

It will be to any man's advantage to be on very intimate terms with this House of Good Clothes.

Spring Garments are ready.

Spring Suits ..... $15, $18 up to $22
Spring Overcoats ..... $12, $15 up to $20

Livingston's, Brock St.

A little out of the way, but it will pay you to walk

OBITUARY

The Late Allan H. Rae.
Allan H. Rae, a native of Kingston, died at Glenora Saturday night. He was a member of the 135th Battalion, a South African veteran and a most capable soldier. The body was brought to Kingston for interment Monday.

The Late Samuel Ely.
On Sunday evening at 9.30 o'clock the death occurred at the home of his son-in-law, R. E. Aiken, 145 Collingwood street, of Samuel Ely, aged 84 years. The deceased was born in Cataragi, but had spent his later years visiting his sons and daughters. For the past few years he had resided at the home of Mr. Aiken. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Ely of Cataragi; four sons, W. H. Ely, Chicago; F. A. Ely, Battle Creek, Mich.; Dr. E. M. Ely, Ottawa; E. F. Ely, Toronto, and three daughters, Mrs. R. E. Aiken, Kingston; Mrs. J. G. Dunlop, Japan, and Mrs. T. H. Miller, Alberta.

The Late Mrs. John Bushell.
Another old and respected resident in the person of Mrs. John Bushell, widow of the late Capt. John Bushell, passed away on Saturday. Capt. Bushell died six years ago. Mrs. Bushell's maiden name was Catherine Shaw. She was born in Gerten County, Longford, Ireland, ninety-one years ago and came to this country in 1847, and resided here ever since, with the exception of a few years spent at Queenstown. She was a gentle and loving mother. Surviving are one son, William John Bushell; two nieces, Mrs. John Smith, University Avenue, and Mrs. George Hubbell, of Arnprior; and two nephews, Dr. G. H. Bower, Minden, and William Adams. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon at St. George's Cathedral and Cataragi Cemetery.

Mrs. Phoebe Salisbury.
Mrs. Phoebe Salisbury, an old resident of Kingston, who held the love and esteem of her many acquaintances, died on Saturday afternoon at her home, where she was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Grenner. Deceased was the widow of the late James Salisbury, a veteran of the Crimean war.

The late Mrs. Salisbury was born in Trewbridge, Eng., in 1843, and had been a resident of Kingston and Kingston for the past forty-five years, and of late years had been residing with her son, Sydney Salisbury, 16 Cherry street. She leaves a family of four sons and four daughters: Herbert, Vancouver, B. C.; Frank, William and Sydney, Kingston; Miss Annie and Mrs. St. Clair, Utica, N. Y.; Mrs. Robert Grenner, Burris, and Mrs. N. Stanton, Barrie. The remains will be brought to Kingston for interment.

The Late Mrs. James Nobes.
The funeral of the late Minnie Ashie, wife of James Nobes, took place Saturday morning from the residence of her brother-in-law, R. Knight, 43 Lower Bagot street, to St. Mary's Cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass was sung for the repose of her soul by Father Piche. The pallbearers were C. Donoghue, R. Knight, G. Ashie, S. Nobes, C. Harrison and W. Ashie. The deceased was born on Garden Island, but for the last eleven months, since her marriage, had been residing at Gananoque. The survivors are her father, Capt. Joseph Ashie, city; four sisters, Mrs. R. Knight, Mrs. Charles Harrison and Mrs. C. Donoghue, Kingston; and Miss Evelyn, Gananoque; and four brothers, William, Kingston; Sanford, Cornwall; John, Cleveland, and George, with the C. N. R. Hamilton.

