

News From Eastern Ontario Points

THE DISTRICT NEWS

CLAPPED FROM THE WHIG'S MANY BRIGET EXCHANGES. In Brief Form the Events in the 'Country About Kingston Are Told - Full of Interest to Many.

Mrs. Eliza Munson, aged eighty-one years, receiving treatment in Brockville, died on Tuesday. Trade in the Deseronto Board of Trade is showing vigor. It is going after new industries with a vim.

Miss N. Arthur, B. A., Trenton, has been engaged by the Adams high school board to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Ney.

Sunday, March 26th, will be a red letter day in the Deseronto Methodist Church. Over one hundred and forty will be received into membership.

Edward Jose, a well known and respected resident of Thurlow Township, died Wednesday, after being ill for some time. Deceased was sixty-five years of age.

Ivan Burns, son of the late Timothy Burns, Brockville, and Miss Lillian Churchill, daughter of the late Nicholas Churchill of Elgin, were united in marriage on Tuesday.

Clare Malley, Deseronto, who has been in the employ of the mail service on the C. P. R. line, has returned home for a few weeks' holidays and to prepare for the coming Civil Service exams.

Charles Nowlan charged with the theft of jewellery was brought before Judge Dowseley and changed his election from trial by jury to that of summary trial by the judge.

At Smith's Falls, J. S. Munroe, of the head office of the Bank of Commerce, Toronto, has succeeded Mr. Allan as acting manager at the local bank.

A pretty wedding on Tuesday was solemnized at Lyn, when Rev. J. de P. Wright united in marriage Clare L. Charlton, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Charlton, and Miss Margaret Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Graham.

At the meeting of Smith's Falls council the tax rate for public school supporters was struck at twenty-five mills on the dollar, and the same for separate school supporters.

John Rath was reappointed tax collector at a salary of $400.

The death occurred Monday of Robert Brown, aged eighty-six, at the residence of his son, Charles Newton Brown, Fairfield East, after a short illness, having been up and around until the previous evening.

A Tie Game Resulted. Renfrew, March 24.—The possession of the Citizen Shield for the season of 1916 still hangs in the balance.

Smith's Falls, March 24.—Archie Paul, who has been in the employ of the Frost & Wood Co., for the past eight years has enlisted for overseas service and on Friday afternoon was presented with a beautiful watch by the members of the staff as a token of remembrance.

PLEASANT EVENING AT CAMP 1812

Mrs. F. A. Reed Hostess At Enjoyable Function. Mallorytown, March 24.—The home of Mrs. F. A. Reed, "Camp 1812," Mallorytown, was the scene of a most enjoyable "St. Patrick's Day" party on the evening of March 17th, when the soldiers and young ladies of Mallorytown were invited there.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply. The table was most beautifully decorated with flowers and flags; the tricolor, Union Jack and the flag of "Old Erin" being the most prominent.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

At nine o'clock supper was served on the long table in the porch. About seventy-five partook of the good things, which Mrs. Reed knows so well how to supply.

Gananoque

(From Our Own Correspondent.) March 24.—A splendid recruiting meeting in the interests of the 156th Leeds and Grenville Battalion was held in the Opera House on Wednesday evening and drew out a large attendance.

Principal R. G. Graham of Gananoque High School occupied the chair. Stirring addresses were given by Judge Herbert S. McDonaid of Brockville, Col. Bedell of Merrickville, O.C., the 156th Battalion, Rev. Walter Cox, Rev. Father Kehoe, C. E. Britton and W. G. McClellan of Brockville. Mayor Ferguson of Gananoque also addressed the meeting.

The clove tree being very brittle, a peculiar four sided ladder is used in stripping the tree. As fast as the buds are collected they are spread in the sun until they assume a brownish color, when they are put into the storehouse ready for market.

A doctor in the country received one day a letter from an old woman asking for a bottle of cough mixture for her husband, ending with the postscript: "Please, sir, don't make it too strong, as the poor man has only got one leg."

Harmony Lodge No. 15 Daughters of Rebekah held a leap year party in the I. O. F. recreation hall last evening at which a number of Seely's Bay sisters were guests.

On account of the quarantine of the 59th Battalion "A" Company would be raised at midnight on Thursday. Night Constable Archie Neal has resigned his position to enlist with the 156th Battalion.

Untrimmed shapes, 75c up, in a big variety. Beautiful flowers, 25c to $1.50. George Mills & Co., "The Hat Store."

"Cedar and Lavender Camphor," Gibson's. H. F. Coyle, Belleville, superintendent of the division of the G. T. R., is seriously ill.

Death Of Sand Bay Lady. Mrs. Gavin of Sand Bay died at the Hotel Dieu on March 18th, aged thirty-seven years. She suffered from throat trouble. Deceased was the wife of Benjamin Sand Bay, a Roman Catholic in religion, also a member of the League of the Sacred Heart and Sodality of the Blessed Virgin, and will be missed by a wide circle of friends.

The Late Hill Campbell. Cornwall, March 24.—Hill Campbell died here in his seventy-ninth year, after a brief illness. Mr. Campbell came to this country when ten years of age, and resided in this section nearly all his life.

