Individual Eye CARE.
No two persons' eyes are exactly alike. Glasses that correct one person's vision will probably injure another's.
Each eye must be examined separately. We prescribe glasses only after the most careful examination with scientific instruments.
Every lens we supply is ground specially for each case in our own factory.
You are assured accuracy and prompt service in treating your eyes with us. Appointments made for any evening.

The Victims of Procrastination!
There are thousands of men who have made up their minds to take insurance, but who for a variety of reasons procrastinate. As ten per cent of all deaths are due to accidents and many men apparently of sound health die suddenly, the danger of delay is apparent, but there is a great danger than this, the danger of becoming uninsurable, which often comes as unexpectedly as an accident.
Last year over 25,000 men waited sixty days too long, that is, sixty days after they could have obtained life insurance their power to do so had been lost. It is impossible to pass a satisfactory medical examination.

Archibald Cox, Aged Twenty, Had His Arm Amputated At The General Hospital on Tuesday Afternoon.
Archibald Cox, aged twenty years, son of Charles Cox, of Parham, suffered the loss of his right arm on Tuesday afternoon as the result of a gun accidentally going off. The arm was amputated at the General Hospital by Dr. J. G. Bogart.
When speaking to the father of the young man, the Whig learned that the young man and a chum were out shooting pike on a log while the boys went to get a boat. When the boat was secured, Cox was in the act of putting the guns into it when one of them went off. The bullet entered the fore-arm, broke the elbow and tore all the blood vessels. When the young man arrived at the hospital it was found that all the blood vessels were separated and the portion of the arm below the elbow was dead.
The parents were fortunate in catching the C. P. R. train which came to the city on Tuesday. The injured young man was rushed to the hospital in S. S. Corbett's ambulance.

AN A.O.U.W. CONCERT
Enjoyed By a Large Audience on Tuesday Evening.
On Tuesday evening one of the most successful concerts that has been held in the city in some time was held in the lodge rooms of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. The concert was given under the auspices of Limestone Lodge No. 91 and Kingston Lodge No. 357. There was a very large number present and every item on the programme was thoroughly enjoyed. In the absence of Mayor Richardson, D. Couper presided.
Those taking part in the programme were: Misses Edna Lake, Irene Hoag, Irene Jenkins, Anna Timmerman, Phillis Devlin, Pearl Hunt and Messrs. A. E. Hunt, James Saunders, Clara Smith, S. Salisbury, D. Couper, B. McAuley, B. Couper and C.Q.M.S. William McFedridge. The instrumental quartette by Messrs. Salisbury, Saunders, Smith and McAuley was particularly entertaining.
Great credit for the success of the concert must be given to W. H. Blair who was in charge of the arrangements.

The names of Private Harold Godwin and Harold Easton were omitted from the honor roll of Brock Street Methodist Church, published in Tuesday's Whig. Pte. Godwin is with the Canadian Engineers in France and Pte. Easton, with the 14th Battalion.

No Germans For Him.
Do you want one of the prisoners-of-war now confined to Fort Henry to help do the work on your farm? was the question asked a Frontenac farmer on Wednesday morning.
"Not on your life. I would not trust a German as far as I could throw a stone," was the reply the farmer made to a Whig reporter.

LOST HIS RIGHT ARM CHASED BY SEAPLANE
THROUGH SHOOTING ACCIDENT. STEAMER GLENFOYLE HAD AN EXCITING TRIP.
Vessel Which Traded in Kingston Managed to Escape German Bombs Used in Attempt to Destroy the Vessel On Recent Trip.
H. W. Richardson has received a letter from the captain of the steamer Glenfoyle, which formerly traded in Kingston, and which is now overseas, engaged in the coal trade. The steamer belongs to the Great Lakes Navigation Company, of which Mr. Richardson is one of the stockholders.
The captain intimates that a recent trip was quite stormy, but not nearly as violent as the return, when a German seaplane chased him and directed eight bombs on the vessel in an attempt to hit the vessel, but the craft responded so rapidly to her helm, that she zigzagged out of the way.
This transportation company have two steamers in the overseas trade, and they are realizing big returns on their cargoes carried.

A GERMAN OFFICER CONTRIBUTES $2.
To the Fund For Kingston Prisoners in Germany.
The American Consul on Wednesday morning received a Canadian two-dollar bill as a subscription to the Canadian prisoner-of-war fund, from a German officer. The letter that covered the donation, explaining the circumstances, and reads as follows: "Rockwood Hospital—As I am a prisoner of war formerly held at Fort Henry, through over-study contracted mental disability, living here, and now getting well again, remember me for my splendid treatment and care (restoration) of health. All Canadians are fighting as soldiers. Therefore I beg you pardon me, a German officer, to send you two dollars for my country. Kindly use enclosed cheque. Sincerely yours, Felix Orb, Lieutenant L. 11, Germany army."

ARRIVED IN ENGLAND.
Mrs. Ryan received a cable-gram on Tuesday from Dr. E. Ryan, announcing his safe arrival at Liverpool, Eng., on the steamship Olympic, on which the nurses and staff for the Ontario Government's hospital made the trip overseas.

LATE J. N. HOLMES, INVERARY.
The Deceased Was Seventy-four Years of Age.
Many were the expressions of regret and sympathy among the residents of Inverary and vicinity when the news was made known on Monday, April 3rd, about noon, that J. N. Holmes had suddenly passed away. Previous to this he was known to be in good health, never complaining except that he continually mourned over the death of his wife, which occurred five months ago. About 10:30 o'clock he assisted his son with some light work at the barn, when the call came at 11:30 for dinner, and the son did not get any response, he hurried to the barn, to make the discovery that his father, to whom he was so lovingly attached, had passed away. His Helens form lay a short distance from the barn. Medical aid was summoned, but the spark of life had fled. Death was due to a stroke of paralysis.

Asselstine-Smallridge Wedding.
A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday morning when Rev. Douglas Laing, pastor of the First Baptist Church, united in marriage Ida Smallridge, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Smallridge, to Prof. Stanley Asselstine, M. D., Queen's University staff. The wedding took place at 318 Earl street. After the ceremony a few of the intimate friends and relatives who were present attended a luncheon. Prof. and Mrs. Asselstine left for western points.

Prosperity Edition Sent Broadcast.
Lieut.-Col. Perreau, commandant of the Royal Military College congratulated the Whig to-day on its splendid Prosperity edition, on Saturday last. "It was a splendid issue," he said. Col. Perreau showed his appreciation of the issue by ordering sufficient copies to send one to each of the Royal Military College graduates in active service.

Getting Pension Papers Signed.
During the past few days Col. George Hunter has been waited upon by a couple of Kingston women whose husbands have been killed in action in France. One woman called upon him on Wednesday morning and asked him to sign her pension papers. Her husband has been missing since the battle of Langemarck. She is the mother of seven children.

What She Would Say.
The Governor (closing the door): "Now, my boy, I am told by friends who know, that the other night you were seen in a popular restaurant giving a supper to some girls. Is this true?"
The Son: "Yes, sir."
Governor: "Well, what do you suppose your mother would say, sir, if she knew this?"
Son: "She would probably ask me, sir, not to let you know who they were."