Many floral offerings testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held by a large circle of friends. Among them were: Cross, R. Knight and family; sprays, Mr. and Mrs. C. Donoghue, Mr. and Mrs. S. Nobes, Mr. and Mrs. R. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Gratton, M. and Mrs. W. Ashie, Dorothy and Ralph Hopkins; wreath, Gananoque Fire Department; sprays, Miss Myrtle Leaden, Agnes and Margaret Guirey, Mr. and Mrs. M. Muchmore, Mrs. Charles Harrison, James Parsons, sr. (Ottawa), Mrs. James Parsons (Ottawa), Mrs. James Parsons, jr., the Rockwood Magazine Guard, Ottawa.

News of Troops in the City
(See also page 3.)

Capt. Steacy of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery has been given charge of the Toronto artillery recruiting depot. The actual recruiting will be in charge of Lieut. McCormack. About 1,700 recruits have been sent from the Toronto recruiting depot to the artillery at Kingston.

Alan Munro, who went overseas with the Engineers from Kingston, has been wounded, but not seriously.

Lieut. Finney has been promoted to the rank of captain and is now in command of the 2nd Battery Reserve Brigade, Shorncliffe, Eng. Lieut. Finney formerly belonged to the R. C.H.A.

The Military Y.M.C.A. has arranged for an entertainment in the Brock Street Club room for soldiers on Tuesday night.

A brigade ammunition column, of 140 men, has been authorized for Kingston.

THEATRICAL NEWS

To-night "The Birth Of a Nation." "The Birth of a Nation," bringing forward David W. Griffith's new art of musical spectacle, is the attraction at the Grand to-night and Tuesday matinee and night. The first half of the great picture exhibition, the salient events of the Civil War, which came to a close at Appomattox just fifty years ago. Lincoln's call for troops, Sherman's march, the battle of Petersburg, Lee's surrender to Grant and the awful tragedy at Ford's Theatre live before the spectators of the Griffith drama. In the second half the South's "Second uprising" this time against the carpeting regime, is shown in a thrilling story of Reconstruction days. The romance of the "little Confederate Colonel" Ben Cameron, with the Northerner Elsie Stoneman, and that of the Unionist Captain, Phil Stone, with the Southerner Cameron, the South Carolina lassie, maintain two threads of continuous love-interest throughout the story. The fun and frolic of plantation days, as well as the heart-ache and pathos of the stricken south, are shown.

No better comedy has ever been seen at the Grand than "Quinney's" or "The Antique Shop," which was produced on Saturday afternoon and evening by a splendid company. This production is from the Haymarket Theatre, London. Clifford Brooke as "Joseph Quinney" was simply immense. The role of "Susan His Wife" was delightfully portrayed by Lucy Beaumont, while Arthur Greenville as "Sam Tomlin" was perfection itself as Quinney's unscrupulous brother-in-law. There were a number of other members of the company were all good. The settings were admirable.

New Policy At Strand.
The management of this popular theatre begs to announce the inauguration to-night, of their new policy—two shows daily instead of four. The matinees commencing at 2.30 and the evening shows at 7.30. They further announce the coming to-night, Tuesday and Wednesday of Triangle plays produced by D. W. Griffith, producer of "The Birth of a Nation" and introducing to Kingstonsians the famous Broadway star Douglas Fairbanks in "The Lamb" a five-act wonder play, and also that well known comedian Raymond Hitchcock, assisted by those well known comedians, Mack Sennett, Mabel Normand, and "Fatty" (Roscoe Arbuckle) in a three-reel Keystone mirth provoker entitled "My Valet." Other good photo plays will also be shown providing a full two and half hours entertainment.

One of the latest Hope-Jones unit orchestra consisting of twenty-five piece orchestra and pipe organ costing $5,000 has also been installed and will furnish the patrons with the latest and most appropriate music. In future all seats will be reserved at ten cents with a few at fifteen; reserved at the box office daily from 2 to 10 p. m. Phone 195.