Cobourg Clerk Enlists. Port Hope, March 24.—Arthur Bletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bletcher, Port Hope, has resigned his position in the Bank of Toronto and has joined a Highlanders' battalion at Lethbridge.

Six Months in Central Prison. Brockville, March 24.—Henry Bucher and John Moreau, young soldiers charged with the theft of a horse, were brought before Judge Dowseley. Both were found guilty.

The Late Mrs. Andrew Garrett. Brockville, March 24.—The death occurred Thursday of a highly respected resident in the person of Mrs. Andrew Garrett, following an illness of some month's duration. The late Mrs. Garrett was the daughter of the late Alexander Craig, Napanee, and was born fifty-six years ago.

A Peculiar Accident. Deseronto, March 24.—W. H. Richardson had the misfortune to lose a fine horse, recently purchased in Toronto, on Sunday last. Mr. Richardson, with his wife and family, were driving on the Napanee Road near the Canning Factory, when the horse, in climbing over the comb of the road, stepped on his front foot with the hind foot, breaking every bone, with the result that the animal had to be shot.

MACANNISH'S STYLE

Why Patent Medicines Retain Their Popularity. "Publicity is the most pleasing thing in life," says Mr. A. S. Neill in "A Domicile's Log" (Herbert Jenkins), "and that's why patent medicines retain their popularity."

"I marvel at his improved literary style. It is only a month since he wrote me as follows: 'Sir, I will be obliged if you will let Peter, away at three o'clock tonight hoping that you will as this leaves me I am your obdient servant Peter Macannish.'"

A doctor in the country received one day a letter from an old woman asking for a bottle of cough mixture for her husband, ending with the postscript: "Please, sir, don't make it too strong, as the poor man has only got one leg."

Harmony Lodge No. 15 Daughters of Rebekah held a leap year party in the I. O. F. recreation hall last evening at which a number of Seely's Bay sisters were guests.

Untrimmed shapes, 75c up, in a big variety. Beautiful flowers, 25c to $1.50. George Mills & Co., "The Hat Store."

"Cedar and Lavender Camphor," Gibson's. H. F. Coyle, Belleville, superintendent of the division of the G. T. R., is seriously ill.

Death Of Sand Bay Lady. Mrs. Gavin of Sand Bay died at the Hotel Dieu on March 18th, aged thirty-seven years. She suffered from throat trouble.

The Late Hill Campbell. Cornwall, March 24.—Hill Campbell died here in his seventy-ninth year, after a brief illness.

Cobourg Clerk Enlists. Port Hope, March 24.—Arthur Bletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bletcher, Port Hope, has resigned his position in the Bank of Toronto.

Six Months in Central Prison. Brockville, March 24.—Henry Bucher and John Moreau, young soldiers charged with the theft of a horse.

The Late Mrs. Andrew Garrett. Brockville, March 24.—The death occurred Thursday of a highly respected resident in the person of Mrs. Andrew Garrett.

A Peculiar Accident. Deseronto, March 24.—W. H. Richardson had the misfortune to lose a fine horse, recently purchased in Toronto.

SPEECH CLINICS

Stammerers Come Under Care of a Specialist. That distressing complaint, stammering, is now receiving special attention at St. Thomas' Hospital, London.

Under the superintendence of a highly-qualified specialist, children who suffer from stammering are treated twice a week in what are known as instructional classes.

Some children are found to stammer because of defective chest formation; others because of the ignorance, neglect, or example of their parents, and others on account of nervousness.

A Mohammodan barber advertises as follows in the Indian Picture Magazine: "Mahomed Osman, haircutter and clean shaver. Gentlemen's throats cut with very sharp razors with great care and skill."

He should be very useful to the Turco-German Alliance. Dog in Burned Station. After being confined 32 hours in the burned Bonaventure Station in Montreal, a four-months-old Italian police dog, the property of Low Ritchie, an employee of the Grand Trunk, was found in the wreckage.

