

TOLD IN THE TWILIGHT --- IN THE REALM OF WOMAN

(Continued from page 7.) The closing tea of the Ladies' Curling Club was held on Wednesday, when the presentation of prizes for the year took place.

Lieut.-Col. Belton who was in town for a few days returned to Ottawa on Tuesday.

Mrs. Arthur Lingham and her baby, Montreal are visiting Mrs. R. H. Toye, Gore street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cunningham and Master Paul who have been spending some time with Mrs. R. C. Carter, West street, left this week for their home in Red Deer, Alta.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien de Bury, Montreal, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James MacFarland returned home this week.

Lieut. Hugo Rathbun has returned to town after spending a few days in Belleville.

Mrs. John L. Whiting, Clergy street, returned home from St. John and Montreal on Thursday.

Mrs. Herbert Dawson and Miss

Easy Way to Remove Freckles and Eruptions

Some women have skin of such texture they occasionally are annoyed by the sudden appearance of freckles, slight eruptions or fine lines.

In case of wrinkles which sink beneath the outer skin, a solution of powdered borax dissolved in 1/2 pt. of water makes a face bath which is wonderfully effective.

Grind some soup meat in the chopper, and to two cups of meat add two beaten eggs, one ground biscuit, or the same bulk of cracker crumbs or stale bread.

Some of the new blouses have peplums worn over the skirt, to give the popular flare at the hips.

Steel buttons for trimmings are used on blouses.

Narrow ruchings of fine side-plaited muslin are used to edge collar, cuffs, and fronts of some new striped handkerchief linen blouses.

Satin-covered buttons and satin-tipped buttonholes are also used in these new chiffon blouses.

Big artificial pansies are especially effective on evening gowns of blue, violet or low.

Hemstitching is another good trimming for chiffon blouses.

Pale mauve and pale pink are charmingly combined in some of the new chiffon and crepe underwear.

Shower bouquets of ribbon, roses with many ends, like the ends of ribbon falling from a bride's bouquet, are used to trim some of the new negligees.

Checks, which made their appearance in suit fabrics last autumn, are much in vogue in early spring suits.

Height in hats, a desirable feature, is often achieved by the use of a huge, stiff ribbon bow.

A cape of tulle that envelops chin and ears and drops over the shoulders is a feature of some afternoon models.

FLOWERS FIGURE IN THE SPRING FASHIONS.

Not Only in Clothing, but Also in House Furnishings, They Appear.

This is a flowered spring. Spring ought to be surrounded, imbedded, saturated with flowers. Flowers and spring and happiness go together.

We don't want to be saddened by the war. We don't want our clothes to reflect the war. We are ready and willing to economize, our pocket-books are open to all calls made upon them for the relief of suffering.

So we are thankful for flowery fashions. Chiffon roses are sold by the yard for trimming negligees, lingerie and evening frocks more than ever before.

Hats, Veils, Stockings, Etc. Spring hats are covered with flowers. One type, a straw-rimmed toque, with crown composed of puffs of tulle, with flowers springing up between, looks as if it were a basket of real flowers.

New parasols of silk show a border of artificial flowers. One is a bright green parasol, and at its very edge is a wreath of tiny pink roses and green leaves.

New veils of lace show an all-over design of flowers. Silk stockings are decorated with tiny conventionalized flowers in embroidery.

Flowered voiles are in vogue for summer afternoon frocks. Our walls are papered with flowered papers, unless plain or striped effects are used. On our bedrooms we have papers with light grounds and flowers sprinkled naturally over their surface.

Then we have flowered chintz for hangings in our bedrooms, our parlors and our living rooms, too, sometimes.

We have flowered furniture. Have you seen the gray or white enameled furniture with panels of flowered chintz under glass? And, of course, you have seen the enameled furniture with flowery designs painted on its surface.

There are all sorts of flower ornaments for hats, besides just plain artificial flowers. There are flowers made of raffia. There are hats with beads or artificial flowers. There are bead flowers.

Flowers too, are sometimes woven into a bandeau to place about the forehead and hair. Colored flowers are embroidered on our handkerchiefs.

Yes, this is a flowered spring and everybody is glad of it. New Decrees of Fashion Experts. Suits of silk for afternoon are to be much worn this spring.

Blouses of silk veiled with tulle or chiffon in black or navy blue are a novelty devised by Georgette to wear with afternoon suits.

