Note The Success Signs

Newspaper advertising shows which way the trade is going. Note the pages of advertising in to-day's Whig and you will see at a glance that the list of merchants, manufacturers, and other advertisers comprise the most progressive and the most successful business and professional men in our community. Advertising and success go hand in hand. You don't see a concern constantly advertising in the newspapers unless it is successful. Also, the houses that make the biggest successes nowadays do so by satisfying and pleasing the public on whom their success is based. And in order to reach the public the most successful business and professional men use newspaper advertising. Each depends upon the other: Good business men and good newspapers, working together, spell success.

PRESBYTERY TALKS UNION

Names Dr. John Neil, Toronto, As Assembly Moderator.

ONLY HALF THE NUMBER OF STUDENTS SEEK MISSION FIELDS THIS YEAR

As Compared to Last Owing to the Fact That the Country Has Called Them to Serve For the Empire Elsewhere.

The members of the Kingston Presbytery had a big grist of business before them, at the March meeting, held in Convocation Hall, on Tuesday, and as a result an adjournment was not reached until 11.15 p. m. Three very busy sessions were held during the day. The question of Church Union was again taken up, and resulted in the passing of the following resolutions, moved by Rev. W. T. Wilkins:

Moved by Rev. W. T. Wilkins, seconded by Rev. Dr. Gracey, that the yeas and nays be taken on the following: "This Presbytery for itself, irrespective of the views expressed by other Presbyterians, and not taking into consideration the replies reported as given by elders, communicants and adherents throughout the church to the question submitted to them, amend church union, express its mind regarding the basis of union and the appendix in law, etc., transmitted as also regarding the resolution passed by the assembly there anent, namely, for approval and non approval:

"In view of the large minority opposed to the proposed union and in view of the large number of ministers, elders, communicants and adherents of the church, who in consequence of their having gone overseas, to serve their King and country, in the terrible conflict now being waged, have been debarred from expressing their minds regarding such proposed union of the churches, this Presbytery does not deem it wise or expedient that the assembly should proceed further at present, toward the consummation of an organic union of congregations, but would most earnestly urge the assembly to take such steps as may be necessary to secure the fullest possible co-operation with such churches to prevent all unnecessary or undue overlapping in supplying ordinances to congregations and mission fields already existing but not self-sustaining, as well as in new mission fields requiring to be opened up, also to secure proper ecclesiastical supervision and needed assistance for such union congregations as during the course of negotiations for a corporate union of the churches have already been formed, as well as for any such congregations as in the immediate future it may be deemed expedient to organize."

The Vote Taken.

The vote on the first resolution stood as follows: Ministers, yeas, 19; nays, 6; elders, yeas, 2; nays, 2.

The second resolution was passed by a vote of 14 to 10.

Following up his resolutions, Rev. Mr. Wilkins said that it would be a wise move to leave the matter with the General Assembly. He favored sending the report of Presbytery as it is at present, without modification.

Prof. Jordan said Presbytery had already voted on the question. A mistake was made in having the vote on in this way. In the face of the present great war, it was a tragedy and a great mistake to send down the remit from Presbytery on the question.

In connection with the question of church union, the Presbytery received an overture from the Presbytery of Winnipeg, in which it was stated:

"The Presbytery of Winnipeg prays the General Assembly at its meeting in 1915 in Winnipeg, where in 1902 the steps towards union were first taken:

"To declare at the coming meeting of the Assembly that the union shall be consummated in June, 1918. To apply without delay, through its union committee, for the passage in 1917 of the necessary legislation in Parliament to enable the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches to unite.

"To suggest to the Methodist and Congregational churches, the advisability (should they be so disposed) of their proceeding with union as soon as possible."

Prof. Jordan gave a report of the special committee re remit on subscription to standards, and submitted a deliverance on the said remit, which was adopted.

Reports Submitted.

Rev. Dr. Gracey, of Gananoque, submitted the report of the Home Missions, which was adopted. He

BRIGHTER CHILDREN

Children are probably brighter to-day than a generation ago—but are they stronger? That's a grave question. So many pinched faces, dulled eyes and languid feeling make us wonder if they will ever grow into robust, healthy men and women.

If your children catch colds easily, are tired when rising, lack healthy color, or find studies difficult, give them Scott's Emulsion for one month to enrich their blood and restore the body-forces to healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion is used in private schools. It is not a "patent medicine"; simply a highly concentrated oil-food, free from harmful drugs. It cannot harm; it improves blood; it benefits lungs and strengthens the system. Your druggist has it—refuse substitutes.

recommended the following grants: Amherst Island, $200; Demorestville, $325; Eldorado, $275.

That Newburgh be reduced to the status of ordained ministry, and that steps be taken to secure a grant for that field as soon as possible; grant, $350.

That a grant of $250 be asked for Glenvale, when that field is filled.

That a grant of $250 be asked for Tamworth, and the congregation be visited to secure a grant of $750 if possible.

That a grant of $100 be asked for Tweed, conditional upon their failure to raise $920.

