THERAPION
THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER
No two persons' eyes are exactly alike. Glasses that correct one person's vision will probably injure another's.
Each eye must be examined separately. We prescribe glasses only after the most careful examination with scientific instruments.
Every lens we supply is ground specially for each case in our own factory.
You are assured accuracy and prompt service in trusting your eyes with us. Appointments made for any evening.

THE PATRIOTIC FUND
COMMITTEE DECIDES TO ENFORCE PAYMENT.
Of Amount Subscribed—The General Committee Is To Meet Shortly For Reorganization.
There was a meeting of the finance committee of the Canadian Patriotic Fund on Saturday afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms. The accounts for April from the relief committee, amounting to $5,922.30, were passed. Incidentally it was learned that of the total sum subscribed by the citizens towards the Patriotic Fund, $51,400, the sum of $47,100 had been collected. Between now and September it is expected that $3,900 more will be paid in. It was reported that there is about $300 overdue, and that there was a manifest disposition on the part of some persons to pay the amounts that they subscribed. The committee authorized the publication of a notice to the effect that these accounts, if not paid at once, or if something were not paid upon them, collection would be enforced.
It is deemed expedient to call a meeting of the general Patriotic Fund for next month and for the election of officers. Some changes have been made in the personnel of the committee so far as the Council is concerned, and it is only right that the citizens on their part should make any change they see fit in their representatives.
There will, therefore, be a meeting of the general committee very soon for a discussion of the whole situation, and an election of officers for the current year.

LATE SAMUEL FREE AT THE POLICE COURT
AGED RESIDENT DIED SUDDENLY SUNDAY AFTERNOON.
Born in Ireland Eighty-six Years Ago and Came to Kingston in 1846—Overseer At Building of Court House.
Samuel Free, 286 Earl street, died suddenly on Sunday afternoon. He had been ill recently, but had almost recovered. Old age was the cause of death. The deceased was born in the county of Wicklow, Ireland, in the year 1830. He came to Canada in 1846, and settled in Kingston. In 1852 he was married to Mary Ann Abrahams, of Kingston. He was foreman for the late R. Tossel in the building trade for twenty-seven years, during which time he was overseer at the building of the Court House and many of the important buildings in this city. Later he purchased a farm in Pittsburg township, and farmed for some years. About fifteen years ago he retired and lived in Kingston ever since.
He is survived by his wife, four sons and three daughters: Ex-Alderman Robert J. Free, Kingston; William Free, Dauphin, Manitoba; Thomas Free, Kamsack, Sask.; Samuel Free, Hamilton; Mrs. C. B. Poutley, Peterboro; Mrs. Robert Ballantyne, Ballantyne Station; Mrs. C. F. Katzbach, Hamilton. Nineteen grandchildren and five great-grandchildren also survive.
Mr. Free was a member of Sydenham Street Methodist Church and a Conservative in politics.

CONCLUDED SERVICES.
Harvey Angrove Removes From the City This Week.
Harvey Angrove completed his connection with Queen Street Methodist Church, as bass soloist on Sunday evening, and was the subject of complimentary remarks by the pastor, who expressed the feeling of the congregation on his excellent service, and wished him very great prosperity in the days to come. He hoped that his splendid voice might be heard in the choirs of other places as it had been in Kingston. Mr. Angrove is completing his medical course at Queen's University. He leaves on Wednesday for Montreal to act as house surgeon in one of the Montreal hospitals.
After the evening service the members of the choir gathered and presented Mr. Angrove with a hypodermic instrument. A. J. Pettigrew made the presentation.

