FOR STRIKING A MAN ON PRINCESS STREET
Case in Which Man Is Accused of Non-Support Was Further Enlarged—Other Cases Heard in the Police Court.
"I do not know. If he had not asked for it, he would not have got it."
This was the explanation of Ernest McDonald gave Magistrate Farrell on Wednesday morning, when he stood charged with assaulting John Barton, but after the evidence of the complainant and two witnesses had been heard, the Court was satisfied that McDonald was guilty of the offence, and imposed a fine of $10 and costs, or twenty days.
It was shown that McDonald hit Barton in the face on Princess street. McDonald claimed that Barton struck him back, but this was not borne out by the witnesses.
"I do not know, as I was drunk; I had been drinking," said Henry Lesslie.
Constable Marshall Armstrong, who made the arrest, satisfied the Magistrate that Lesslie was drunk at the home of his mother, and that his mother had asked that he be taken in charge.
Lesslie said that he expected to be leaving in a few days for Toronto to take charge of a boat, so he was remained until called on.
Joseph Mouldie admitted having had a few drinks, but did not think he was drunk. Constable Patterson, put the Magistrate wise in this case, and as a result Mouldie was called upon to pay a fine of $1 and costs.
The case of Christopher Ruttle, charged by his wife, with non-support was further enlarged until Monday.
A young woman admitted that she had been drinking and was fined $5 and costs.

How To Prolong Life.
By adopting a simple diet men like Conaro have lived to be 100 years of age, but with our complex diets of to-day, the vitality of the aged is taxed to its utmost endurance. A simple diet, therefore, is conducive to a long life, and if the vitality becomes impaired and weakness seems apparent, our local druggists, Mahood Drug Co., Limited, has in Vinol a reliable, non-secret remedy which contains just the elements needed to restore strength to weak, feeble old people, and prolong a healthy, happy life.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF KINGSTON

Reasons Why Mr. Nash Has Decided To Put On a Big Easter Sale—Trying to Get Away to a New Start.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the College Book Store on page six of to-day's issue. It is in the form of an open letter to the people of Kingston and signed by the manager of the store, J. Nash. This advertisement is something unique in the advertising line and every reader would do well to peruse it.
Mr. Nash has taken the public to his confidence and tells them exactly the condition under which he has been operating and the reasons why he has decided to put on a big Easter sale. He frankly admits that he has been sadly handicapped for want of capital and that the college which he was obliged to place on his business proved a serious handicap. As the result of a continual struggle and a faithful attempt to overcome his many difficulties, he has succeeded in greatly reducing the mortgage and now hopes that the sale which he is advertising will enable him to wipe it off entirely and get away to a new start.

The proprietor is one of the youngest business men of Kingston. He has shown remarkable persistency and energy and if hard work and hustling spell success, there will be no doubt that Mr. Nash will obtain it. He deserves credit for establishing in this city one of the finest book stores to be found on the continent. It is his belief that an up-to-date, progressive book and stationery business will succeed in Kingston and he has pinned his faith and devoted the past few years to proving his contention. A perusal of his large advertisement on page six will prove interesting and instructive.

PRIVATE W. W. HEWITT

SON OF MRS. HEWITT, BROCK STREET, KILLED.

He Was With the Queen's Royal West Surreys—Had Been Previously Wounded—Was An Artist In England.
Mrs. Caroline Hewitt, who resides at 432 Brock street, received word on Tuesday to the effect that her only son Pte. W. W. Hewitt, of the Queen's Royal West Surreys, had been killed in action in France on March 14th. When seen by the Whig, Mrs. Hewitt stated that her son had enlisted and went to the front with the 2nd Battalion Queen's Royal West Surreys, and had been in France for the past twelve months. He was wounded once but had recovered from his injuries and had returned to the front. A short time ago he was among the British soldiers who suffered as a result of the gas bombs thrown by the Germans. He had expected to get leave and go to England, but it was thought that he was ordered to go back to the trenches and take part in a recent engagement.
Before the war, Pte. Hewitt was a photographer and artist, and had fourteen men working for him previous to enlisting. The call to service came so strong that he threw up everything and reported for duty. He was twenty-nine years of age.

