

LIEUT. BRANDON, OF THE BRITISH ROYAL AVIATION CORPS. Who twice climbed above a Zeppelin during the last raid on England, dropped bombs on it and forced it to descend. American Press Association. Upper photo.

MEETING OF THE ALLIED GENERALS AND PREMIERS AT PARIS, ON MARCH 29TH. From left to right they are—Gen. Jolinaky, of Russia; Ambassador Tittoni, Italy; Gen. Cadorna, Italy; N. Leon Bourgeois, France; Premier Sallandra, Italy; Aristide Briand, France; M. Broqueville, Belgium; Gen. Paschitch, Serbia, and Asquith, of England. It was probably decided upon at this conference to bring Russian troops to help strengthen the French line at Verdun. Centre photo.

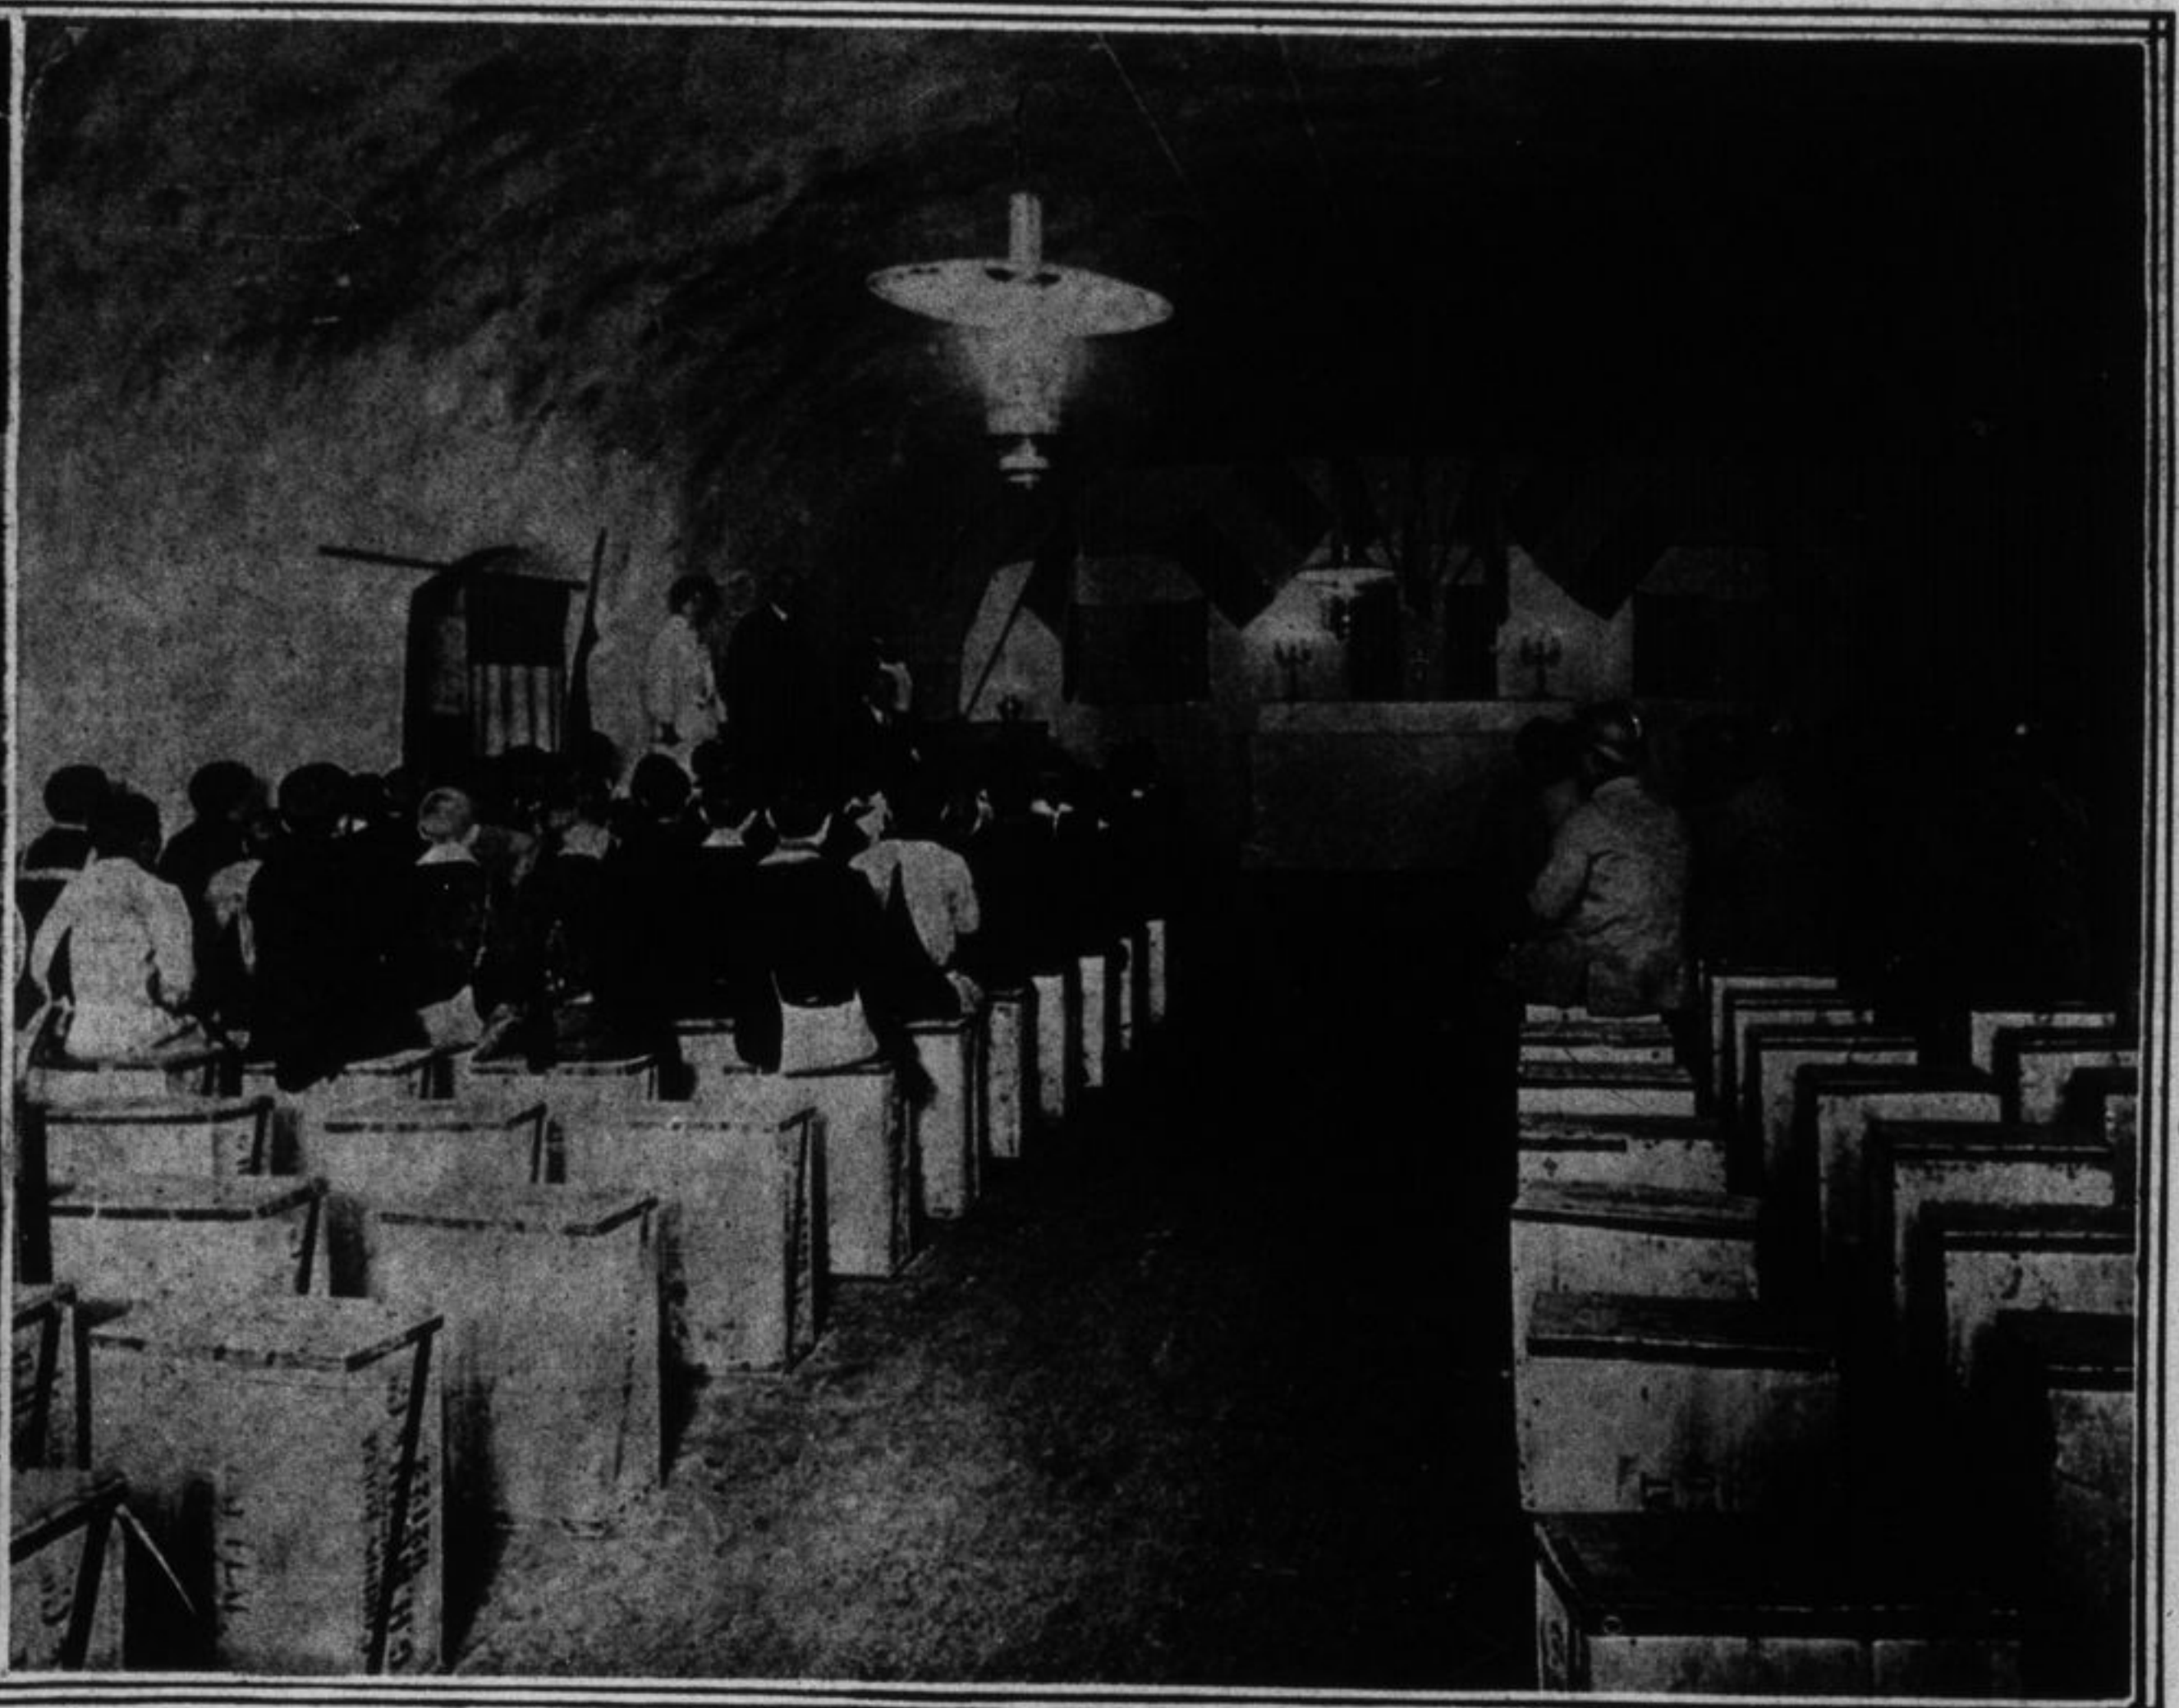

WOLF VON IGEL. Former Secretary to Capt. Franz Von Papen, dismissed German military attache, who was arrested in connection with the plot to blow up the Welland Canal. He is said to be the alleged paymaster in the conspiracy. Photo was taken after his arrest. Upper photo.

PORTABLE WIRELESS OUTFIT WITH THE EXPEDITIONARY FORCE AT NAMIQUIPA, MEXICO. Which is the only means of communication between the American forces in Mexico and Gen. Funston's headquarters.

