(From Our Own Correspondent.)

April 3.—The congregation of the Grace Church celebrated the eightieth anniversary of its foundation yesterday. Rev. S. D. At the evening service Mrs. G. Douglas Pound, of Kingston, gave a splendid solo, "Somebody," with violin accompaniment by Charles Roberts. The Finance Committee had made a special request for a contribution of $800 to square everything in the year's accounts. The greater part of this amount was laid on the plate during the day, the Sunday school giving about $90 of the amount.

FARMERS IN DILEMMA
THEY CANNOT GET HELP THEY URGENTLY NEED.

Some Will Have to Sell Their Stock—Think That the Militia Department Should Relieve the Situation.

When speaking to Michael Brady, of Inverary, at the office of Immigration Office George Hunter, the Whig learned that he was one of those who are right "up against it." He came to the city for the purpose of "landing a man," but he was not able to secure one. He is willing to pay $40 a month and board providing help that he was one of those who are right "up against it."

The Whig learns that a number of the farmers have been compelled to sell their stock on account of not being able to get men.

The farmers are of the opinion that the Militia Department should release some of the men in the training camps and allow them to help the farmers to put in the crops. It would only take about one month. When it came time for harvesting soldiers could be released for another month.
