

CLOTHES THAT ARE SURE TO PLEASE

SNAPPY STYLES
In the
SEASON'S NEW-EST PATTERNS

Clothes of Character and satisfaction for men, both young and old. The real up-to-date, snappy dresser finds in these somewhat extreme suits that which will please his most fastidious taste. The coats have the long soft rolling arched lapels that are so popular; large patch pockets, the narrow shoulder effect and semi-form fitting gives a real swing to the model which is very pleasing. The careful, prudent man is exact in the selection of his personal attire. Our complete line of high grade furnishings enables every man to maintain a proper appearance even on limited incomes. Investigate and be convinced.

WALDRON'S

WHIG LOCATES GIRL

WHO CAME TO KINGSTON FROM IVANHOE IN MARCH.

She Disappeared From View—Treated in Hotel Dieu, and Now Working For a Kingston Family.

"What has become of Miss Blanche Delyea, aged sixteen years, of Madoc? This is the question which Mrs. Younge, R. M. D. No. 3, asked the Whig to answer.

On Saturday an advertisement appeared in the Whig asking the whereabouts of Miss Delyea, who was supposed to be working in Kingston.

The Whig also received the following letter from I. N. O'Brien, R. M. D. No. 3:

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Younge have recently moved on a farm near here, at Rimington, coming here from near Ivanhoe, at which place they had a young girl working for them named Blanche Delyea. Miss Delyea went to Kingston last winter to work, promising to keep in touch with Mrs. Younge. During March she worked at the Hotel Dieu, Kingston, the last Mrs. Younge heard of her was when she was there. Since then Mrs. Younge has written several letters to Kingston trying to locate her, without success.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Younge came to me to send a telegram to the Hotel Dieu to find out if she could be there or where she is. I called the Hotel Dieu on the phone for Mrs. Younge, asking for Miss Blanche Delyea, but was informed she was not there and they did not know where she was. Mrs. Younge is very anxious about Miss Delyea, as she is young and inexperienced and has no friends in Kingston. She wants to have Miss Delyea come back and stay with her, this being the understanding with Miss Delyea when she went away. I advised Mrs. Younge the best thing she could do would be to insert an advertisement in the Kingston British Whig.

On Saturday afternoon a Whig representative made enquiries from the authorities at the Hotel Dieu hospital, and J. W. Bradshaw, County Clerk, and was able to find out where the young lady is working. According to Mr. Bradshaw, Miss Delyea is employed by Mrs. W. G. McArthur, corner of Earl and Victoria streets.

Miss Delyea came to the city some months ago and entered the Hotel Dieu, where she received medical attention. After leaving that institution Mr. Bradshaw saw that she got a situation.

News of Troops in the City

(See also page 12.)

Ten men from the 50th (Queen's) Battery were transferred and went overseas with the R. C. H. A. draft. Harold J. Farrar of Queen's University, C. O. T. C., is acting as assistant cadet instructor at the Collegiate Institute to Lieut. Kelly until the summer holidays arrive.

Clarence Wood of Queen's University, has joined the cyclist corps, being organized under Lieut. McKim.

Sunday afternoon was observed as "Soldiers' Day" in the Bible school of Sydenham Street Methodist Church. The programme was entirely in charge of soldiers. Lieut. Smith, of the 146th Battalion, acted as chairman and two buglers of the 146th sounded the bugle call. Company Sergt.-Major William McFadden rendered two very entertaining readings, while a trio was given by Sergt.-Major Fisher, Sergt. Lawrence, 146th Battalion, Pt. Spence, 15th Hylanders. Gunner Hicks of the Ammunition Column contributed two piano selections.

A large number bandages were donated by the Sydenham Street School scholars, as is the custom the last Sunday of each month.

Peter Marshall and George Downes, Vancouver, B. C., have joined the 50th (Queen's) Battery, and George Risteen, Vancouver, B. C., is on his way east to join.

The many friends of F. W. Partridge will be pleased to hear that in recognition of his splendid services with "C" Company, 77th Battalion, Ottawa, he has been promoted to the rank of major. Major Partridge was in command of "A" Company, 47th Regiment, before taking the appointment in the 77th.

