Only About One-eighth of 8th What It Was Two Years Ago.

Ottawa, March 8 .- The big drop In immigration to Canada since the war started is shown in the figures for immigration for 1915 given to the Commons by Hon. Dr. Roche, in answer to a question by E. M. Macdonald (Pictou). The total for the year was only 48,466, as compared with 384,878 for 1913-14 and 402,-432 for 1912-13. The volume of immigration now is only about oneeighth of what it was two years ago. Almost all of the new arrivals of last year were from the United States.
