News of Troops in the City

Another company of soldiers, No. 3 D. A. C., who have been trained in Kingston have left for the front. Their leaving the city was much quieter than usual owing to the fact that there was only about 150 men, and these had come from several parts of Ontario and were not here long enough to get acquainted. A large number of soldiers of other units saw them off, four batteries being at the train. The R. C. H. A. band under Lieut. A. Light played patriotic music.

The 3rd Divisional Ammunition Column was authorized some three months ago to be formed in Ottawa, Kingston and Winnipeg. Kingston was allotted No. 1 Section to be commanded by Capt. G. G. Mills, assisted by Lieuts. H. McB. Hughson and P. H. Chrysler, all of Ottawa. The section has been training hard and when the call came they were more than ready to go. They presented a fine appearance as they marched to the train on the last march through

ON MISSIONARY WORK. Rev. Thomas Joplin Addressed Two

Meetings Wednesday Night. Rev. Thomas Joplin, of the Shantymen's Christian Association, addressed two services on Wednesday night, one at Zion Presbyterian Church, and one at Sydenham Street Methodist Church. At both servces he was listened to with much interest. Many were surprised to hear that 520 miles of country in Ontario had no missionary or minister. W. J. Crothers, A. F. Chown and others promised to help along the work. Mr. Joplin is working hard in the interests of his work, and is taking advantage of every opportunity to present the situation to the people of 20.00 Kingston. He will speak in Queen 10.00 Street Methodist Church Sunday 10.00 night at 7 o'clock, and at 7.30 he will 10.00 give an address in Bethel Church. He will also address one of the local 10.00 Sunday schools in the afternoon. and another church in the evening. Citizens who can should give their 6.00 support to this most worthy cause. Letters for Mr. Joplin should be left 5.00 at the Y. M. C. A. or 269 Brock