Fruits are used on spring hats. They are in low relief, go to speak, usually made of velvet, and their colors are very effective on dark blue, brown or black hats.

Many are the petticoats that are designed to wear under the fashionable full skirt of the day. There is a net foundation, with several hoops of whalebone. One is a heavily corded silk petticoat. Another shows many small, stiff ruffles to give the desired support.

Embroidered scallops are known on some of the new blouses, edging cuffs, collars and other trimmings.

Some of the new blouses have peplums worn over the skirt, to give the popular flare at the hips.

Steel buttons for trimmings are used on blouses. Narrow ruchings of fine side-plaited muslin are used to edge collar, cuffs, and fronts of some new striped handkerchief linen blouses.

Satin-covered buttons and satin-tipped buttonholes are also used in these new chiffon blouses.

Sleepytime Tales

POLLY AND THE AUTOMOBILE

Once upon a time a parrot lived near where a great many automobiles passed every day. In the summer, when the windows were open, it would hear the "chug, chug" a long way off and it had learned to call out: "Here they come, here they come" so plainly that everyone knew when a car was to pass the house.

The parrot had also heard the "honk, honk" of the horns and had learned to imitate it so well that people were often fooled by the parrot's imitation. Polly was very time and was allowed to go all over the house, but one day the front door was left open and out Polly walked and into the middle of the street.

She hopped along, looking first to her left and then the other, and it was the first time she had ever been out alone. Just then an auto came in sight and Polly knew at once that if she made a "honk, honk," the car driver would know that danger threatened and would stop and perhaps she would get a ride. So she let out a "honk, honk" so loud that the driver became confused and instead of stopping the car, he went ahead faster and poor Polly was thrown into a snow bank at the side of the road.

Polly picked herself up, smoothed her ruffled feathers and with an angry: "Here they come," ran home as fast as she could to her mistress. Her mistress was at the door trying to see where Polly had gone and was just in time to see the auto pass her. She was so very small, however, that the car did not hit her hard and she was more angry than hurt.

Polly has never been heard to "honk, honk" since nor will she ever go outside the door and when she hears an auto horn she shuts her eyes and yells: "Here they come, here they come, look out, look out," isn't she a wise bird?

"Low Cost of Living" Menu

Menu for Sunday BREAKFAST Bananas Baked Sausage Baked Potatoes Corn Bread Coffee DINNER Mushroom Soup Roast Beef, Yorkshire Muffins Baked Sweet Potatoes String Beans Stuffed Apple Salad Madeira Pudding SUPPER Codfish Wiggle Peach Sauce Date Cake Cranberry Punch

BREAKFAST Spider Corn Bread—Cream two eggs with two tablespoons of sugar. Add two cups of milk, a cup and a half of cornmeal and a quarter of a cup of milk. Do not stir. Bake half an hour. When done it should be like custard in top.

DINNER Mushroom Soup—Boil three cups of milk with one cup of water and thicken with a tablespoon of flour.

Menu for Monday BREAKFAST Turkish Perlin Toasted Crackers Pear Sauce Chocolate Cookies Tea LUNCHEON Clear Soup Reheated Roast Beef with Horseradish Sauce Glazed Sweet Potatoes Corn Pudding Radish Salad Peanut Dumplings

BREAKFAST Erain Popovers—Mix one egg, one cup of milk, one cup of bran, and half a cup of flour. Bake in a moderate oven twenty minutes.

LUNCHEON Chocolate Cookies—Cream half a cup of butter with a cup of sugar, one beaten egg, a quarter of a cup of or-chiffon in black or navy blue are a novelty devised by Georgette to wear with afternoon suits.

Fruits are used on spring hats. They are in low relief, go to speak, usually made of velvet, and their colors are very effective on dark blue, brown or black hats.

Many are the petticoats that are designed to wear under the fashionable full skirt of the day. There is a net foundation, with several hoops of whalebone. One is a heavily corded silk petticoat. Another shows many small, stiff ruffles to give the desired support.

Embroidered scallops are known on some of the new blouses, edging cuffs, collars and other trimmings.

Some of the new blouses have peplums worn over the skirt, to give the popular flare at the hips.

Steel buttons for trimmings are used on blouses. Narrow ruchings of fine side-plaited muslin are used to edge collar, cuffs, and fronts of some new striped handkerchief linen blouses.

Satin-covered buttons and satin-tipped buttonholes are also used in these new chiffon blouses.

Big artificial pansies are especially effective on evening gowns of blue, violet or low.