The treasurer, Prof. J. Matheson, presented a report, which was regarded as most satisfactory, showing a balance of $400. A vote of thanks was tendered Prof. Matheson for his zeal in looking after his duties.

Rev. Dr. Gracey submitted the request of Newburgh, to be given the status of a mission field and placed under the care of H. M. Committee, with a view to the better working of the field. The request was granted.

It was agreed that the special commission appointed to co-operate with representatives of the Exboro circuit, relative to the filling of that charge.

Recruits For Ministry.

Prof. Alexander Laird presented the report on the examination of students. He pointed out that last year, all the members of the senior class numbering eight had made application for trial for license. This year there were eleven in the senior class, and all had made application. They are: Rev. E. Bannerman, R. Bruce, J. M. Laird, O. R. Lavers, J. D. McCrae, J. T. McKay, R. H. McKinnon, J. P. McLeod, S. C. Mitchell, A. B. Morrison and Hugh Shannon.

The following recruits for the ministry asked for home mission work: George E. Kelly, Belleville; H. A. Odessa; G. H. Kirby, Newmarket; C. C. Gilbert, Sherbrooke; A. L. Blacklock, Glenburie. The students were certified by Presbytery.

Prof. Laird pointed out that last year fifty students were certified to for this work. This year about twenty-five offered themselves. The number was exceedingly small, due to the fact that a number of the best students had offered their services for overseas service. It was also reported that several Methodist students were seeking work on mission fields.

The moderator, Rev. A. S. Kerr, gave an excellent report of the Young People's Societies and Sunday School Committee, of which he is convener.

The keynote of the report was an appeal for the young people to become members of the church; to give larger grants to the budget, and religious training in the home. The ideal was a Young People's Society and Sunday School for each congregation.

Rev. Robert Laird and Rev. Dr. Gracey returned thanks to the moderator for his illuminating report.

It was agreed that an examination for the students seeking license be held on the afternoon of April 27th at 2.30 o'clock, in St. Andrew's Hall, and that Presbytery meet at 8 o'clock the same evening to grant the licenses.

The question of establishing a summer school for Sunday school workers and members of Young People's Societies, was left with the committee to consider.

Rev. John Dawson reported on Systematic Giving, and after doing so declared that a great deal better results could be obtained.

Rev. Robert Laird stated that the missionary work in India needed far more men.

Delegates to Assembly.

The following were elected as delegates to the General Assembly, which meets in Winnipeg: Ministers—Rev. C. E. Salisbury, Rev. P. N. Sinclair, Rev. D. E. Foster, Rev. John Dawson, Rev. Dr. MacGillivray, Rev. A. S. Kerr, Prof. Scott.

Elders—Prof. J. Matheson, William McIntosh (Belleville), Prof. A. Laird.

Prof. Matheson was appointed a representative for bills and overtures to be brought before the Assembly by this Presbytery.

Presbytery accepted the invitation of Rev. W. T. Wilkins to hold the

LOSS OF APPETITE

Most Successfully Treated by Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Loss of appetite is accompanied by loss of vitality, which is serious. It is common in the spring because at this time the blood is impure and impoverished and fails to give the digestive organs what is absolutely necessary for the proper performance of their functions.

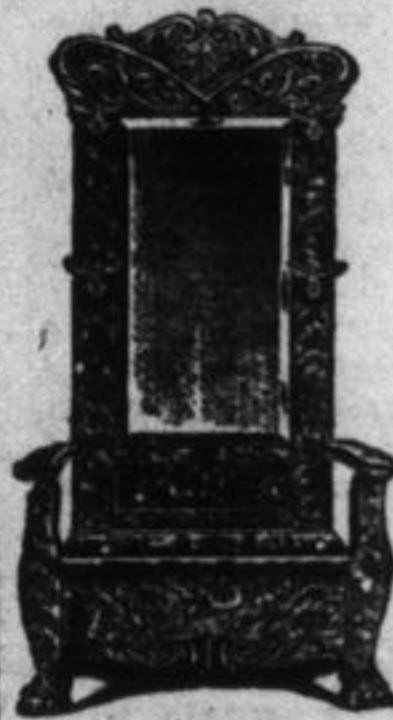

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old reliable all-the-year-round medicine, is especially useful in the spring. Get it from your druggist to-day. By purifying and enriching the blood and giving vitality, vigor and tone, it is wonderfully successful in the treatment of loss of appetite and the other ailments prevalent at this time.

It is not simply a spring medicine—it is much more than that—but it is the best spring medicine. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the rich red blood the digestive organs need.

AN INSURANCE COLLECTOR

Was Taken For the Man Who Reads the Gas Meter.

To be mistaken for a gas meter reader and shown to the cellar was the experience of a local insurance agent on Monday. The agent, a new man at the business, called at a Princess street residence for the purpose of collecting a ten-cent premium on an insurance policy. When he did not state that he was an insurance agent the lady of the house thought he was the man who read the gas meter, so showed him to the cellar. After he had been down there for a few minutes the lady of the house thought that he was unable to find the meter, so went down to show him the location. Upon