HOME FROM THE FRONT.
Major Frederick McKelvey Bell Has Arrived in Ottawa.
Major Frederick McKelvey Bell, a former Kingstonian, who has been serving at the front, arrived in Ottawa on Saturday, coming over from England on the S.S. Scandinavia.
Major Bell had been in France until about two months ago, when he joined Lieut.-Col. Shillington's staff in England. He will spend three or four weeks in Canada, and is expected to come to Kingston to visit with relatives the first of next week. Dr. J. H. Bell, of Hamilton, will come to Kingston to meet him.
Get After the Dogs.
The Whig is reminded that during the time the dogs were taxed the receipt in taxes were limited. In 1907 they amounted to $568; in 1908, $277; in 1909, $281; in 1910, $265. As against this under the license system the collections grew. In 1904 the receipts from dog licenses were $708, and there has been a slight gain annually since. Very good. But the Whig on a former occasion dealt with a time far preceding this when a dog commissioner made the pursuit of the vagrant canine his chief business. It is ridiculous to suppose that any system that is not searching can produce complete results. Some one has to be a special officer in order to see that the dogs are duly numbered and taxed, and without such an officer there is bound to be a lot of dogs untaxed. The assessor cannot find them. They are, when he passes on, arrested, kept out of the way. He assesses all he sees and can learn anything about, but if every dog without a tag were shot or impounded there would be either more of them taxed or fewer of them at large.

ONE MAN GOES ON THE LIST AND TWO OTHERS WERE FINED—GERMAN WHO HAS BEEN DRINKING GIVEN FURTHER REMAND.
Everything will be all right with James Wright if right off the bat he enlists, not for service overseas, but as a member of the "prohibited list." Wright was just a little bit worse Saturday and that was the cause of his trouble. If he had made the clear jump over the pond, he might have escaped the law. He was drunk on Princess street, and Constable Fatterson took him in charge. He was very mad because he was accosted by the police constable and endeavored to show some fight.
"Are you willing to go on the list again?" asked Magistrate Farrell of Wright.
"All right," said Wright.
"I will give you a chance then," said the Magistrate.
"All right sir," said Wright.
Exit Wright.
Joseph Love was drunk and all he had to say to the Magistrate was "Yes sir." Constables Gaham and Sargeant nipped him. A payment of $1 and costs will secure his freedom; otherwise he will serve ten days.
"Sir," said Edward Tyson, who was among the week-end drunks when the charge was read against him. He was also touched for a fine of $1 and costs.
A case of using abusive language was staged, but the complainant withdrew the charge, and this put the closure on the evidence. However, it costs money to bring a case that far into court, and the man accused promised to pay the costs of the court.
Henry Polax, a German, has been on remand for a couple of weeks. While in his cups, he sees a great deal more than the ordinary man. For instance he can see men hunting him down with revolvers, ready to shoot him in Nick Carter fashion, the very moment they get a glance at him. Poor Henry is in very bad shape. A doctor stated that he was mentally unbalanced, and that he was not fit to be allowed at large. For this reason, Magistrate Farrell gave him a further remand of one week.

JUDGMENT FOR PLAINTIFF.
Judge Lavell gave judgment for the plaintiff with costs, in the case of Davis vs. the Northern Assurance Company. The plaintiff's claim was for the recovery of $650, the amount of insurance on the ship Laura D., owned by the plaintiff. A. B. Cunningham acted for the plaintiff. J. E. Madden of Nanapanoe for the defendants.

Want Log Removed.
Local motor boat men are asking for the removal of a big log which has been anchored in the water near the big span of the Catarqui bridge. The log was used by the contractors, but it is stated that it is not required now, and the motor boat men would like to have it removed, as it is a hindrance to them in bringing their boats in at night.

"IT GROWS ON ANY SOIL." Kentucky Lawn Grass Seed from Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store.
The rummage sale held by the committee in charge of the Infants Home, in St. George's Hall on Saturday was a great success. The ladies realized the sum of $215.
Don't scold a child for being cross. Try Rexall Ointment, as the trouble is probably with the bowels. Sold only by Rexall Drug Stores, 15c and 25c boxes. Geo. W. Mahood.
Chickens are quite scarce around here, and there is a steady demand. Quantities have had to be brought here from Toronto. The price is twenty-five cents a pound.

Gave A Dickens Recital.
On Saturday evening Frank Speaight of New York gave a very enjoyable recital of Dickens in the Strand Theatre. The entertainment was thoroughly appreciated by a large audience. He proved to be a good interpreter of the famed author's work. After the entertainment the members of the 53rd Battery, under whose auspices the event was held, entertained Mr. Speaight at a dinner.
