I OWE MY HEALTH

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Washington Park, Ill.—"I am the mother of four children and have suffered with female trouble, backache, nervous spells and the blues. My children's loud talking and romping would make me so nervous I could just tear everything to pieces and I would ache all over and feel so sick that I would not want anyone to talk to me at times. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills restored me to health and I want to thank you for the good they have done me. I have had quite a bit of trouble and worry but it does not affect my youthful looks. My friends say 'Why do you look so young and well?' I owe it all to the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies. —Mrs. ROBT. STORTEL, Moore Avenue, Washington Park, Illinois.

We wish every woman who suffers from female troubles, nervousness, backache or the blues could see the letters written by women made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you have any symptoms about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free of charge.

News From Eastern Ontario Points

Gananoque

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
May 1.—At St. John's Church at seven o'clock this morning a marriage of interest to many in this section was solemnized when Miss Irene Compeau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Telesphore Compeau, was united in marriage to Lawrence Amo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Amo, Charles street. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Father J. P. Kehoe, rector of St. John's Church. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a dainty wedding breakfast was served, after which the happy couple left to spend part of their honeymoon with relatives in Montreal. The bride has resided here for a number of years and is well known and held in high esteem by her many friends. The groom is a native of this town also highly esteemed. At the outbreak of the war he enlisted with the Gananoque Battery and left with the First Overseas Contingent and did his bit at the front and was afterwards invalided home. Mr. and Mrs. Amo will reside here on their return.

Gananoque Lodge No. 114, I. O. O. F. to the number of 129 officers and members, lined up in parade at 10.30, yesterday morning to attend divine worship in St. Andrew's Church. Rev. C. E. Kidd gave them an interesting address. Bishop Bidwell of Kingston paid his official visit to Christ Church last evening and took charge of the service. He was greeted by a large congregation.

The local squad of the 156th Leeds and Grenville Battalion Church yesterday morning. The steam barges Hinckley and Isabella H. were in port yesterday morning, the latter light and the former with coal for the Steel Co. of Canada.

The coal schooner Horace Taber, (Capt. Archie Oliver), which wintered in Gananoque River, has had her spring clean up and overhauling and pulled out to the Rail Road wharf on Saturday. She cleared light for Oswego this morning for her first cargo of the season for the local trade.

The steamer Britannic made her first call of the season on her way up from Montreal on Saturday evening about eight o'clock, and was here on her return trip yesterday morning.

Rev. Melvin Taylor, D.D., took charge of a memorial service at Pine Grove Church, Pittsburg Circuit, at three o'clock yesterday afternoon for the late Oscar Light, who was killed in action recently at the front. Miss Mildred Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brown of this town, left for New York recently to enter the hospital at Blackwell's Is-

PORT HOPE HAS A BIGAMY CASE.

Mrs. Mary Dovey Has Acquired Too Many Husbands.

Port Hope, May 1.—Mrs. Mary Dovey appeared in the Police Court charged with bigamy. Mary is sixty-five years of age, and was more fortunate than some of her fair sex, having been married three times. Her first husband, Thompson, died several years ago, and then she was united in the bonds of matrimony to John Davey, Bowmanville. Three years ago she left Davey because he would not support her, and since then has been working at the Royal Hotel. Another admirer, one William R. Hoffman, a soldier from Peterboro, came along and won Mary's hand. On the 5th of February last Mary and William were united in marriage, the bride giving her name as Emma Thompson. John Davey, hearing of this marriage, hustled down from Bowmanville, laid information against his wife, and she appeared on a charge of bigamy. In court she pleaded guilty, and was sent down for two months. The third husband, Hoffman, is "Somewhere in France."

A FORMER PEMBROKEITE.

Commands the 68th Battalion of Regina.

Pembroke, May 1.—A former Pembroke citizen, Lieut.-Col. Thomas E. Perrett, son of H. W. Perrett, Clerk of the Surrogate Court, is the commanding officer of a battalion of western troops—the 68th, of Regina, which position he held for six years, and then in 1905, when the division of the territories into provinces took place, he was appointed principal of the provincial normal schools at Regina. Later he resigned to take the position of superintendent of the Regina public schools, which he gave up when appointed commanding officer of the 68th Battalion, raised in that city.

COMMITTED FOR BIGAMY.

Technically Guilty, But He Has Good Record.

Smith's Falls, May 1.—James Havigton who was recently committed to stand his trial upon a charge of bigamy at the next assizes at Perth has retained Whison McCue as counsel to defend him. Probably will elect to have a speedy trial before the County Judge at Perth. While his counsel will admit he is technically guilty yet the intervening period since domestic trouble arose with his former wife some years ago to the present is so full of events a strong case will be made out for clemency if he be found guilty. He has for the past five years been a hardworking industrious man and has been endeavoring to have his two children well cared for and schooled, which is at least an element in his favor.

SOLDIER IN BARREL.

Had Face Blackened—M. P. Found Him Under Platform.

Belleville, May 1.—A young soldier named Simpson, took a notion Saturday to leave his regiment, the 155th. He found his way up street and took flight up a passage way near Graham's evaporator, Pinnacle street. The fellow then crawled under the evaporator platform and in some manner secured black polish for he blackened his face and then shoved himself into a barrel. The military police climbed to the roofs of nearby buildings. One saw a barrel move under the platform and looked, when he saw the "blackened" face of the soldier who was wanted. He was taken to the police station.

KILLED IN ACTION.

A Soldier of the 59th Battalion Is No More.

Brockville, May 1.—Pte. Harry Markus, 59th Battalion, was killed in action on April 10th. While only eighteen years of age, he enlisted in Kingston last spring, and was sent overseas with a draft. Pte. Markus was of Jewish parentage, but was born in Yorkshire, England. In a letter to his parents, who live at 1264 Bloor street, Toronto, dated March 28th, he stated that he had seen a hundred German prisoners who had just been captured. They looked to be worn out, and did not seem to care whether they were captured or not. A brother, Pte. Markus, is with the 124th Battalion.

THE DISTRICT NEWS.

Clipped From the Whig's Many Bright Exchanges.

Mrs. (Rev.) Samuel Sing died on Friday at her residence, 132 Jameson avenue, Toronto. Her remains were interred at Belleville.

Mrs. Nancy Brown, widow of James Brown, Owen Sound, passed away on Saturday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. H. P. Knight, Belleville. Deceased was seventy-seven years of age.

Lt.-Col. T. C. D. Bedell, O.C. 156th Leeds and Grenville and the staff officers are engaged in perfecting the details for the big recruiting trek which will start from the headquarters, Brockville, on Tuesday morning.

Town Clerk Dewey, Brockville, has received a report from Prof. W. Connell, bacteriologist of Queen's University, that the samples of water sent from here and examined by him since the chlorine gas apparatus was installed are entirely free from contamination.

TAFFETA AND CHIFFON.
The simple but original little frock of taffeta shown in the sketch has a blouse of self-tone chiffon and a bodice or jumper which is hardly more than a bib and is made of the taffeta. This bib is embroidered on its edge and it buttons down the centre front. The skirt is a two-tiered affair, the upper flounce being a sort of elongated peplum. Both flounces are accordion pleated and very full.