BISHOP FALLON

Is To Speak in Kingston On Friday Night.

Kingstonians will be pleased to learn—and the announcement appears on page seven of to-day's issue—of the coming visit to Kingston of Bishop Fallon, a former Kingstonian. He will speak in the Grand Opera House on Friday evening next, under the auspices of the 14th Battalion. The admission is free to adults only, and the officers of the battalion are looking for a record-breaking house.
Bishop Fallon has been very vigorous and outspoken in his appeal to the young men of the country to enlist. He has pointed out to them the danger that confronts Canada and the Empire and shows them their duty in the premises. He is one of the most eloquent public speakers and will be heard with pleasure in Kingston.
Col. Low and his officers also announce that on Sunday next R. B. Bennett, M. P., will address a recruiting rally in the city on behalf of the 14th Battalion.

W. F. NICKLE'S SECOND SON

Receives a Commission in The Forester's Battalion.
Douglas Nickle, son of W. F. Nickle, M. P., has been granted a commission in the 224th Foresters Battalion, training at Quebec. He will report in that city at once and take a course of instruction. This is the second son of the Kingston member who has received an overseas commission. His brother, Lieut. William Nickle, jr., is now serving with the 21st Battalion in France.

Trooper Joseph Smith Here.

The Kingston men of the draft from the 13th C.M.R. of Hamilton, in command of Major Alan Stroud, which leaves for overseas service in the course of a few days, are home on their last pass. They came to the city on Tuesday evening and will remain here for a few days. Trooper Joseph Smith, a former member of the Whig Staff, is among the men selected to proceed overseas.

Pte. George Rainey Injured.

Pte. George Rainey, No. 3 Company, 21st Canadian Battalion, now serving in France, was slightly injured about three weeks ago. Letters received from the front state that Rainey was on top of a transport when it toppled over, and the contents of the wagon fell on him. His leg was strained, but he had reported for duty again.

FROM THE PATRIOTIC FUND TO DEPENDENTS.

The Amount Paid Out in March Was $565—Changes in Addresses Asked For By County Clerk Bradshaw.

The County of Frontenac has to date paid $7,000 to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, including $400 in 1914; $3,600, in 1915, and $3,000 in 1916.
The County Committee has received from the fund the sum of $2,985.50; $110 in 1914; $1,204, in 1915 and $1,681.50 up until March 31st, 1916.
The fund receipts for the first three months of 1916 were respectively $32, $50 and $65.50. The corresponding periods of 1916 were $322, $635 and $565.
Last month there were forty-six Frontenac families deriving benefits from the fund, which was somewhat below the total of February.
Parties in the county receiving relief from the fund, who make changes in their addresses should notify County Clerk Bradshaw, as he has at present a number whose addresses he is not in touch with.
The committee will meet on Saturday to make the grants for April. Reeve J. A. Kennedy, Tichborne, is chairman of the committee.

Fire Tuesday Night.

A pile of boxes, some of which had been left on the ice on the waterfront near the Locomotive Works, caught fire at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening, and made a lively blaze, although there was no damage. The fire made quite a reflection in the sky, and many citizens had an idea that the fire was a serious one, and rushed to the scene. The whistle at the works also sounded a warning. The firemen were summoned by telephone.

CALVARY CHURCH
The Ladies Are Interested in Emergency Work.
A special meeting of the Ladies' Aid in connection with above church was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Bickham, 27 Charles street, when Mrs. (Colonel) Ogilvie, President of the Women's Emergency Corps, and Mrs. (Ensign) Smith were present and addressed the meeting. Mrs. (Colonel) Ogilvie made plain the object of the Emergency Corps, soliciting the help of the ladies present in influencing the eligible men of the city to take their share in the great strife now going on. Mrs. (Ensign) Smith then addressed the meeting calling on the ladies to consider what they could do in qualifying themselves to fill positions at present occupied by men who may yet offer. The speaker reminded us of what was being done in the Old Country in this direction, and also made some suggestions as to what might be done by the women of Kingston.
We hear that the ladies of this church have made a proposition to the commanding officer of the 53rd Battery, Rideau Barracks, to darn the men's socks. Surely this is emergency work. Some other church might be encouraged by this to go and do likewise.
