ZAM-BUK

Mothers who have used Zam-Buk say it is so fine for the many little accidents of daily occurrence in the home—and especially where there are children—that they would not be without it. Not only so, but children who have had Zam-Buk applied to an injury or sore, when again injured, cry for Zam-Buk to be applied. They know that Zam-Buk stops pain. Nothing ends the pain of a cut, bruise, burn, or skin disease like Zam-Buk; and nothing soothes, draws out the soreness and heals so quickly.

Mrs. I. Wilson of Sarnia, Ont., says: "I could not do without Zam-Buk for my children. It is the best ointment we have ever used for burns, sores and cuts."

Mrs. L. B. Andresen of 1407 E. 22d St., Minneapolis, Minn., writes: "When any of the children, my wife or self meet with an accident, we immediately apply Zam-Buk. It has saved us many a doctor's bill."

Mrs. C. B. Ritey of Riverport, N.S., writes: "My baby had sores on her face, caused by teething. Zam-Buk completely healed them."

Zam-Buk is equally good for eczema, ringworm, running sores, blood-poison, ulcers, abscesses, skin, boils and pimples. All druggists, 50c. box. Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Send 1c. stamp for free trial.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe on the outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation. To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water, before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

BANQUET OF VETERANS

TO COMMEMORATE THE BATTLE OF LANGEMARCK

Was Held On Monday Evening—Addresses Delivered—Major R. D. Ponton Was One of the Guests.

One of the most successful banquets held in the city for some time was that given by the Kingston Veterans' Association on Monday evening in Queen Street Sunday School Hall to commemorate the battle of Langemarck which occurred a year ago. There were about 200 in attendance. The banquet was all that could be desired and in keeping with the reputation that Sergt.-major Tierney made for himself and staff at Barrield camp. The sergeant-major was assisted by the members of the Veterans, Ladies' Auxiliary in an able manner. During the dinner the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, under the baton of Lieut. Alfred Light, rendered patriotic and popular airs that were greatly appreciated. Judging from the hearty encore that followed each number.

Following the banquet the secretary of the Veterans' Association who occupied the chair at the request of Lieut.-Col. Spooner, introduced the guests of honor at the head of the table. They were: Col. C. N. Ferrens, Commandant, Royal Military College; Lieut.-Col. R. J. Gardiner, A.D.M.S., Military District No. 3; W. F. Nickle, M.P.; Major and Mrs. R. D. Ponton, Belleville, and Capt. James Sutherland, quartermaster of the 146th Battalion.

Mr. Nickle gave an address of rare eloquence. He referred in opening to the regret expressed by Dr. J. W. Edwards M.P., at his inability to be present. He had gone to Arden where a tablet to the memory of the late Lieut. Mouck was being unveiled. The toast that Mr. Nickle responded to was "Canada and the Empire." It is difficult yet to thoroughly know just what effect the declaration of war had on the people of Canada. Nevertheless Canada has already supplied over 300,000 men and the prospects were that its contribution would be about a million men. Mr. Nickle remarked that the celebration of first great battle of the First Canadian Contingent was certainly appropriate. He stated that Canada's pension system was good but it had to be better. It had been estimated that if 100,000 men were in the field for one year it would take $7,500,000 to maintain that scale.

As a member of Parliament, Mr. Nickle said that he intended to do everything in his power to have even a higher scale of pensions arranged for and that every consideration be given to the men who had gone overseas and done their bit.

"Our City's Soldiers," was replied to by Lieut.-Col. C. A. Low, commanding the 146th Battalion. The colonel said that he had been in Hamilton when the battle of Langemarck was fought and his first thought was the possibility of going. Being married and having a big business to look after, he put off the first impulse to get into it. Later, however, the need for more men became imperative and he was fortunate in being offered a command which he now had. To recruit men in Kingston and district had been a difficult matter but after a great amount of consistent hard work the 1,000 mark had almost been reached.

Major Ponton replying to "The Boys of the Old Brigade" gave one of the most interesting addresses heard here in some time. He was with the 2nd Battalion through Langemarck. Referring to Ottawa, the speaker told of the banquet held there Saturday night when with eight other officers he had drawn a silent toast to those who had fallen in that memorable battle. The people of the country are doing a wonderful work in support of the men in the trenches. His greatest friends were the men who had been with him through Neuve Chappelle, Givaghy, Festubert, Langemarck or Ypres. These men were able to stay in the game because the line of communication with home had been kept up through the earnest effort of Canadians, and particularly credit in this regard must be given the Canadian women.

In regard to the agitation about Quebec. "It is not the men in khaki

"WHY WOMEN CANNOT SLEEP"

The highly organized, finely strung nervous system of women subjects them to torments of nervous apprehension which no man can ever appreciate.