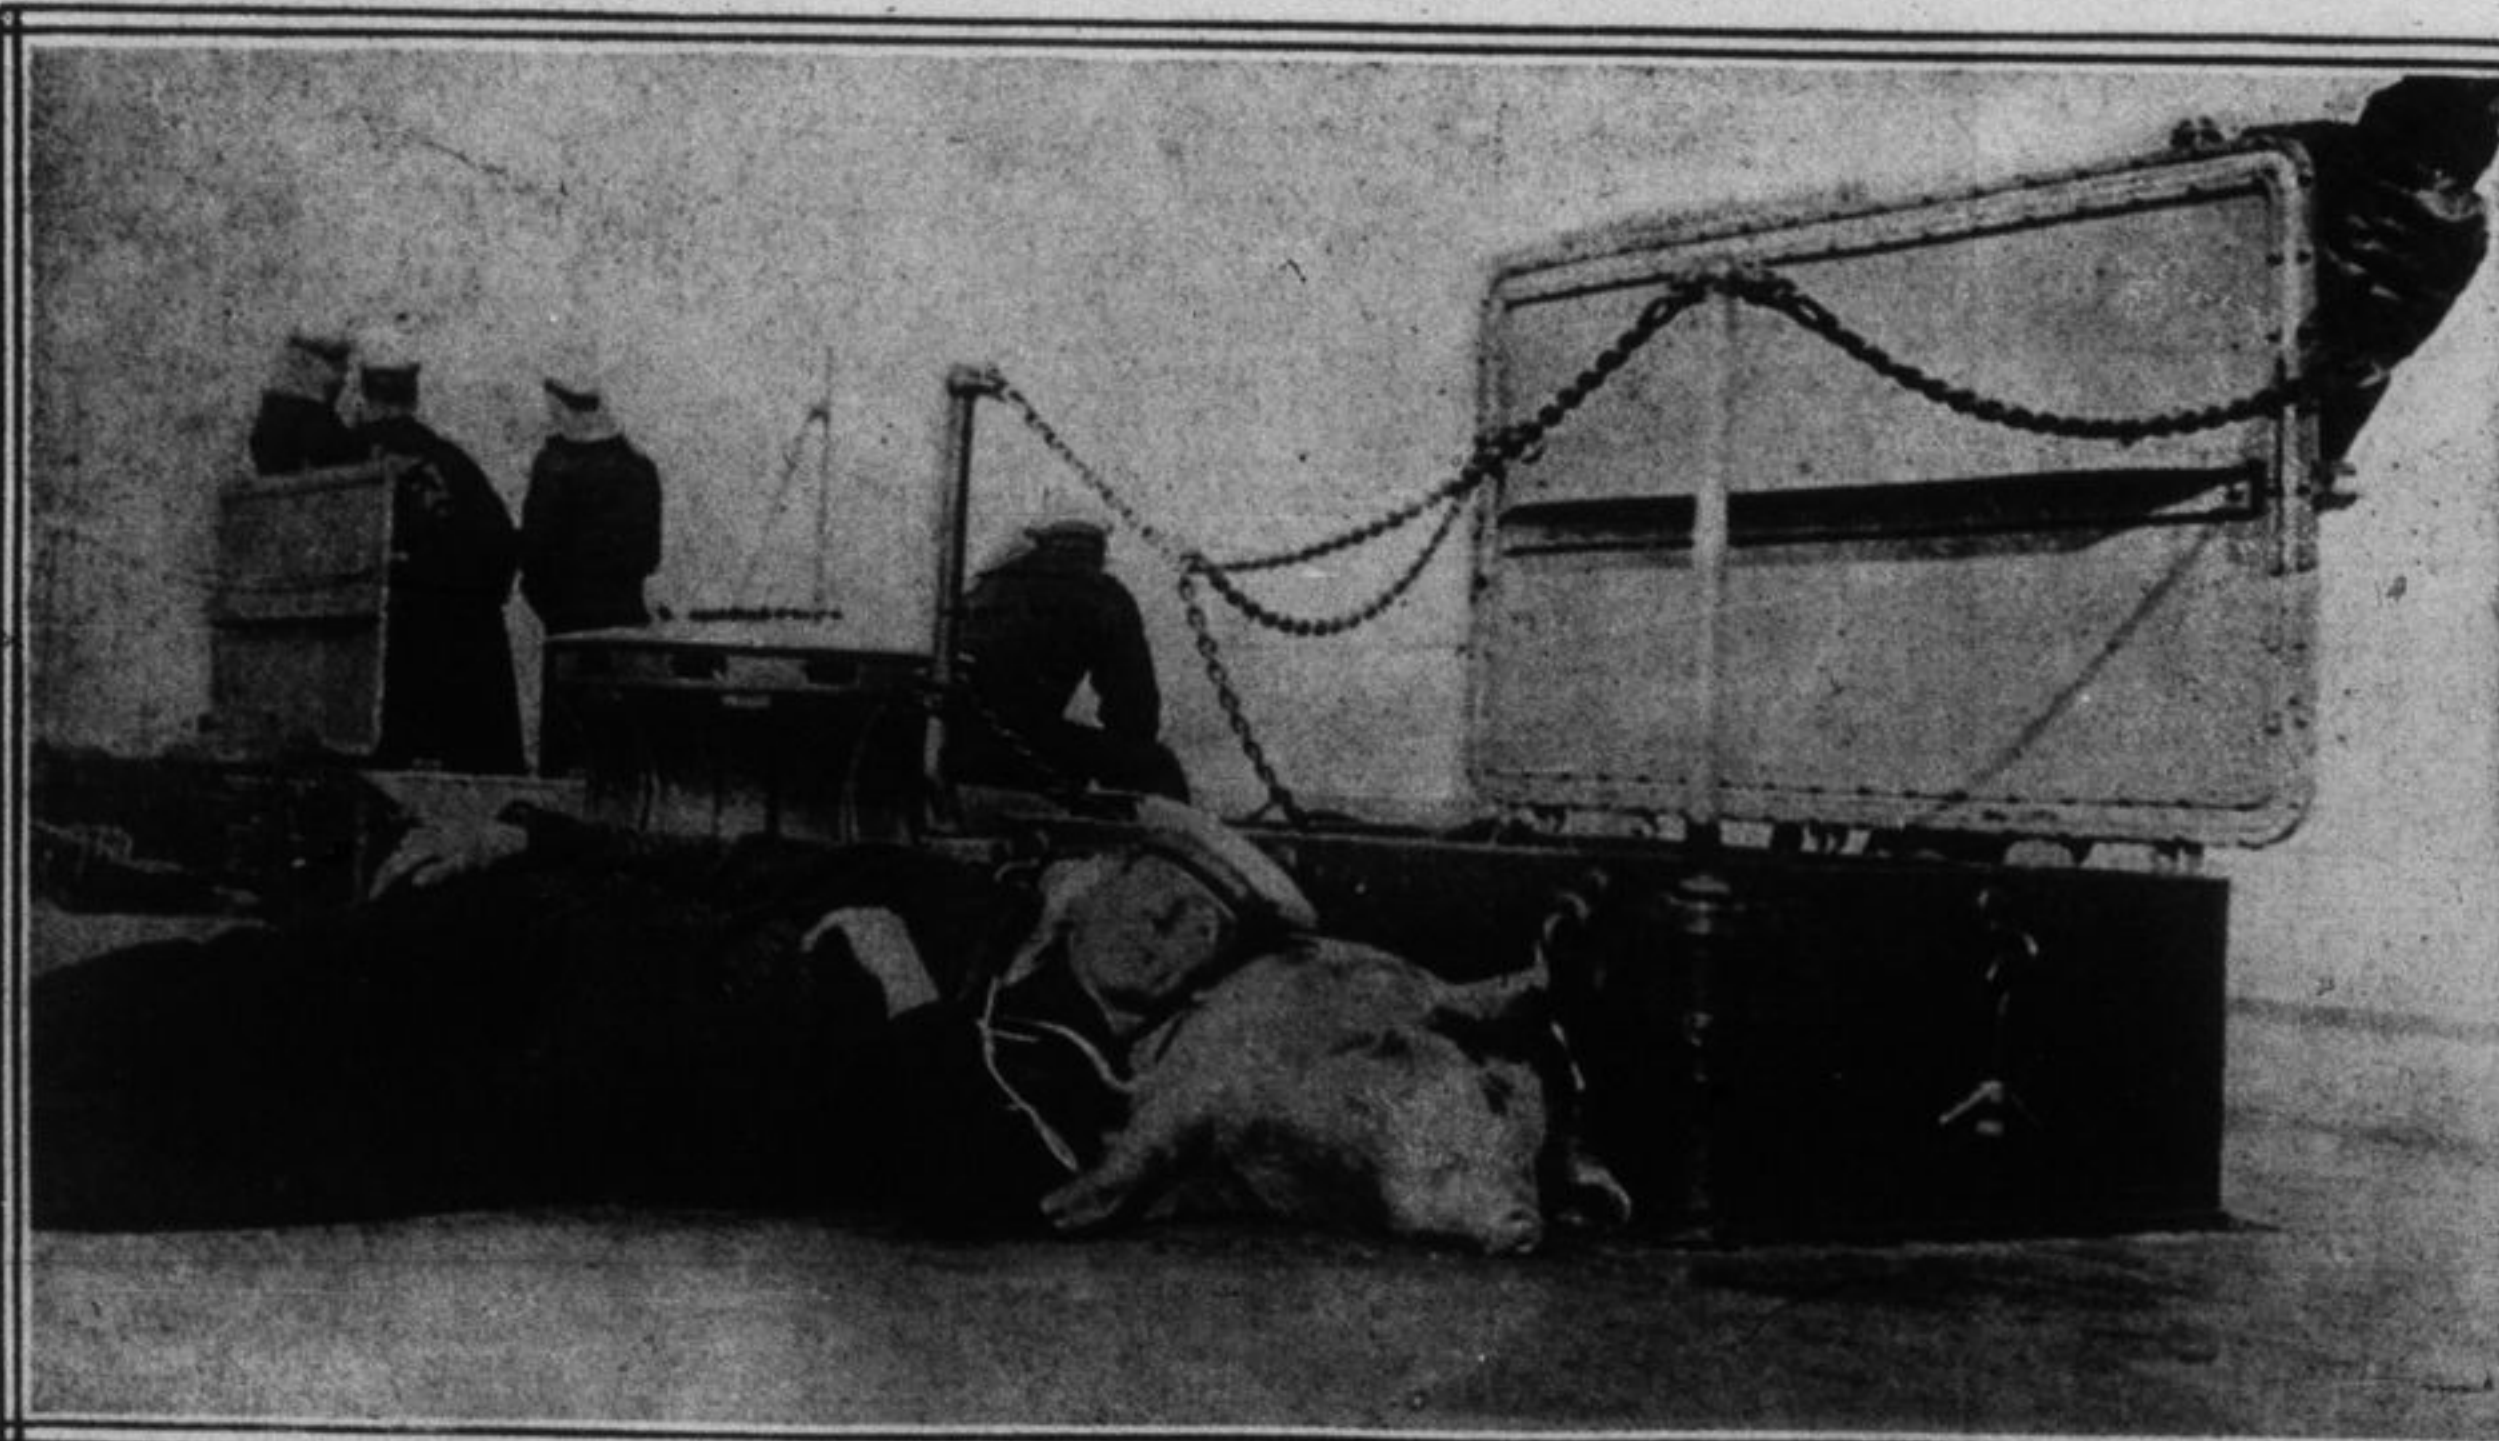

MILITIA QUELLS RIOT IN MUNITIONS STRIKE. Four companies of the New York National Guard, each member of which carried 100 pounds of ammunition and three day's rations, are now at Hastings, N.Y., in a response to Sheriff