News of Troops in the City

(See also page 13.)

The 89th Battalion has decided that the presentation of its colors will take place on the afternoon of April 20th. The gift is from the members of the Ketcheson family, of whom Col. Ketcheson is the popular commanding officer.

Capt. W. Peters has been appointed paymaster of casualties for military District No. 3. Lieut. A. Tett will succeed him on the 14th Guard.

Messrs. R. Younie, R. Muhl, A. McKay, W. E. Shaw, H. Holmes, W. F. Darragh, A. Godard, A. E. McKay, E. R. Thompson, H. Fleming, H. O. Cockburn, W. Ackland, and H. J. Turner. A splendid group of Ottawa men have just enlisted with the 51st Battery stationed here.

Lieut.-Col. C. A. Low is now signing 4,000 letters that will be sent to individuals throughout Kingston and the counties of Lennox, Addington and Frontenac as an appeal for recruits to join the 146th. The letters are printed under the picture of the colonel and the letter-head of the battalion and contain an urgent appeal to the receiver to enlist.

Throughout the garrison on Friday morning owing to the heavy downpour of rain, the soldiers were given lectures by the officers.

Lieut. Leonard Birkett, who is in command of a platoon of Russians of the 80th Belleisle Battalion, has sufficiently recovered from an attack of pleuro-pneumonia to be removed to his home. He was in the General Hospital for several weeks and at one time was very low.

One of the Russians of Lieut. Birkett's platoon recently made an inquiry of Major R. M. Watson of the battalion: "When officer sick Kingston when come back?"

"PADDLE" WAS USED ON UNRULY CONVICT.

Arthur Bonnar, a Celebrated Prisoner, Punished for Bad Conduct.

Arthur Bonnar, the notorious convict, who was recently brought back to the Portsmouth Penitentiary from Guelph, and who put up the bluff that he was insane, when it was merely a "frame-up" on his part, has been kicking up "high jinks" at the big prison, and as a result on Wednesday he was given a dose of punishment, with the use of the "paddle," which caused so much comment at the time the investigation was held at the penitentiary.

Bonnar has been very unruly, and he got just what he deserved. Since receiving his punishment he has remained in bed and refuses to get up, but it is expected that he will be over his little tilt in a day or so.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At the Grand.

"The Call of the Cumberlands." From the book by Charles Neville Buck, as filmed at the Grand with Dustin Farnum in the leading role, is one of the most delightful screen productions ever shown here. Large audiences enjoyed it immensely yesterday, and a capacity house should be on hand this evening. The story told in "The Call of the Cumberlands" breathes a southern atmosphere of the classmen days, holds one in its grip by its romantic tale, and has a most happy ending. There are also on the screen end of the bill a two-reel Mutual, "Keeping Up With the Joneses," which is most amusing; "The Battle of Cupidovitch," another blue dispenser; "Big Jim's Heart," a stirring tale of human interest, and the Mutual travel series.

The Aleva Duo, in a refined singing and piano offering, head the vaudeville. It is one of the most artistic acts the Grand has presented. Included in the repertoire are songs of to-day, and bits from opera of the old school, which are always pleasing in the hands of such artists. Happy Jack Rogers in a black face novelty was a riot. His songs were good, and he put them over in original style. No photoplay offering on Saturday.

Saturday Matinee And Night.

In the dainty and bowditching musical comedy "The Only Girl" which was such a big hit here recently and returns by popular demand to the Grand, on Saturday, April 15th, matinee and night, there is an entire song and story, beautifully told, harmoniously blended possessing consistent continuity of the romantic kind. It is well laden with clever satire and it can truthfully be stated that it is one of the most seductive and dainty plays that has been offered to the public for a number of seasons. Proper attention was given to every detail of the production especially to the costuming of all the participants. There are hosts of pretty girls in the cast. The scenes, of which there are three, are located in New York. One of the features of the performance is an augmented orchestra including a harp soloist.

At the Strand.

The feature photo-play shown at the Strand yesterday is one of the finest ever seen here. It is a Triangle play in 5 acts entitled "Aloha Oe," or "Farewell to Thee," and features Willard Mack and Enid Markey, who both appear to good advantage in a story of love and adventure. The scenes in this wonderful production have to be seen for one to realize the magnitude of same. The wrecking of a steamer, the hero being washed ashore, the burning of the heroine at a stake, the eruption of a volcano, are among the many truly marvellous scenes shown in this beautiful and entrancing film. "Fatty Arbuckle," Raymond Hitchcock and Flora Zabelle amuse in a 2-reel Keystone, "The Village Scandal," which four other good reels complete a particularly strong bill.

OBITUARY

The Late George Sears

"Uncle" George Sears, a well-known music lover of Toronto, died at his home, 57 Pembroke street, Toronto, on Thursday. Mr. Sears celebrated his seventy-seventh birthday last September and was born in New York City, where for some years he had been interested in the publishing and brokerage business. Twenty-five years ago he removed to Toronto and was a governor of the Toronto Conservatory of Music and always a strong supporter of the Symphony Orchestra. Around the Royal Canadian Yacht Club he was a well-known figure, and many an artist and musician owes his present stand from the kindly hand held out by "Uncle George." He is survived by several nieces and nephews. Mrs. Luman Sherwood of Ottawa, Mrs. Fred. Spooner of Leithbridge, Mrs. George Sears, Starr Lake, N.Y., and Major Winthrop Sears of 33rd Battery in England.

He was a brother of the late Robt. Sears, "Hillfield," whom he frequently visited. The deceased had been an invalid for seven years, having suffered an accident on the Toronto street railway. His sister, the late Mrs. Humphries, lived with him for many years.

The Late Mrs. Edward Bennett.

The death occurred in Toronto on April 12th of Mrs. Edward Bennett, aged fifty-nine years, at her home, 551A Bloor street west. Deceased was a former resident of Kingston, but for the past two years had resided in Toronto. For fifteen years she made her home in this city. Deceased is survived by her husband and one son, John. She was a member of Queen Street Methodist Church. The remains are being brought to Kingston for burial. Rev. G. I. Campbell will officiate at the service.

GOVERNMENT VENDORS

To Dispense Liquor In Ontario During Prohibition.

Toronto, April 14.—Wholesale vendors employed by the Government will dispense liquor in Ontario after prohibition goes into effect. Announcement involving this important change in the arrangement was made in Legislature last night by Hon. W. J. Hanna, Provincial Secretary, during consideration of the temperance bill. The Government had been hoping that this trade would be handled by wholesale druggists, but it transpired that the wholesale druggists prefer to have nothing to do with the business.

However, a fool and his money are a combination you don't meet every day.

The examinations at Queen's University will close on Tuesday next.