The peace of mind, the mental poise and calmness under difficulties, which are necessary for happy womanhood, are only possible when the sensitive organism is in a perfectly healthy condition. If there be any derangement in this respect no remedy in the world so completely restores womanly health as the wonderful "Favorite Prescription" invented by Dr. R. V. Pierce.

Chatham, Ont.—"A few years ago I suffered a general break-down and got very weak and thin. I was in an awful state. I was very much discouraged and at times thought I would lose my mind. I knew of Dr. Pierce's medicine so I got his 'Favorite Prescription.' It gave me immediate relief, and completely cured me in a very short time. My sister used it with good results also. She was in a very delicate condition. I got her to take it and two bottles cured her completely."

"I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's medicine; they are all that is recommended of them."—Mrs. MARGARET BENTLEY, 57 Park Ave., Chatham, Ont.

who are worrying but those who are not going themselves." These troubles can be all straightened out as soon as the war is over but in the meantime the major said that every person should make a united stand in helping the Empire. His last words were to help the men who are coming back and to do everything possible for them when they deserve much.

"I am glad to know that the historic field of Langemarck is now being defended by the famous 21st, a worthy partner to the noble 2nd," he concluded.

Capt. G. I. Campbell, chaplain of the 146th mentioned the fact that a late report had been that another member of Queen street church in the person of W. S. Earle had fallen. He was one of many hero-members of this church.

In reply to the chairman who extended the sincere thanks of the Veterans' Association for the use of the church on Sunday and Monday evenings, Capt. Campbell said that everything possible would always be done by the church for the soldiers.

During the evening a piano duet was given by the two little Misses Hunter, daughters of Q.M.S. Hunter who is overseas with the 53rd Battalion. W. Shaw sang a solo in splendid voice.

LETTERS WERE RECEIVED.

Extending Thanks To Glenburnie Red Cross Society.

The president of the Red Cross Society at Glenburnie, has received two letters from the front, in which the Society is warmly thanked for the donation of socks. One letter is from Major W. A. Mitchell, and the other from Lieut. W. A. de Graves, officer commanding No. 4 Company of the First Canadian Division.

In his letter Lieut. Mitchell says that he is in receipt of five parcels, each containing two dozen pair of socks, through R. Waldron, from the Red Cross Society of Glenburnie, for which he returns thanks on behalf of the officers and men of the Company.

"We have been through an awful wet season," added the writer, "and no person knows the pleasure of having an extra pair of socks to put on than the men out here, when they have no proper facilities for drying boots, and have to put them on wet, sometimes. The people of Canada have certainly been good to us and very thoughtful, and we certainly appreciate their kindness."

Lieut. de Graves stated that the parcel from the Society addressed to Capt. Baxter, who had now left this company, came to hand, and the writer extended thanks for the sending of such useful articles.

"There is nothing which is more useful at all times than socks," says the writer, "and were especially at this season of the year. Such kindness as these will serve to show us how we are at all times remembered by those at home, and so help us to forget our trials out here."

KEPT WEDDING SECRET.

Lieut. J. C. McCuaig in Kingston Taking Course.

Ottawa Free Press. The announcement of the marriage of Jessie R. Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Arnold, of this city, to Lieut. J. C. McCuaig, son of the late N. McCuaig, of Bryson, Que., which took place September 18th, 1915, comes as rather a surprise to many Ottawa people, among whom the young couple are very well known and extremely popular.

The quiet nature and extreme secrecy of the wedding has aroused a great deal of interest amongst their many friends. Mr. McCuaig is well known in athletic circles, having played Rugby for Ottawa for several years. He is at present taking a machine gun course at Kingston, and is an officer in the 207th Battalion.

THEY WERE SCHOOLMATES.

Late Private Torrance Buried Near Lines.

Postmaster James Stewart has received a letter from his son, Major James C. Stewart, in which the latter refers to the sad death of Pte. Samuel Torrance, a former Kingstonian.

"His grave is about one hundred yards away from mine," said the Kingston officer, who added that he and the deceased attended school together in Kingston.

A Death At Switzerville.

A gloom was cast over Switzerville on Saturday morning when death claimed Frederic E. Crozier, aged sixteen, formerly of Mountain Grove. The deceased had been ill for about four weeks suffering from measles, which resulted in inflammatory rheumatism. Everything possible was done in the way of care and medical aid to save the life of the bright and intelligent boy. The funeral, which took place on Monday, was conducted by Rev. Mr. Farnsworth. The body was then conveyed to the vault in the Riverside cemetery, to await burial. The floral tributes were very beautiful. There are left to mourn, a father and mother, four sisters and one brother.
