Recital In St. George's. Though there was a good attend-ance at the beginning of the organ recital at St. George's Cathedral on Sunday evening a few people spoiled the entertainment for others by noisily getting on their coats and going out. It seems a pity that some people have no regard for the feelings

The recital was a splendid one, R. R. F. Harvey presided at the organ and gave several selections. J. M. Bankier and J. Saunders were the soloists. Mr. Bankier rendered "If With All Your Heart," from Elijah.
