

FRENCH ALPINISTS SOMEWHERE IN VOSGES MTS. SETTING UP AN INGENIOUS METHOD FOR ANTI-AEROPLANE GUNS.
The wing seen in the picture is mounted on a wagon so as to facilitate the shifting from one position to another. Meanwhile the gun can be taken out in case of emergency and carried away, leaving the rest behind. Pressed air is also used for quick maneuvering, turned to any direction as the case may be.

SUBTERRANEAN ARSENAL IN VOSGES MOUNTAINS.
Showing a squad of French Chasseurs putting on the finishing touches to the dreaded seventy-fives. Photo is made by a member of the photographic corps in southern France. It illustrates the manner in which a time fuse is attached to a shell.

THE INTERIOR OF MILITARY BAKING SHOP.
The baskets seen in the picture are used for the measuring of the dough. The idea can easily be formed by the size of the baskets, the size of the loaves when they are ready.

M. POINCARÉ, THE FRENCH PRESIDENT, VISITS THE SOLDIERS IN THE TRENCHES IN THE MEUSE DISTRICT.
President Poincaré has paid many visits to the front since the beginning of the war. He has manifested a personal interest in the men on the field of battle.

AUSTRIAN PRISONERS IN ITALY.
An unusual photograph showing a vast crowd of Austrian prisoners who have been taken by the Italians along the Gorizia front. They are attending a mass in the city of Udine, Italy, which is being conducted by an Italian priest.

This French chef in arranging a shelter for his kitchen has unknowingly constructed a picturesque setting.

French Official Photograph from the Verdun front showing a company of French Infantry being rushed to the front along one of the many miniature railroads which form a network over the country.