Gananoque

(From Our Own Correspondent.) April 10.—Rev. C. E. Kidd, inducted into the pastorate of St. Andrew's Church during the past week, filled the pulpit of that church yesterday at both services and was greeted by fairly large congregations. The local squad of the 156th Leeds and Grenville Battalion is increasing in numerical strength, having at the present time seventy-two names on its muster roll. Some attention is being given to target practice. They have taken up their new quarters at the armoury and expect to be joined here in a short time by the other units from Brockville and the surrounding towns and villages, to spend the summer here instead of at Barriefield as had been reported recently. The men headed by their bugle band turned out for parade to the Presbyterian Church yesterday morning and made a fine showing.

The notification on Saturday to the effect that the epidemic of measles in town extended only through the North and South wards is off as three cases have been discovered in the West ward. The disease however does not appear to be of the most virulent type. The St. Lawrence channel is opening up rapidly, the wind on Saturday and Sunday clearing out a large amount of ice. On account of the prevalence of measles about town the Gananoque Free Library has stopped the issue of all books until further notice. All books being sent in are to be funded before further issue is made. The pupils of the various schools that are open at present have been ordered to use precautions to prevent the spread of the disease, by the use of permanganate of potash, and iodine.

Pte. Wood, of the C.M.R., located in Hamilton, spent the week-end with his wife and family, First street. Frank Latimer who spent the past winter at Collingwood with his daughter has returned to town. Miss Lena L. McNeil, teacher of the Ivy Lea Public School, was in town on Saturday. Miss L. Erlen Hurd, King street, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Matthews, Leeds township. Clifford Kidd, an employee of the Canadian Locomotive Co., Kingston, was in town over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kidd, King St. E. H. Hurd, Kingston, was in town over Sunday.

THE BASEBALL LEAGUE

The Annual Gathering To Be Held On Tuesday.

The baseball fans of the city are to gather at the Y.M.C.A. park on Tuesday evening for the purpose of starting up the baseball season. Stanley Trotter, President of the City Baseball League, wants a large attendance as the election of officers for the ensuing year is to take place. "Stan" Trotter has been the past president of the league for the past three years. He has worked hard to bring the league to the high standard it has at the present time. This means that the man who is elected president has a big job ahead of him if he wants to keep the league running the way Trotter has done it.

When asked by the "Wheig" if he would accept the presidency for another year Stanley Trotter stated that for three years he had put all he had into the league and he was lead to believe that it was "up to" some one else to carry the load now. He believes that if he were to remain at the head of the league for another season it would tend to make people think that he had been elected presiding officer for an indefinite period.

A Coming Event.

The Sportsmen's Platoon, 146th Battalion, has surpassed themselves with the splendid entertainments given, but the ambitious programme provided for their Assault-At-Arms in the City Hall on Thursday next, will undoubtedly discount all previous efforts.

Capt. Tom Flanagan, 180th "Sportsmen's" Battalion, Toronto, who has been appointed "Director of Sports" Military District, No. 2, with some 40,000 troops to pick from, has notified the 146th Battalion that he will send a great bunch of entries, including Pte. Frankie Russell and Pte. F. W. Adams, the 108 and 105-pound champion boxers of Canada; Pte. Charlie Christie and Pte. Ted Picton, the 145-pound champion and ex-champion of Canada; also Pte. M. Goldberg and Pte.

"Potash and Perlmutter."

Pinocchio and politics, love and law, strikes and styles go to make up the story of "Potash and Perlmutter," the three-act comedy that A. H. Woods will present at the Grand on Wednesday evening, April 12th. Abe Potash and Morris Perlmutter are today the two most popular characters of modern fiction—if, indeed, they may be called fiction characters now that they have been among us in the flesh and blood for so long. They are loved for their weaknesses as well as their virtues. They are the most thoroughly human heroes of the stage.

Presided In St. Andrew's.

Rev. N. H. McGillivray, of Knox Church, St. Thomas, and chaplain of the 91st Battalion, occupied the pulpit in St. Andrew's Church at both services on Sunday. Since the war broke out Mr. McGillivray has been very active in patriotic and recruiting work. At the evening service he spoke from Acts 1:8; a discourse on power and prayer.

