

GERMANY CAUSES RIOTS IN DUBLIN, IRELAND

GERMAN BATTLESHIPS SURPRISE ENGLAND

Attack Lowestoft East Coast--Several People Killed--Driven Off By British Ships--Zeppelin Attack Followed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, April 25.--A German squadron has appeared off the Eng-off Lowestoft at 4 a.m. to-day, but was driven off, the Admiralty announced this afternoon.

This is the first time a German squadron has appeared off the English east coast since the bombardment of Scarborough and other English east coast towns on December 16th, 1914.

Several Killed. Two men, one woman and one child were killed and several were injured when a shell from German warships dropped in Lowestoft this morning.

The material damage was slight, the Admiralty said. The Germans were courageously attacked by small British torpedo boats and light cruisers in the vicinity at the time, and after twenty minutes' spirited fighting, turned about and swiftly departed in an easterly direction. Several British ships were hit by German shells, but the damages were slight.

CHILD'S HAIR BURNED OFF BY LIGHTNING. It Did Her No Other Harm--Knocked Down Pipe, Burned Soldier. Meriton, April 25.--A strange freak of lightning was performed here, a chimney on the house of Pre. H. J. Christie, 176th Overseas Battalion, being struck. The fluid entered an upstairs bedroom, where two children of the soldier lay sleeping, and burned the hair off one little girl's head, but caused the child no other harm. A stovepipe was knocked down, and the lightning descended to the room below, striking Pte. Christie, burning his hip, though not seriously.

AMMUNITION SEIZED. Strange Boat Captured by Authorities in County Kerry. London, April 25.--A telegram from Tralee says a collapsible boat loaded with arms and ammunition was seized by the police of Currahaue Strand. A stranger of unidentified nationality was arrested in the neighborhood.

IS ALEXANDRETTA THE RUSSIAN GOAL? Would Give Mediterranean Port and Link With European Traffic. New York, April 25.--A London cable to the Herald says: In moving out from Erzurum in the direction of Erzingan, the Russians are carrying their advance further to the westward than in any previous military operations in Armenia.

WISCONSIN'S GOVERNOR INVESTIGATES Conditions in Penitentiary. Wausau, Wis., April 25.--E. L. Phillips, millionaire governor of Wisconsin, has just spent two days in the Wisconsin state prison. Somebody told the governor that the Wisconsin prison was as bad as Sing Sing. Hearing this, the changed warden, ordered stricter discipline and then went to jail himself to study the conditions there. The impressions that he gained will now be used in reforming the system.

AMERICANS GET PASSPORTS To Leave Berlin--The Situation Is Grave. (Special to the Whig.) Berlin, April 25.--United States Ambassador Gerard conferred for an hour with the German Chancellor yesterday and left looking very grave. He said he couldn't speak for three or four days. Many Americans are getting passports and leaving Berlin.

PROMISES TO PRISONERS. On the appointed day Casement was introduced to the camp. He mounted a box and made an anti-English speech. He told the prisoners of Germany was the devoted friend of Ireland and would never treat Ireland as she had treated Belgium, but would exalt the Irish into a self-governing people who could defy their ancestral tyrants, the English.

RAIN CAUSED BY WAR. London, April 25.--Many old fashioned people in England believe that the war on the continent has confirmed the story that heavy concussions bring down rain. The past March has made a record for all history as a wet spring month. The rainfall officially recorded in London was 4.67 inches, against an average in March of 1.75. The number of wet days in the month was twenty-two. It rained for 133.6 hours, and there was only fifty-one hours of sunshine. These figures are for London.

DUNKIRK WAS BOMBED By Five German War Planes--Four People Killed. (Special to the Whig.) Paris, April 25.--Five German warplanes raided the French coast town. One woman was killed and three men were wounded. The War Office announced that only slight damage was done.

GERMANS DOCTORING PRINCE. Geneva, April 25.--It is reported from Vienna that a consultation of doctors has been held in the case of Prince Mirko of Montenegro, who is now in a sanitarium at the Austrian capital. The conference a medical bulletin was issued stating that the Prince was suffering from pulmonary trouble with a rise in temperature, but that he was in no immediate danger.

CASEMENT CAUGHT BY THE BRITISH

Aboard German Auxiliary Trying to Smuggle Arms Into Ireland--Riots in Dublin And Post Office Seized.

London, April 25.--Sir Roger Casement has been captured from a German ship which attempted to land arms in Ireland and was sunk. This official announcement was made tonight as follows: During the period between the afternoon of April 20th and the forenoon of April 21st an attempt to land arms and ammunition in Ireland was made by a vessel under the guise of a neutral merchant ship, but which in reality was a German auxiliary, in conjunction with a German submarine.

CASEMENT GERMANY'S FRIEND. New York, April 25.--The British Government has exhibited a keen desire to get hold of Sir Roger Casement as a friend of Germany in the present war. It has been freely predicted that if the impulsive knight ever should fall into English hands, he would end his days in front of a firing squad in the Tower of London. That probability is obviously much strengthened by the circumstances of his capture in the very act of leading a German filibustering expedition to the coast of Ireland.

MIND AFFECTED BY TROPICS. Many who knew him before the war believe, with Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, that the tropics undermined his health and his mental stability to an extent that explains his actions under the stress of the excitement of the past two years.

WELCOMED BY GERMANY. Germany was looking for Irish sympathizers. It offered a welcome to Sir Roger Casement, whose title, official career and presumed influence with his countrymen made him seem a valuable instrument for the execution of German plans.
