

A scene in Queretaro, in northern Mexico, which has been selected by General Carranza as the new seat of Government.

Frederico Alfonso Peset, Peruvian Minister to the United States, who has been recalled from Washington by his Government because of financial difficulties in the South African Republic. He is the last of Peru's diplomats to be recalled in the interest of economy.

Subterranean passage in the Allied trenches, the only safe place on the battlefield when the shells are falling both night and day into the trenches.

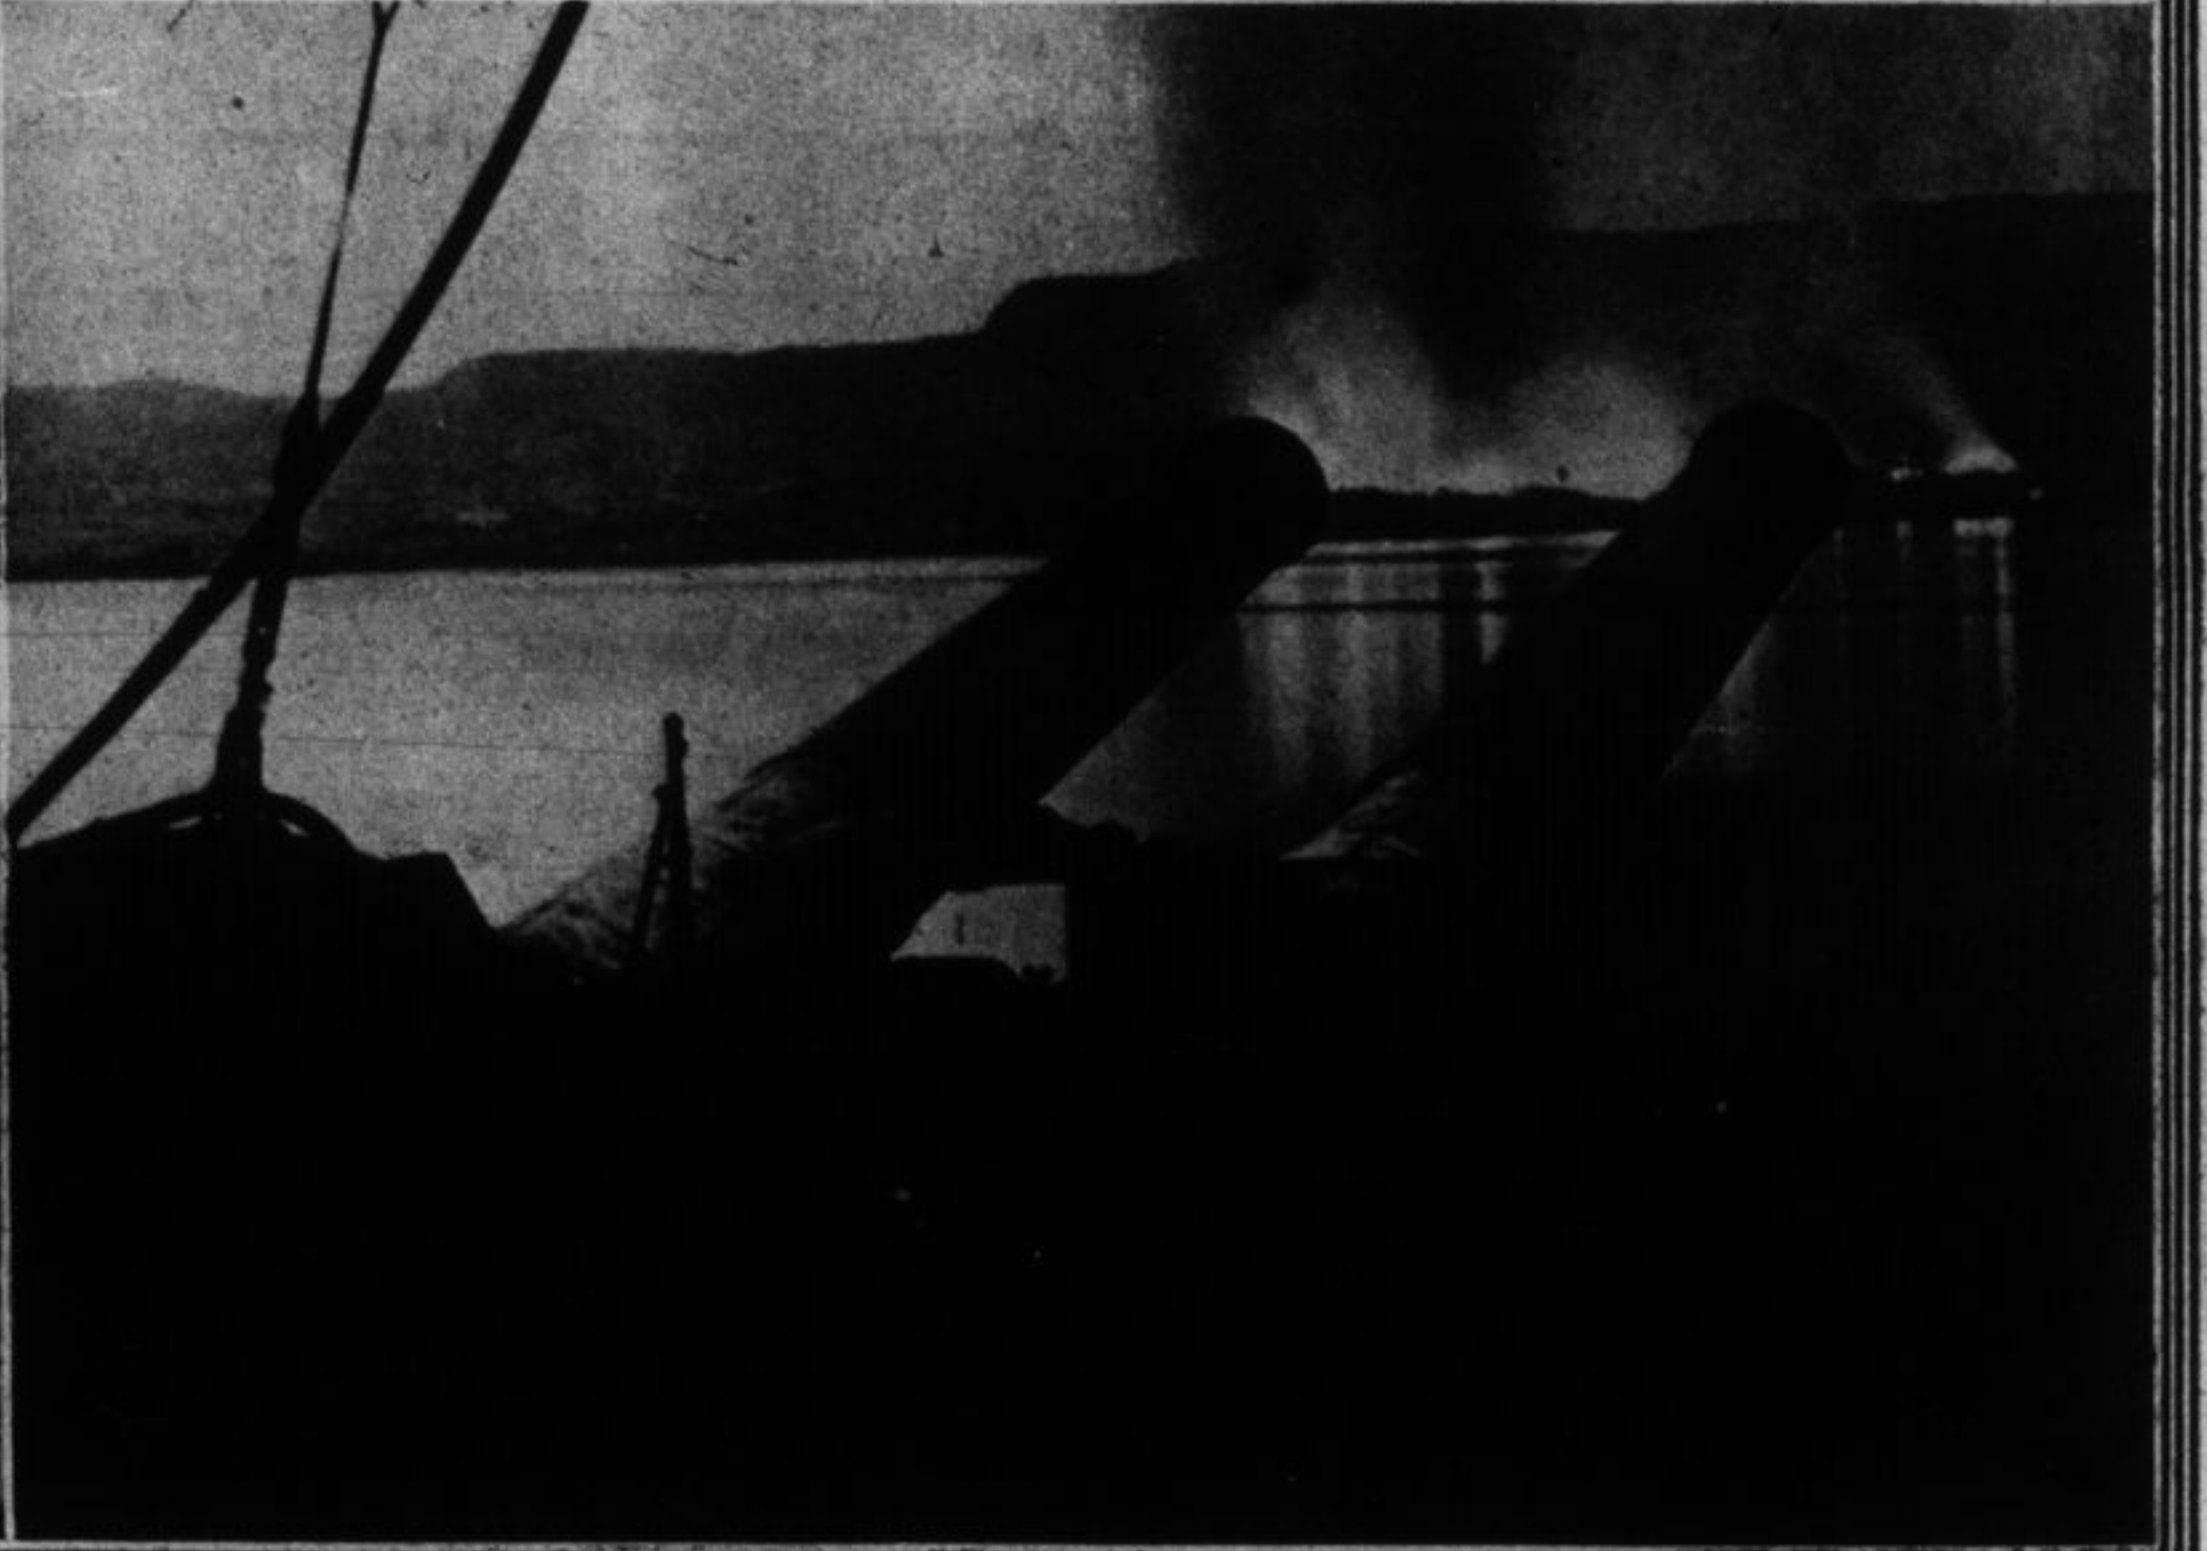

Portland, Ore., is already preparing for the opening of the Rose Festival, June 7, which Slavka Tomitch, a Serbian girl of eighteen, who has date will also witness the dedication