

ICE JAM OFF MACDONALD PARK, KINGSTON, IN WINTER OF 1900.

Corp. P. Walker, Kingston, with the 13th C.M.R.S.'s, now in England.

Private Allan B. Haffner, No. 7 General Hospital, France. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Haffner, 409 Johnson St., Kingston.

BROTHERS-IN-ARMS—Two boys not afraid or ashamed to wear the King's uniform. William George Craig (right) of the Royal North West Mounted Police, in the Yukon, and Gordon Maxwell Craig (left) Mechanical Transport Driver, Canadian Army Service Corps, now in England. Two sons of W. J. Craig, Keewatin, Ont., grandsons of the late William Craig, "Laird of Glenburnie."

Private Howard Salisbury, 21 Sixth street, Kingston. Although only seventeen years of age he is at the front with the 21st Battalion.

Drummer Norman E. Hasteley, 21st Battalion (Kingston) Pipe Band, wounded April 4th.

Some Beauty Spots in Charming Napanee

This Enterprising Town, 25 Miles West of Kingston, is a Delightful Residential Centre

VIEW ON THE OLD CANAL, NAPANEE, ONT.

HARVEY WARNER PARK, NAPANEE, ONT.

THE FALLS, NAPANEE, ONT.

CAMPBELL HOUSE, NAPANEE, ONT.

VIEW OF NAPANEE RIVER ABOVE THE FALLS.

PALACE ROAD, NAPANEE, ONT.

A THUNDERSTORM ON THE BAY NEAR NAPANEE, ONT.

MILLHAVEN CREEK, NAPANEE, ONT.

VIEW OF NAPANEE RIVER FROM CEMETERY.