Add half a can of chopped mushrooms and boil one minute longer.

Yorkshire Muffins—Mix two cups of flour with three eggs and a cup and three quarters of milk. Half an hour before the roast is done turn into the pan with it and bake.

Stuffed Apple Salad—Pare and core the apples, cut in thick slices and fill with chopped dates and nuts. Madeira Pudding—Chop fine half a pound of suet, mix with two cups of bread crumbs, half a cup of sugar, the same of flour, two eggs, and two glasses of sherry. Boil hard four hours and serve with a sauce made by blending equal parts of butter and sugar adding a little sherry.

SUPPER Codfish Wiggle—Freshen a cup of fish and boil one minute. Add two cups of milk, a tablespoon of butter and the same of flour. Boil one minute, add half a can of peas and let all cook to a boil.

Cranberry Punch—Boil two cups of cranberries and a cup of water for ten minutes. Strain and, while hot, add one and a quarter cups of sugar and the juice of one lemon. When ready to use dilute with shaved ice and water.

Glazed Sweet Potatoes—Boil ten minutes and cut in quarters. Boil one cup of sugar and half a cup of water until thick and pour over the potatoes. Place in a baking dish and bake, basting often with the syrup.

Horseshoe Sauce—Beat enough cream to make one cup, add a tablespoon of grated horseradish and a teaspoon of lemon juice.

Corn Pudding—Chop a can of corn add two eggs, half a cup of milk, and a big piece of butter. Turn into a baking dish and bake twenty minutes.

Peanut Dumplings—Make a rich pie crust, roll out and cut in squares. On each square lay a-teaspoon of chopped peanuts. Fold and drop in boiling water and boil twenty minutes. Serve with a sauce made by blending two tablespoons each of butter and powdered sugar.

The square décolletage is used in some of the new evening gowns. So are the round and V-shaped lines. Then there is the line that is off at the shoulders, and goes to speak, usually white is again a fashionable color. It is especially fashionable in broadcloth and some of the heavier silks.

Some of the Paris dressmakers are recommending high-necked dinner frocks with transparent bodices, instead of those with a very low neck line.

Black is used in combination with oyster white, and in combination too, with the various shades of cream that are in fashion.

This black, trimming takes the form of braid, satin pipings, and black machine stitching.

QUALITY OF SHAMPOO. Condition Of Hair Regulates Amount To Be Used. The quality of shampoo will depend on the condition of the hair.

When the hair is extremely oily, a little ammonia or borax may be safely added to a liquid soap preparation.

An easy name to remember. A hard tea to forget.

Red Rose Tea "is good tea"

APPLES baked with a coating of sugar, served cold in the centre of a large bowl or deep plate full of Corn Flakes.

TOASTED CORN FLAKES "Our Only Product"

Easy & Practical Home Dress Making Lessons

Prepared Especially For This Newspaper by Pictorial Review

Serviceable and Chic. out in checked serge trimmed with embroidered silk.

This very smart appearing dress is equally wearable and looks well developed in checked serge trimmed with plain silk collar, revers and cuffs.

The cutting shows how the cape is provided for in case it is desired to use it. It is the third section on the lengthwise fold of the goods, being placed to the right of the back gore and collar.

Taking the upper row, the vest, front and sleeve are first placed in position, being laid on a lengthwise thread. Then comes the side gore, also on a lengthwise thread, but with the lower edge extending almost to the lengthwise fold. To the right of the front gore come the back, on the lengthwise fold, and the pocket and the cuff, the two latter on a lengthwise thread.

If the vest is desired finished at the waist-line, cut off lower part along small "o" perforations.

The plain taffeta in a soft chiffon weave are much favored for the new one-piece frocks, and there is a line of these which has a slightly changeable effect in contrast to the checks. These silks are in exquisite quality and have an indescribable softness of hue.

From silk centers comes the information that silk in light colors is in such demand that it is impossible to fill orders. The two leading colors are flesh pink and pearl gray. White remains staple, but on account of the dark suits used navy blue has been very popular. In view of the fact that white is to be used so much for spring suits white will predominate.

Above Patterns can be obtained from NEWMAN & SHAW, Princess Street

Pictorial Review Costume No. 6594. Sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust. Price, 15 cents.

You'll more than enjoy CLARK'S SPAGHETTI with Tomato Sauce and Cheese during Lent

W. CLARK, LIMITED, MANUFACTURERS, MONTREAL