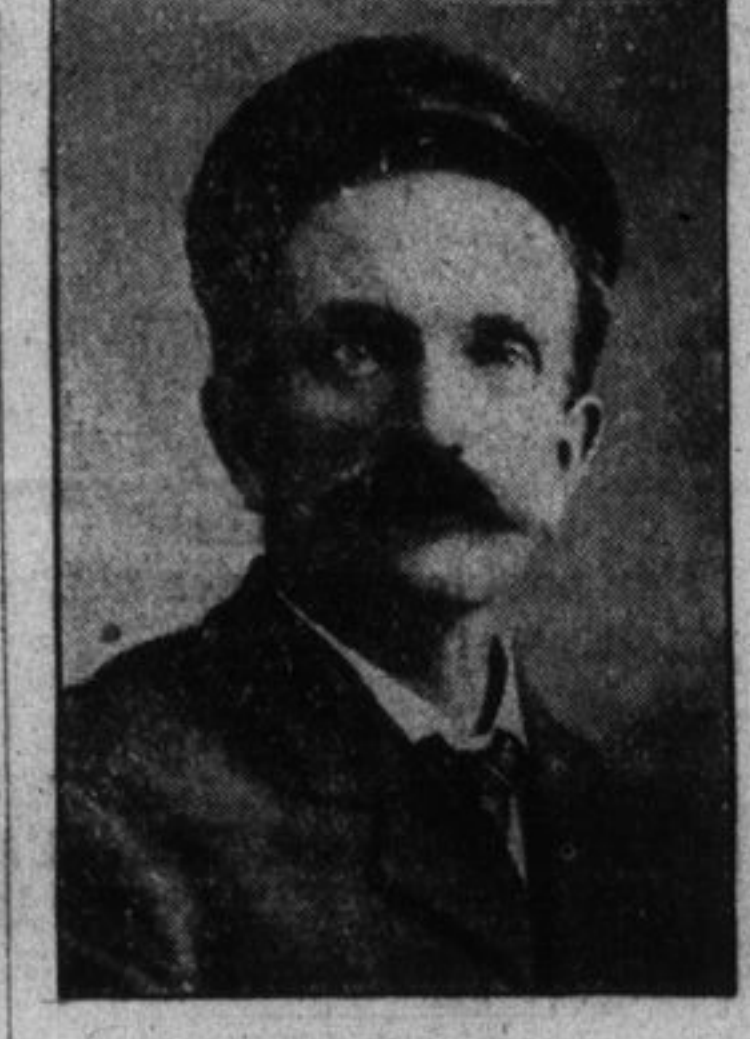

"Huyler's Week-end Sweets" Gibson's. It is semi-officially announced from Berlin that contracts have been executed between the official grain buying associations of Germany and Austria-Hungary and the Roumanian Grain Export Commission for 100,000 carloads of corn and all the wheat, barley and beans available for export, estimated at 40,000 carloads.

Although the Westport hockey team defeated Seely's Bay at the Brockville Arena by the score of 4 goals to 2, Seely's Bay are the champions of the Leeds County Hockey League. The game was the second of a home and home match between the two clubs.

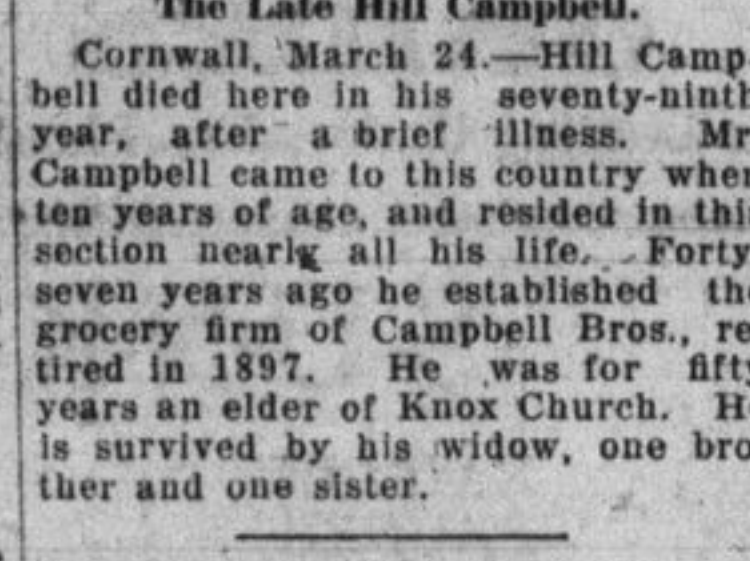

Seely's Bay winning the first by six to three and going into last night's game with a three-goal lead. Player planes tuned and adjusted. G. W. Lindsay, Limited. $1.00 Emulsion for 50c, Gibson's.

Harvey Milne Agent for CLEVELAND, RAMBLER, STANDARD & FALCON BICYCLES FORD MOTOR TIRES, OILS & GREASES Bicycle Repairing. Electric Vacuum and Carpet Cleaning. 272 Bagot Street --- Kingston

The Connecting Link. The connecting link between the merchant and his customer is the newspaper advertisement. In the merchant may make plain to the housewife or the househusband, the advantages of his store and the commodities he has to offer, in a way that would be impossible otherwise, because of the limited time, and the interruptions when the customer visits the store.

LATE R. H. FIELD. A former well-known and highly esteemed resident of Ottawa and Mallorytown, who passed away on Tuesday, March 21st.

The Late Hill Campbell. Cornwall, March 24.—Hill Campbell died here in his seventy-ninth year, after a brief illness.

The Victrola entertains the whole family. With a Victrola in the home no winter evening is ever too long; and no matter what the weather, no member of the family need be deprived of concert or entertainment at any time. C. W. LINDSAY LIMITED 121 Princess Street.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always bear the Signature of J. C. Watson

NEW SUITINGS! $15 $18 Real Values in Stylish Fabrics. The Best Tailored Garments from Modern Factories. (600) Six Hundred Men's Suits to Choose From. Ask to see our Samples of New Materials for your Suit or Overcoat. Made to Measure Service $15.00 to $25.00 Roney's, 127 Princess Street : : Kingston