The recruits whom the 13th C. M. R., Hamilton, have enlisted here for service overseas, leave for Hamilton on Tuesday. The recruiting sergeants have been very successful, and have obtained over fifty men. Of this number about twenty-five have been gotten in Kingston. Following are the names of the men enlisted from Kingston: G. C. Adair, Lorne Albertson, Sherman Albertson, W. J. Bourdeau, T. J. Burke, C. Crumley, R. Dobbs, F. W. Eccles, J. Forsythe, J. P. Gallagher, A. Hay, W. J. W. Jackson, P. S. Lake, J. Newall, William Nolan, F. C. Parle, E. Robinson, W. J. Symons, H. C. Smith, H. J. Turcott, S. Tyo, W. O'D. Waters, W. Wilkinson.

During the past two weeks 790 men were recruited in the 3rd Divisional Area. This is quite a falling off in enlistment.

ALL SURRENDER.

(Special to the Whig.) London, May 1.—All the Dubuque rebel commanders have surrendered. It was officially announced this afternoon.

Part of Gun Works Burned.

(Special to the Whig.) Cherbourg, May 1.—Fire of unknown origin Saturday night partially destroyed the branch here of the Creusot gun works. The Creusot works turn out the famous French 75's and other guns for the French army.

THEATRICAL NEWS

To-night at the Grand.

"Out of the Drifts" with Marguerite Clarke in the role features a real good bill of photoplay and vaudeville at the Grand for to-night, Tuesday and Wednesday. The story is one of devotion and conversion. It is admirably screened and the background of Alpine settings could not be improved upon. A two-reel Universal photoplay, a one-reel comedy, the Pathe News and the Topical Budget round out the screen portion of the bill. Two first-class vaudeville acts have been booked—Lawrence Doo, a high-class musical act, and Bella Hilton, in singing and character changes.

Let Kitty Do It.

The feature photo-play coming to the Strand on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday is a Triang masterpiece in five big acts, entitled "Let Kitty Do It," in which "Jane Gray" and "Tully Marshall," two prominent Broadway stars, are seen to great advantage. The heroine of the story, Katy Standish, (Jane Gray), is obliged to take all the responsibility of the family. Her sister marries, has seven children. Katy's parents die; her sister and her husband are killed by an express train and Katy takes the burden of looking after the seven small kids. They finally go to live with an Uncle in Mexico. He shows them how a series of secret guns and a mine around the house can be discharged if necessary. The children are alone. Mexicans attack the house and they prove equal to the occasion and save the situation. This picture is brimful of action from start to finish and has played to crowded houses all over the States. It is particularly interesting to mothers and the kiddies. A two-act Keystone comedy, "The Great Pearl Tangle," featuring "Sam Bernard" and also four other good reels of pictures, complete a bill that should pack the theatre at all performances.

Out of the Ashes.

This is the title of a two reel subject featuring Winnifred Greenwood and Ed. Coxen, also the 12th episode in the Diamond From the Sky. "To the Highest Bidder," concluding with a very laughable comedy "Touring with Tillie," at the King Edward to-night and Tuesday. Usual admission.

7 KINGSTON MEN VICTIMS AT ST. ELOI.

Seven Kingstonians who were members of the 21st Battalion, met death in the battle of St. Eloi, according to the latest information, received in letters from the front on Monday morning. Sergt. J. Scott, formerly of Portsmouth; Pte. Loll-seau (Henry Bird), Pte. Cecil Burke, Pte. Summers, and Pte. Swallow, were killed while Stanley Guild and Pte. Poffley died of wounds.

KINGSTON POLICE CAPTURE A MUCH-WANTED FORGER

(Continued from page 1.) he get some person to identify me," he said to one of the constables. "Never mind, you had better come along to the police station," said one of the constables, and the fellow was taken to the lock-up in a taxi before he had time to make further protest.

Looking For Others.

Very little information has been given out about the case, owing to the fact that the police are looking for others implicated, but it is understood that they have secured a stamping outfit for cheques among the young man's belongings, and a large number of forged cheques. Tremaine played a very clever ruse to work his game. Attired in khaki, he registered at the Randolph Hotel. Then he went to the British-American hotel and registered, and here discarded the khaki and dressed as a civilian.

At the Randolph hotel Tremaine who was accompanied by a woman, and the two were registered as "T. M. Grant and wife," but gave no address. Another man and woman registered at the same time, but it is supposed the four comprise the part of a gang.

Algonquin Park.

