St. James' Church,

A year of progress was shown by the reports which were presented at the vestry meeting at St. James' church on Monday night. At 6.30 o'clock, the members sat down to a fine dinner, provided by the Anglican Young Women's Association, after which the business meeting was proceeded with Rev. T. W. Savary

The report of the rector showed every department of the church's activities to be in splendid condition. Every department showed progress. The financial statement was presented by the wardens and showed a small balance on hand, notwithstanding the fact that about $600 had been spent this year on improvements to the church buildings. During the evening, St. James' church male quartette rendered several selections which were much appreciated by the large number present. J. Farrar was appointed rector's warden, and W. N. Linten was elected people's warden. Francis King was re-elected delegate to the Ontario Synod, for the ensuing three years. The fund for the new memorial hall showed a balance of $5.500 on hand. A committee was appointed for the purpose of adding $3,000 to this amount during the coming year, and it is hoped that building operations will be commenced next spring. The following were elected members of the Advisory Board: W. J. Murray, J. K. Carroll, Francis King, Frederick Welch, W. H. Dalby, S. C. Smith, J. S. R. McCann, H. Sharpe, G. E. Hague, H. H. Taylor, R. E. Genge, N. McCaig, J. Farrar and W.

When the Lieutenant-Governor on Thursday, gives the Royal assent to the various bills that have been enacted into law in the Ontario Legislature, the member for Frontenac, M. Rankin, will probably lead all private members with the amount of legislation that he has handled this session. Owing to the absence of Lieut-Col. Ross at the front, Mr. Rankin has been charged with the care of two constituencies, as well as assisting the government in many ceipts of $76.35, of which $60 was matters that have demanded the practical attention of men from outside ridings so that proposed legislation should accomplish its end > without confusion. Some of the legislation that Mr. Rankin piloted through the House is: City of Kingston bill, bill to amalgamate the School of Mines and Queen's University, a bill permitting municipal councils to increase the poll tax to $5.00 per year, an amendment to the Ontario Highway Act so that any party to a county road scheme where a suburban area is defined much appoint its representagive to the commission within thirty days after receiving notice from