Weisendander after rioting strikers had attacked employes of the National Conduit and Cable Company with clubs and stones. The Sheriff had been informed by the civil authorities that they were unable to control the situation. Photo shows the militia entering the National Conduit and Cable Companies plant at Hastings, N. Y.

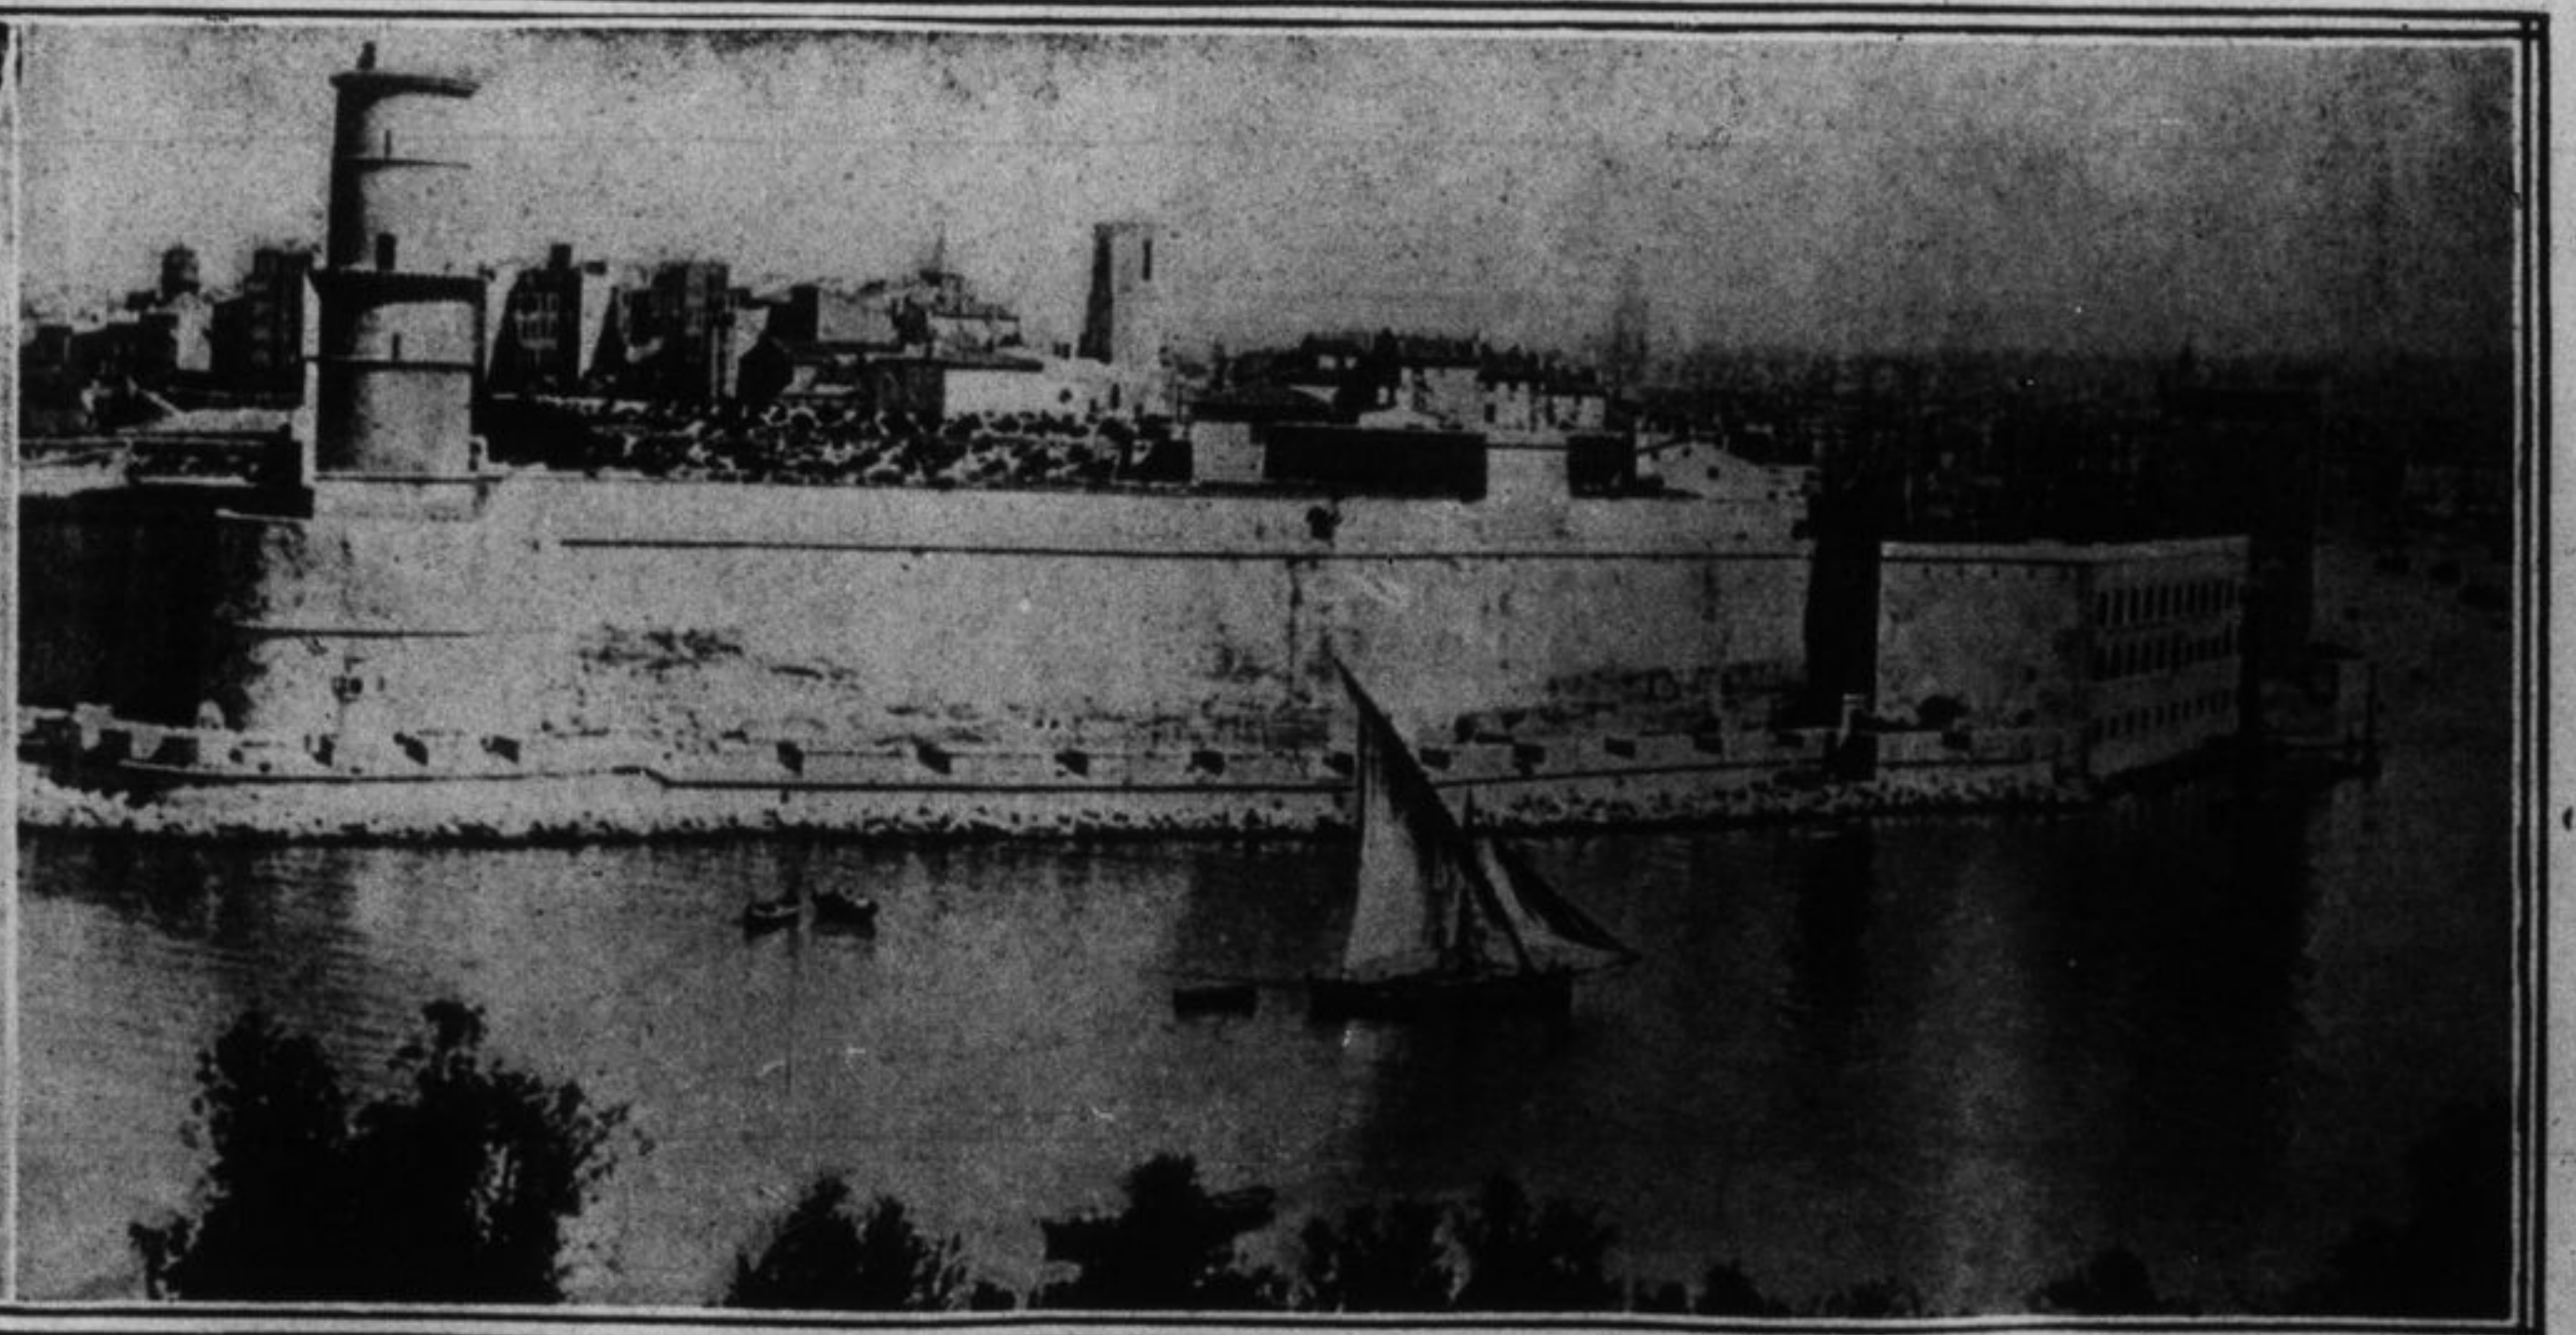

RHEIMS WINE-CELLAR AS A SCHOOL ROOM. Provided with gas masks (carried in club bags), as a protection against German shells, the children of Rheims attend the school at Rheims in the famous champagne cellars.

CHURCH-SERVICES IN WINE-CELLAR AT RHEIMS. Full champagne cases are used for seats both by the children and helmeted soldiers who attend.

PEGGY AND HIS PALS. Photo shows the pig saved by the men of the H. M. S. "Glasgow" from the German cruiser "Dresden," and made a pet of by the crew. Has taken kindly to its new mates. The pig and his pals enjoying a siesta.

VIEW OF THE HARBOR OF MARSEILLES, FRANCE. Where the Russian troops, which are to fight side by side with the French, landed on French soil.