WAS AT BARRIEFIELD

At Time Girl Claims She Married

Him In Toronto. That Corporal Stephen Thomas Standing, whom Bertha Allen, a domestic living in Ottawa alleged went through a form of marriage with her at Toronto on June 6th, 1915, was not in Toronto on that date, but was with the C. M. R. at Barriefield camp, is the latest in th matrimonial tangle at the Capital, reference to which was made in the Whig on Saturday. A member of the C. M. R. declares that he saw standing at Barriefield on the date the girl says she married him in Toronto. The statement is made by ex-Sergt. A. Hugg. now in the employ-ment of the Ottawa Electric Railway, who says he fixes the date by the fact that the 8th C. M. R. had scarcely been in Barriefield camp a about a new Eureka Electric Vacuum week before the date in question and Cleaner or a Bissell's Carpet Sweepthat no passes for leave were granted the men, with six exceptions, and that Stephen Thomas Standing did O'Cedar Mops and Dust Cloths, in not receive one of them.