"The Only Girl."

Among the announcements of attractions soon to be seen in this city, it is safe to say that none will prove more delightful to the theatre-goers than the return engagement of "The Only Girl." "The Only Girl" returns by popular demand, and will be seen at the Grand on Saturday, April 15th Matinee and night.

The SS. Adriatic arrived in England on Saturday afternoon. She had Kingstonians on board.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY.

"Fresh Huyler's Delicious Sweets," Gibson's.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Agnes Stewart, widow of the late Robert Stewart, formerly of the staff of the Port Arthur Hospital who died in Hamilton on Thursday evening last took place on Saturday afternoon at Catharqui.

It was announced in military circles on Monday afternoon that there would be no more classes in the Royal School of Artillery after May 13th until further notice. The present class will close on the date mentioned.

"Huyler's High Class Sweets," Gibson's.

On Wednesday afternoon Judge Lavell will reside at County Court when the case of John H. Davis vs. Northern Assurance Co., that arose over the insurance on the boat Laura D., which was burned at Brakey's Bay, Wolfe Island, on November 7th, 1915, will be heard.

"Huyler's High Class Sweets," Gibson's.

Lieut. Frederick James spoke in Princess Street Church on Sunday evening in the interests of recruiting for the 146th Battalion. For thirty-five minutes Lieut. James pointed out, forceful and interesting address that was appreciated very much by the congregation, and should certainly prove effective.

INVALIDED HOME.

A Bunch of Men Reached Kingston On Sunday.

Eight more invalided soldiers, returned from the front, arrived in the city on Sunday afternoon on the Grand Trunk. They were met at the station by Mayor Richardson, Lieut.-Col. R. J. Gardiner, A.D.M.S., and Capt. R. B. Richardson, D. A. D. M. S., and taken in automobiles to the Elmhurst Convalescent Home. Sapper A. M. Marshall, Kingston, while with the Canadian Engineers at the front, was struck by lightning. He was invalided home from Ollerport Camp, leaving his wife in England.

Pte. Collard, 112 Montreal street, Kingston, was with the 21st Battalion through all of their engagements. At Deekebush, in Belgium, he was the victim of a shell burst, and deafness followed.

Pte. S. Coleman, Cornwall, reached England with the 39th (Belleville) Battalion, but a fractured bone in the leg necessitated his return to Canada.

Pte. G. Lash, 26th Battalion, Ottawa, was returned for an operation. Pte. H. Mercier, Jasper, was overseas with the 12th Battalion, but a shell exploded near him, and resulting physical disability caused his return to Canada for treatment.

Trooper W. McLaughlin, Peterboro, went overseas with the 5th C. M. R., but had to be returned through an attack of rheumatism.

Pte. J. Sult, 2nd Battalion, was through the battles up to Ypres, but sickness caused his return to England and Canada. His home is in Ottawa.

Pte. W. E. Scully, Peterboro, was overseas with the 4th C. M. R., but lumbago made his return imperative.

HANDY HUSBAND

Knew How to Get Part of the Breakfast.

"I know one dish I can prepare for breakfast as well as any cook on earth," said my husband one morning when the cook was ill and he had volunteered to help get breakfast. He appeared with his dish, and I discovered it was Grape-Nuts which, of course, was easy to prepare, for it was perfectly cooked at the factory, but it was a good illustration of the convenience of having Grape-Nuts about.

"We took up Grape-Nuts immediately after returning from a five years' sojourn in a hot country. Our stomachs were in bad condition, and we were in poor health generally. In a day or two we liked Grape-Nuts better than any other kind of food on the table. We both gained steadily in health and strength, and this was caused by Grape-Nuts and Postum.

"A friend of ours had a similar experience. She was seriously ill with indigestion, and could find nothing to eat that would not give her heartburn and palpitation, especially at night.

"She found that a small dish of Grape-Nuts with cream made her a satisfactory supper and gave her a comfortable night's rest. In a short time she gained several pounds in weight.

"There's a Reason." Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont.
