert on Tuesday evening to raise funds for their missionary pledges. After the opening hymn and prayer, an interesting programme was rendered.

A talk about the Eskimo was given by seven girls and a piano solo by Miss Sharp, a dialogue, "The Mite Boy," in which Norma Twigg as instructor, had ten tiny tots tell of the use of the missionary mite box; piano solo, Mrs. Joseph Sharp.

The principal feature was a missionary play called "The Open Window," giving a splendid illustration of home and foreign missions. The four girls who took the leading parts were Doris Smith, May Goodenough, Sibyll Purvis, Amy Ada. Great credit is due to Doris Smith, who took a long and difficult part and carried it through splendidly. Girls and boys representing other lands were: India, Patricia Forster, Gladys Hughes, Rhoda Selby; China, Eldred Saunders, Tena Vanluven; modern China, Wilfrid Forster and Albert Caswell; Japan, Annie Twigg, Marion Smith; Africa, Ruth Hughes, Berne Vince, Dorothy Groves; Canada, Norma Twigg, Annie Twigg, Lorette Veal.

Albert Orwell recited "The Kaiser's Nightmare," to the amusement of the audience. Little Isabel Christinas, carrying the Union Jack, sang "Never Let the Old Flag Fall," which was heartily applauded.

An amusing parody on the war was given by Jean Groves, Dorothy Groves, Christine Keeley, Ruth Hughes, Gladys Hughes, Winifred Thompson, Lillie Thurston, Eldred Saunders, Marie Vanluven, Isabel Christinas, Evelyn Gee, Beatrice Thompson.

The concert closed with all the juniors carrying the flags of the Allies and singing: "When the Boys Come Home Again," "Good Luck to the Boys of the Allies," "O Canada" and "God Save the King."

The collection amounted to $10.18. Miss Wilson, superintendent, was assisted by Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Joseph Sharp and Mrs. Christinas.

Returned From England.
 Mrs. Hansford Hora returned on Tuesday afternoon from England where she visited her husband Capt. Hora, paymaster of the 21st Battalion. The captain was in England for two weeks from February 7th.

William L. Horton, one of the most prominent business men in Goderich, is dead, at the age of fifty-six.

HAIR COMING OUT?
 Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After a few applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff.

LIGHTING IS COSTLY
LIFE SAVING NET FOR THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Civic Fire and Light Committee Also to Buy Tarapaulins—Chief Asks for 500 Feet More Hose, and Will Get 250.

The Fire and Light Committee met on Tuesday afternoon and considered its estimates for the year. The general expenditure on the lighting department may be cut down a little as compared to last year, but street lighting is likely to cost $1,085.71 more, if the rates remain the same as last year. It is estimated that the cost will be $21,565. On motion of Ald. Corbett, the committee decided to do in regard to the cost of the "white way." Every dollar of the cost was to be charged against street lighting, when more than it had received the benefit of the placing of the wires in conduits. He could not see much hope for cheaper street lighting if the Commission insisted upon charging the whole cost of the "white way" as suggested.

The cost of the new fire alarm system, Chief Armstrong estimates at $1,627.76. It is thought that the system may pay for itself in three years, and therefore debentures may not be issued for the expenditure. This matter is still under consideration.

Chief Armstrong asked for 500 additional feet of hose, and the Committee decided to give him 250 feet. The Chief reported that there was 4,600 feet of hose on hand, but if a big fire occurred in a block on Princess street this would not be enough to handle the blaze.

The fire department has never had a life net, and the Committee will endeavor to purchase one, if its appropriation is made large enough. It will also supply the department with six tarapaulins to protect goods in case of fire. The Chief asked for twelve. New doors will be placed on the lower fire station, while the upper station will have to get along with the present doors. The Chief recommended the purchase of two new horses, but the Committee decided to trust to the steeds that now draw the fire apparatus.

In attendance at the meeting were Ald. O'Connor (Chairman), Corbett, Nickle and Laturney.

A MAN OF ACTION.
 Col. Ross, C.M.G., is not the Superintendent of the Ontario Hospital at Orpington, Eng. He was the choice of the Ontario Government for this position, but he declined it again and again. The Whig was aware of this fact, having the information from a private and reliable source, but it could not contradict the announcements that he had accepted the appointment as it appeared to come from authoritative sources. Col. Ross has decided to continue in active service at the front, and in a department in which is making a record for himself. As the assistant director of medical supplies he can do a great deal to mollify the suffering and discomforts of the wounded, and he has given to this branch of the service his undivided attention. The story of the war, when it comes to be written, will reveal the particular service to which Col. Ross has devoted himself, and it will show how wise his decision to pursue it has been. We observe that Hon. Col. (Dr.) R. A. Pyne, Minister of Education, was too tired, after his trip across the ocean, to discuss the hospital at Orpington with a Toronto reporter. Col. Dr. Ross has never been known to say that he was too tired to do any service which pertained to his department in the war. He is a worker, not a wall flower.

Wilton, Miss Van Horne, Miss Barrett, the candy table by Miss Buckley, Miss Arnes Stanton, Miss Alice Murry, Miss Veronica Martin. Tea was served by Mrs. Butler, Mrs. James Barrett, Mrs. Sibbitt, Miss Ethel Richey, Miss Lillie Rogers, Miss Irene Stanton, Miss Jessie Seale and Miss Mabel Gillespie. Through the kindness of Prof. Butler, panoramic views of the trenches in Flanders were shown. Some of the surplus food contributions were distributed between the Hotel Dieu and the General Hospital.
