—What the Merchants Offer to the Readers of the Whig.

Camphor Balls at Gibson's. Mrs. Frederick Bartlett, Peterboro, has been called to Kingston by the death of her father.

Pianos for rental, C. W. Lindsay, Limited. Now is the time to secure one for your summer home.

Ald. George Laturney commenced his duties as warden's clerk at the penitentiary on Monday morning.

D. Craig, Brock street, has almost fully recovered from his recent operation in the General Hospital.

H. Cunningham, piano tuner, 21 King street. Leave orders at McCall's Book Store.

The will of the late Edwin Thomas, who was killed at the front, was entered for probate before Judge La-well on Monday.

Miss Laura M. Staples of the Royal Bank, Woodstock, has come to Kingston where she has accepted an appointment in the Civil Service.

Harvey Angrove, Queen street, leaves on Thursday for Montreal to take a position as house surgeon in the Verdun Hospital for the insane.

"Good seed makes good lawns." Use Kentucky Lawn Seed from Gibson's.

"Jack" Renton, accidentally shot two weeks ago, was able to leave the General Hospital on Friday for his home. He has had a splendid recovery.

Good fresh seed makes a beautiful lawn. Kentucky Lawn Seed from Gibson's Red Cross Drug store has no equal.

Special Passover services are being conducted in the Jewish Synagogue on Queen street, commencing Monday evening and continuing Tuesday night.

It is expected that work will be commenced in a short time on the new Roman Catholic Church which is to be erected at Wolfe Island on the present church site.

"Fresh garden seeds" at Gibson's. Pte. "Rusty" Marshall, 21st Battalion, is, according to a letter received on Saturday by his wife, in the Base Hospital at Salisbury Plain. It is unlikely that he will return to the front in the near future.

Moith Camphor at Gibson's. Another Whig employee has done the khaki, in the person of George Geary of the staff of the Whig press office. He has enlisted in the Army Dental Corps and will proceed overseas in the near future.

Sprinkle your lawn with Kentucky Lawn Grass Seed. Sold at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store.

W. O. Hart, London, England, accompanied by his wife and little son, Laurence, were in the city on Saturday. Mrs. Hart and son are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Savage, Montreal street, while Mr. Hart is in Toronto on business.

Moith Camphor at Gibson's. Provost, Brock street, has this year an extra fine assortment of Tweeds, Cheviots and Serges for his order clothing department. His ready-made clothing and gents' furnishing departments are well-assorted with new goods.

Alice Greenwood, a domestic employed at a Barrie street residence, was overcome by gas on Sunday night. There was a slight leak in the gas pipe. She was taken to the General Hospital where she soon recovered.

Sprinkle your lawn with Kentucky Lawn Seed. From Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store.

A cabman received on Monday announced that George Ewart Gladstone Oldrieve, son of Mrs. G. S. Oldrieve, Wellington street, had been wounded by gunshot. He is in hospital at Boulogne. He went to front with 27th Battalion of Winnipeg.

The proprietors of the Belleville Ontario are hustling to make the paper a big success and the six years of their ownership has worked wonders. They are now installing linotypers and a Miehle press of the fast type. The stirring partners are congratulated on their enterprise.

Moith Camphor at Gibson's. George McGrath, found guilty of manslaughter at Toronto, was sentenced to fifteen years in penitentiary. McGrath was tried for the murder of Thomas McKibbin on January 31st in a house on Bulwer avenue. Jealousy over a woman seemed to be responsible for his action.

A Memorial Tree. To mark the first anniversary of death of Lieut. Calvin Day, who fell at the battle of Langemarck, the board of Sydenham Street Methodist Church has given a tree to be planted in Macdonald Park, on Saturday afternoon next. Rev. Alfred Brown, pastor of the church, will officiate and addresses will be made by W. F. Nickle, M.P., J. W. Edwards, M.P.P., Mayor Richardson and Major Poston.

Everyone Getting Them. The 146th Battalion is sending out letters asking for recruits. One appeal was sent to a young Kingstonian who has been in the trenches several months, another was received by a man eighty-six years of age, and another by a man who is suffering from rheumatism. The officers of this battalion have evidently made up their mind that none shall escape the appeal.

A new decoration for award to the rank and file of the army has been instituted by the King, known as the Military Medal, ranking after the D. C. M. and before all war medals, and the first Military Medal was bestowed on a Canadian soldier, Corp. Richard Miller, 1st Battalion.

Gen. Plehve, formerly commander of Russia's northern army, is dead.