The Campbells Are Coming.
Interest is at fever heat in the forthcoming engagement of the great war film, "The Campbells Are Coming," a story of the relief of Lucknow, or the Indian Mutiny of 1857, the story which has been produced on a lavish scale, and with wonderful attention to the smallest detail, and has been viewed and commended by General Sir Sam Hughes and the leading military authorities of Canada. This wonderful war film drama which is in five reels, will be shown at Griffith's Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, matinee and night, and all through the five reels English guns crash out their salvos of death, great mortars spout out their death dealing tons of iron, and steel and rifles spar death over the hill-sides. Charges and counter charges are depicted, while close-ups, taken with telephoto lens, shows the terrible destruction of the guns. Cavalry and infantry defile along the crests of the hills, capturing entrenched enemies filled with white turbaned natives in one valley, and destroy a native village over the crest of the next hill. Settlers' cabins, officers' bungalows, and native villages are burned wholesale. Sepoys are shot as they snipe from the fort walls and come tumbling a hundred feet to the ground. Officers and cavalrmen are seen fighting over the red hot mouths of cannons and pinion the gunners to earth with their sabres. Many other stirring scenes are shown in this magnificent film in which are depicted with great fidelity, those terrible days of the Indian Mutiny, when British blood was spilled in heroic defence and noble attack.

$10,000 For a Suggestion.
You have original ideas, haven't you? Then you have a chance to earn this prize. All you have to do is to follow closely the film version and read the story, then send in your conception of the most fitting sequel. Your suggestion may be written something after this style: "The Diamond from the Sky," now being in the possession of the false heir to the Earldom of Staneley, it is my suggestion that, etc., etc. A new chapter entitled "For the Sake of a False Friend" together with a miscellaneous programme of comedy, to-night and Tuesday at the King Edward. Usual admission.

Notice.
J. McAuley, undertaker, Kingston, has purchased a new outfit, made by A. B. Greer, of London, Ont., and will be ready to do business to-morrow. The reports that he has gone out of business are unfounded.

As a result of the mild spell, there is great danger from overhanging ice and snow from the roofs of buildings. The police were quite active in getting the merchants to clear off the snow and ice. Cucumber and Almond Cream for chapped hands at Gibson's Drug Store.

New Suits for Women

OVER 100 NEW SPRING SUITS, MANY DISTINCTIVE MODELS—ALL OF THEM SPELL "SMARTNESS."

$15 To $35

SPRING SUITS FOR YOUNG GIRLS
SPRING SUITS FOR MEDIUM FIGURES.
SPRING SUITS FOR FULL FIGURES

And an assortment of extra large sized suits in styles suited for the larger woman.

Skirts for Every Occasion

With the new styles more and more prominence is given to the separate Skirt. Particularly clever models will be found at Laidlaw's.

Skirts of Navy or Black Serge, in various smart styles, ranging in price from ..... $4.50, $5.00 and up
Black and White All-Wool Checked Skirts, cut on circular lines with pocket—a strictly tailored skirt, at ..... $5.50
Skirt of Black Taffeta Silk, made with pointed accordian pleated peplum effect—very smart ..... $9.50
In another Skirt, also of Black Taffeta Silk, fullness is accomplished by fine shirring at the hips, above which is a yoke of accordian-pleating, high waist line effect, at ..... $7.75
A number of other new designs just arrived and we ask you to see these to-morrow.

A Big Variety of the Newest Styles in

Women's Spring Coats

Including Sports or Dressy Wear Coats for Spring, showing belts, vokes, and full ripple; many new collars, as sailor, shawl, chin-chin and tailored styles.
All wool materials of men's wear Serge, Gaberdine and Spring Cheviots.

April Delineator

This is the great spring number and the new styles shown will greatly interest you. Call for your copy to-morrow.

John Laidlaw & Son

The New High Cut Shoes Now Ready!

We are now showing a very complete assortment of Women's High Cut Shoes, in button and lace, patent leather, with black velvet tops, also blue velvet tops and dull kid tops. Price ..... $5.00

The Lockett Shoe Store