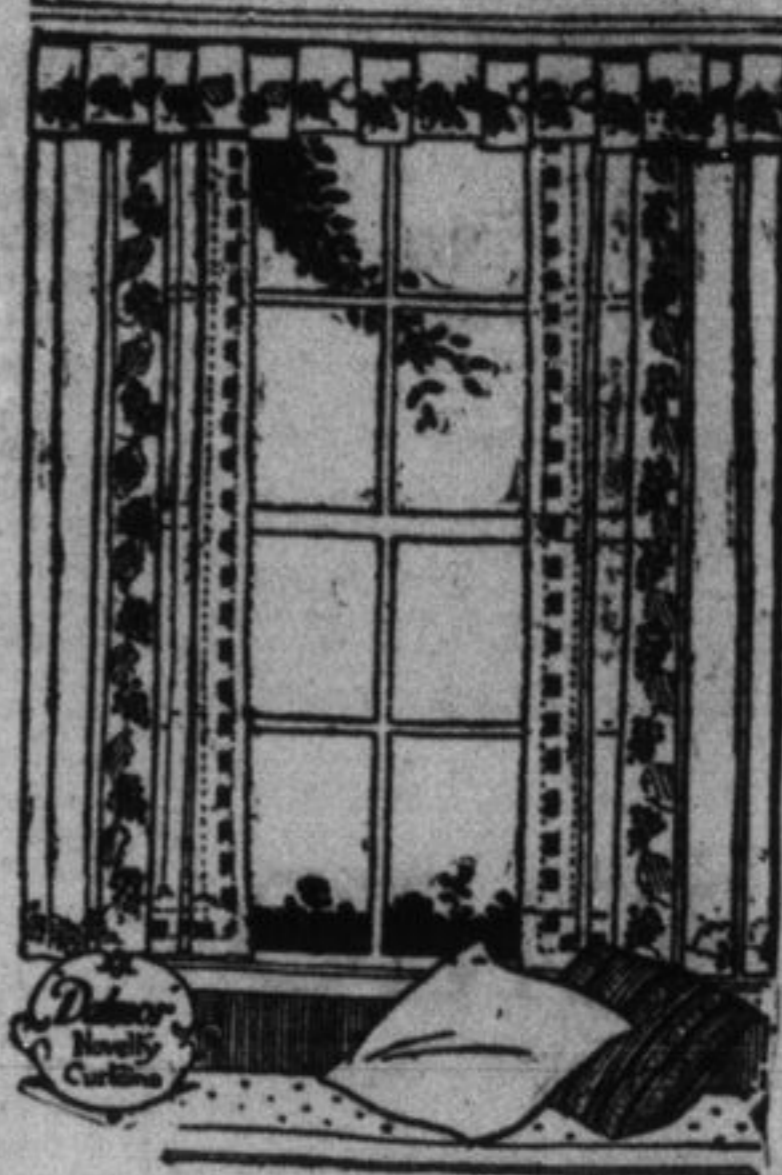

This wonderful Government reserve of 2,500,000 acres of forest, lakes and rivers set aside for a playground for the people has become one of the principal objective points of the summer tourist, the camper and canoeist. Good hotels and log cabin camps with most reasonable rates, situated in different parts of the park and operated by the Grand Trunk Railway System offer first-class accommodation for those who do not desire to live out-of-doors. Unlimited canoe routes for the camper, splendid fishing, beautiful country (1,500 lakes in the park) and pure and invigorating air is found here at an altitude of 2,000 feet above sea level. Illustrated descriptive literature and all particulars may be had on application to any Grand Trunk Agent.

A Missionary "At Home."

The annual "at home" in connection with the W. M. S. of Princess Street Church was held at the home of Mrs. J. Brebner, 680 Princess street. A sale of home-made cooking in charge of Mrs. Dury and Mrs. Darling was well patronized. The opening of mite boxes was a very interesting part, and produced over $30. In the evening a fine programme was given by the Misses Wilder, Parrot, Timmerman, Peters, and B. Couper. The tea table was in charge of Misses Graves, Hunter and Parrott. Mrs. Chown and Mrs. Pierce poured the tea.

Real Estate Transfer.

E. W. Mullin & Son report the sale of a brick dwelling, No. 148, on the west side of Frontenac street, owned by L. Clark, to Bernard McGeela.
