there would have been no war. We British women think the same as the men. We are heart and soul with the men in the carrying on of the war.

The speaker gave a graphic account of the part women are taking in the war, some going so far as to take their places in the trenches with their husbands while others went disguised as men.

On motion of Miss Machar, a vote of thanks was tendered Miss Derrick for her able address.

Miss Harvey, B.A., of Toronto, was unable to be present, to deliver her address in "The Bureau of Employment For Women," so Miss Machar, of Ottawa, gave a very interesting synopsis of the address on this subject.

DR. EDWARDS OMITTED. To Ask About Red Headed And Bald-Headed Men.

Ottawa Citizen. Dr. John Wesley Edwards, M. P. Frontenac, has the following list of questions on the order paper, for the acting-minister of militia to answer:

- 1.—How many officers, N.C.O.'s and men have enlisted in Canada for overseas service during January, February and March of 1916? 2.—How many enlisted from each province during the first three months of 1916? 3.—How many enlisting from each province, were, respectively, British subjects born outside of Canada, French Canadians, German Canadians, and English Canadians (that is, Canadians of English, Scotch, Irish or Welsh descent)? 4.—How many of those enlisting from each province during the first three months of 1916 were, respectively, Methodists, Presbyterians, Roman Catholics, Anglicans and other denominations? 5.—By a grave oversight, question No. 4, "How many red-haired and how many bald-headed men have enlisted from each province?" would seem to have been omitted!

REV. NORMAN MacLEOD, B. D., Of MacDonald College, Montreal, conducting the services in St. Andrew's Church, Easter Sunday.

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR THE BABY

The best medicine for the baby is the one that never fails to cure and which, at the same time, the mother may give with perfect assurance that it is absolutely safe.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES

Rev. Father Scholly, Toronto, Preached in St. Mary's. Good Friday was duly observed in St. Mary's Cathedral with both morning and evening services.

At St. George's Cathedral. Rev. Walter Cox, rector of Gananoque, conducted the Good Friday service in St. George's Cathedral.

Service at St. James'. There was a good attendance at the special service held in St. James' Church on Good Friday at 10.30 a.m., conducted by the rector, Rev. T. W. Savary, who also conducted a lantern service in the evening, which was well attended.

At Queen Street Church. A service of prayer for those serving at the front was held in Queen Street Methodist Church Friday evening. A number of lantern slides were shown and were explained by Robert Meek.

At the Y.M.C.A. A sunrise prayer meeting was held by the Local Union of Christian Endeavor in the Y.M.C.A. parlors on Friday morning at seven o'clock.

Fresh garden seeds. Dr. Chown. The sacredness of a promise is of small concern to too many.

Money may be rightfully considered a comforter and a trouble. Encouragement is always welcome in every condition in life.

Eden-Henderson Nuptials: On Thursday Afternoon. A wedding of interest to Kingstonians was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Henderson, 581 Lansdowne Avenue, Westmount, on Thursday afternoon, when their daughter, Mabel Spencer was united in marriage to William Andrew Eden of Montreal, son of Mrs. George C. Eden, of Woodstock, the Rev. Dr. William J. Clark officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked very lovely in her gown of white tulle, and the court train, an heirloom in the family, being of beautiful brocade. The bodice of tulle and French lace was caught at the corsage with orange blossoms and the long veil over the pretty fair hair. She carried a shower of roses and lilies.

The bridesmaids, Miss Ruth Henderson, sister of the bride, and Miss