of the famous Columbia River highway. For miles for two years been a soldier in the Serbian army, this highway hangs to precipitous cliffs of the gorge opening up on one of the grandest views of its kind in the world. The cost averaged $50,000 per mile for the first 40 miles. and now holds the rank of sergeant.

KAISER'S YOUNGEST SON IN PRUSSIAN MILITARY MOTOR SLEIGH. Prince Joachim (on left) in an aerial-propelled motor-sled in Poland.

French wounded cavalryman being brought down to the pier to embark on a hospital ship. This man was on shore but a few minutes when the fragments of a bursting shell struck him in the face.

OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPH OF THE EVACUATION OF SULYA. Stores, etc., burning. They were destroyed to prevent their being taken by the Turks. Photo taken from the H.M.S. Cornwallis, the last ship to sail from the Dardanelles.

FRANCE SUPPLIES HER PRISONERS IN GERMANY WITH EDIBLE BREAD! Due to the number of letters received by the friends of the French soldiers in the German prison camps, complaining of the food given them, the bakers of France have devised a method of making bread which will keep fresh for at least three weeks.

CUTTING BARB-WIRE ENTANGLEMENTS—A DANGEROUS BUSINESS! Showing the method employed by an infantryman of the Austrian-Hungarian troops operating along the Galician front. With a shield of metal but large enough to cover him, he wriggles forward to the trench of the enemy and proceeds to work with the pliers.