MRS. GRIMASON DEAD

SHE WAS ONE OF THE OLDEST RESIDENTS OF THE CITY.

Almost Ninety-five Years of Age, and Was Only Confined to Her Bed Three Weeks—She Came to Kingston in 1847.

Death on Thursday night about 11 o'clock removed one of Kingston's oldest residents, in the person of Mrs. Elizabeth Grimason, who passed away at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. Marshall, 132 Union street west, with whom she made her home. Mrs. Grimason had been confined to her bed about three weeks. She was a remarkably active woman for her age, and had she lived until May 11th next she would have been ninety-five years old.

Deceased was the widow of the late Henry Grimason. She was of Irish descent, and was born in the county of Armagh in the year 1821. She came to this country in 1847, and settled in Kingston. Her husband had an hotel on Division street, where All Saints Church formerly stood, and later on took over the Grimason Hotel on Princess street, and conducted that hostelry till the time of his death; when Mrs. Grimason took over the business and conducted it for several years.

Mrs. Grimason was widely known and beloved. She was regarded as one of the most tender-hearted women in the city, and was a warm friend of all in time of trouble. For some years she was a member of the Anglican Church, but afterwards joined the Presbyterian Church, being a member of St. Andrew's Church. The late Sir John Macdonald numbered Mrs. Grimason among his stalwarts. She was a staunch Conservative, and a keen follower of things political.

As already stated, Mrs. Grimason was remarkably active for her age. Up till a short time ago she was well in health, although unable to go out of the house, and it was only within the past few years that her eyesight became defective. She possessed all her faculties practically up till the end.

Five years ago Mrs. Grimason had the honor of christening the new government tug Bellechasse, which was launched at the dry-dock in Kingston.

Deceased is survived by one son and five daughters: Thomas, Collector of Inland Revenue, of this city; Mrs. J. Gray, Toronto; Mrs. W. H. Reid, Mrs. J. McCammon, Mrs. S. Harkness, and Mrs. W. Marshall, of Kingston. She is also survived by thirty-three grandchildren, twenty-three great grandchildren, and one great great grandchild.

Arrangements are being made for the funeral to take place on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Dr. Torrance will officiate at the service.

CHICKEN THIEVES AGAIN

A Resident On Union Street Lost Six Hens. It would now appear as if a gang of chicken thieves were at work in the city. Two men are in jail, on remand, charged with chicken stealing, and on Friday morning it was reported to the police that a resident of Union street had been robbed of six valuable birds during Thursday night.

REFUSED APPOINTMENT

So Lieut. Frederick Moxley Enlists As a Gunner.

Lieut. Frederick Moxley, York street, has enlisted in the 50th Queen's Battery as a private. Gunner Moxley is a qualified infantry lieutenant and for some time was attached to the 146th Battalion, but was refused an appointment. This, he thought, surprising in view of his extensive experience. He was qualified as a sergeant in the 14th Regiment and after declaring his intentions of serving with the expeditionary force was readily granted a provisional lieutenant's rank. His marks at the Provisional School of Infantry were high and an appointment seemed in order. The refusal, however, did not dampen his ardour to go overseas and on Monday he will report to the 50th Battery as a gunner.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Will Stand "Pat" On Certain Estimates, It Is Understood. The Board of Education has been called to meet in special session tonight to consider the estimates, the City Council having cut their allowance down by $5,000. The Council asks the Board to cut down the expenses, but the question asked by the Board is "Where can the axe be used?"

NINETY-THREE YEARS OLD

Mrs. Mary Allen Will Celebrate Birthday On Saturday. One of Kingston's oldest residents, Mrs. Mary Allen, will celebrate her ninety-third anniversary of her birth on Saturday. She is still in good health and able to enjoy short drives. She has a good memory and her hearing is also good. Mrs. Allen resides with her son-in-law, C. M. Nash, 323 Earl street. The Whig wishes her a very happy birthday and many returns.

Napanee's New Curling Rink.

Napanee is to have a new curling rink to replace that burned recently. It is planned to have a four-sheet rink, the money to be raised by a joint stock company with shares at $25 each. The Kingston curlers are very much interested in the plans and the secretary has been asked for suggestions that he might care to make.

The Biggest Selling Book of the Year in England.
The First Hundred Thousand $1.25
By the Well-Known English Novelist, Ian Hay.
Ian Hay, who was a lieutenant in Gen. French's Army in France, was with the force during the battles of Mons, the Marne and the long retreat into France. Read what the English Press says:
Morning Post:—"No quotations can do justice to this dramatic record of dogged bravery and heroic self-sacrifice."
Daily Graphic:—"No volume of the war can expect to have more delighted readers."
Scotsman:—"It distinctly ranks as a literary event."
Globe:—"A narrative as convincing in its truth as it is captivating in its humor."
London News:—"Inimitable sketches of the lighter side of the war."
Broad Arrow:—"Though the stern realities are often relieved by the humorous vein of the writer, the narrative always bears the impress of truth."
